I dedicate this book

TO OUR ANCESTORS AND RELATIVES who have lived and died before us not knowing that we would be hunger for each story, photo, document and slip of paper showing their signature.

TO CANIEL CORLEY who so generously and boldly named his mistress, Sally Finley, and her six children in his will in 1807

TO SALLY FINLEY, the matriarch of our clan, who so bravely raised her six children without benefit of marriage

TO THE PRESENT AND FUTURE GENERATIONS OF DESCENDANTS who may be bitten by the genealogy bug. May they feel the thrill of the search and the excitement of discovery. Just because this book was written don't think everything has been found. There are discoveries yet to be made.

TO MY CO-AUTHOR, ED GRIFFITH who has contributed far more than I could ever list. His research expertise and relentless searching has filled many gaps. I couldn't have done it without his help.

And most importantly

TO MY WIFE, SUSANNAH who has experienced many conversationless nights while I worked away on my laptop. She swears I have two mistresses; one named Dot Com and the other named Genie Ology. She should know she is my one and only love.

Warning! Genealogy isn't a hobby, it's an addiction!

As it is with all genealogies, this work will never be completed; it is a perpetual "Work in progress." With each question that is answered, with each new ancestor found two more questions are created. This book is by no means a complete list of every descendant of Sally Finley, but it IS the most complete record we have to date. Every effort has been made to find as many names of her descendants as possible, but many of the names are lost or not available to the authors.

Both of the authors are firm believers of documenting their research and citing the primary source documents to support what they have written. That is why this book is "document rich" and tends to steer away from "family tradition" in creating this record.

Even with all the primary source documentation used, mistakes have undoubtedly been made. Apologies are extended in advance to those whose information is incorrect. Mistakes were unintentional and in no way included to embarrass or do harm. Mistakes are unavoidable. If your portion of this book has an error, please contact the lead author, Tom Caulley, at tcaulleysgenmail so a correction can be made in the master database.

Please keep the authors informed as your portion of the family grows and changes. The master data base will be updated as news of births, deaths, marriages, divorces and other life events occur. Please send the authors copies of newspaper articles, obituaries,birth and wedding announcements, reunion announcements and reports. As always, family photos are always welcome!

Since Tom Caulley, and his wife, Suz, have no children, he considers this book his legacy to the future generations of Corley descendants. It is his intention to keep the history of the Finley-Corley (Cawley, Cauley, Caulley, Colley) family alive by committing the names of descendants to print in one volume. He hopes to help the youth of the family learn about history by showing them that their ancestors were participants in events like the Colonization of America, the American Revolution, The Mexican American War, The Civil War, World Wars I and II, Westward Expansion and settling the frontier.

Cherish your family. It's the most important thing thing you have in this world!

SALLY FINLEY THE MYSTERIOUS MATRIARCH

WHO WAS Sally FINLEY ?

To understand WHO Sally Finley was, we first need some background information. In 1783, shortly after the end of the Revolutionary War, a man by the name of Caniel (can EYE el) Corley who was a resident of Prince Edward Co., Virginia bought 110 acres of land on Falling Creek from Thomas Pate of Montgomery Co. This is the first record we have for Caniel Corley. In fact, the ONLY records we have for Caniel are two grantee deeds, one grantor deed, four land grants and his will. We do not know his year of birth, but we have estimated it to be about 1747 based on the fact that he had 4 adult male children when he died.

Caniel Corley was a member of one of Virginia's early families. The Corleys arrived in Virginia around 1666 with the first member being Richard Crawley. Members of the family have resided in orange, Henrico, Amelia, Cumberland and Prince Edward Counties. The Corleys have deep roots in colonial Virginia.

Bedford county, Virginia was on the frontier in 1783. To the east were the more refined cities of the colony, and to the west, beyond the mountains, lay lands full of Native Americans (Indian) and danger. Bedford county was the "home base" of many of those known as Long Hunters. These were men who would leave their wives and children in the relative safety of places like Bedford County and take hunting parties into present day Kentucky and Tennessee. They were often gone for 6-months or longer at a time. Among the ranks of the Long hunters were men like Daniel Boone, Elisha Wallen, Richard Callaway and John Finley.

Caniel's will was written on January 19th, 1807 and proven on the 22nd of June 1807.

The following is a transcript of Caniel Corley's will:

Note: Paragraphing has been done to improve readability.

IN THE NAME OF GOD AMEN. I Caniel Corley of the county of Bedford and state of Virginia, being weak in body but of perfect sound mind and memory, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament in manner and form, to wit,

At a Court held for Bedford County at the Court House the 22nd day of June, 1807. This Last Will and Testament of Caniel Corley Decd. was exhibited in court by Robert Hardy, Allen Corley, and John Pate, the Exors. therein named and proved by the oath of Wm. Pate John Rank and Alexander Brown the subscribing witnesses& ordered to be Recorded, And on the motion of the said Exors. Who made oath, who together with Edmund Pate, Joseph Hardy and Thomas Wright their securities entered into and acknowledged their bond in the sum of One Thousand Pounds conditioned according to law. Certificate is granted them for obtaining a probate thereof in due form.

Notice that Caniel names four sons, Sallathiel, William, Beverly and Cheatham, and he names two daughters Pheba and Lucy. There is no doubt that they are his children as he names them as such in his will. Now notice how he deals with Sally Finley and her six children. His gift to Polly Finley is the same as the gift he gave his two daughters. Also note that he gave "the balance of my estate both real and personal" to Sally Finley and her children. This amounted to over 900 acres of land, the plantation house, one slave and various household goods amounting to over $850 at his estate sale.

This was no small chunk of change! Also notice how he worded his bequest to Sally: "..a sufficiency to afford the said Sally Finley a comfortable support, which I give her during her life.." and continues saying " But in the event of the said Sally Finley's marrying the estate herein given to her is to be taken out of her possession and divided amongst he six children..." This wording is almost identical to other post Revolution wills I've seen from men to their wives.

Lastly, note that an Allen CORLEY was named as one of the executors of Caniel's will. The ONLY Allen Corley living in Bedford Co. at that time was actually Allen FINLEY, son of Sally Finley. Almost immediately after Caniel's death Sally Finley's six children began using both Finley AND Corley as their surnames. As time went on they used Corley (or Cawley, Cally, Cauley, etc) more exclusively and they used Finley less and less. The last use of Finley was by Berry and his wife, Rhoda, & others when they sold land to Isaac James in 1829. Even Sally used the surname Corley on the 1810 and 1820 censuses in Bedford Co.where she is identified as Sarah Corly, living next door to her son, Jeremiah Corley.

The mystery of Sally Finley's identity has been with us almost since Berry, the last of her children died in the 1870s. With him died the knowledge of his mother's true identity.

In 1927 Dwitt C. Corley, a descendant of Jonathan CHEATHAM Corley wrote the book titled A GENEALOGY OF CORLEYS. On page 3 of this book her wrote:

" The aforesaid will mentions as sons and daughters of the testor the following persons, to-wit: Sallathiel Corley, William Corley, Beverly Corley, Cheatham Corley, Pheba Corley, Lucy Corley and Sallie Finley.

While Sallie Finley is not expressly named as a daughter, the writer infers from the nature of the gifts provided in said will for Sallie Finley, that she was a daughter."

And later in the book he writes about a letter he received. The text from page 7 is as follows:

> " The compiler has a letter from Silas Coleman, of Amhurst, Virginia, of November 24, 1919, in which he relates to me that his grandmother's maiden name was Lucy Corley, and that he had often heard his father relate that she came from Bedford County, Virginia, and that she was a daughter of Caniel Corley, that he had frequently heard his father state that his grandmother, Lucy Corley, was a sister of Sallathiel, Beverly, Cheatham, William, and Pheba Corley and Sallie Finley. He also states that said Lucy Corley married a Mr. Clark, and that her daughter, Mildred, married Barry Coleman, and he begat a son, Jessie Coleman, who was the father of Silas Coleman, of Amhurst."

This sounded so promising that I tried to "Back-Trace" from Silas Coleman through Jesse and Berry and wife Mildred to Lucy Corly. The results of that search are as follows:

The 1920 Census has Silas Coleman, age 64 living in Court House Township, Amherst Co,

The 1880 Census has Silas age 25 living with Jesse age 71 & Susan Coleman age 66 in Amherst Co., VA

The 1870 Census has Silas age 15 living with Jesse age 60 & Susan Coleman age 56 in Amherst Co., VA

The 1860 Census does not have them listed

The 1850 census has Jesse Coleman age 40 & Susan Coleman age 36 in Eastern, Amherst Co., VA (the 1850 census was the first census to list every member of a household)

The 1840 Census has Jesse Coleman as the head of a household in Amherst Co, VA with 1 Male Under 5 & 1 Males - 30 thru 39

The 1830 Census has neither a Jesse nor a Berry Coleman in Amherst Co., VA

The 1820 Census has Berry Coleman in Amherst C., VA showing 3 Males - Under 10, 1 Male - 10 thru 15 and 1 Males - 45 and over

This all appears as if it is supporting Silas Coleman's letter, until we note that Lucy Corley married James Siner on 17 January, 1807 in Bedford Co., VA . The 1850 census shows Lucy Siner, age 64 living in the Southern Division of Bedford CO., VA, as she was in 1840. In 1830 I found James Sinor in Bedford Co., We have a list of all her children, which were: Daniel Siner , James Siner, John Siner, Jonathan Siner , Judith Siner, Kitty Siner, Sally Siner, Sophia Siner, William Siner and Peter Siner .

Further more, there is no record of a marriage for Lucy Corley to a Mr. Clark nor is there a marriage record for a Mildred Clark and a Berry Coleman. Couple that with the approximate birth date for Jesse Coleman as found on the censuses, he could not have been a descendant of Lucy Corley, as he outlined in his letter to Dewitt C. Corley.

The Corley researchers have developed a total of five theories about Sally Finley. They are:

THEORY # 1...SALLY FINLEY WAS A SLAVE, AND CANIEL CORLEY FATHERED 6 CHILDREN BY HER.

This is possible, but not probable. None of Sally's children appeared as MULATTO, or anything other than WHITE, on each of the censuses in which they are found. Sally Finley gave permission for Phebe CORLEY, a minor, to marry in 1814. This implies that Sally was recognized by the county, and possibly even the state as Phebe's guardian. A slave or black person would not have been given such legal power in 19th century Virginia.

THEORY # 2...SALLY FINLEY WAS THE LEGAL 2ND WIFE OF CANIEL CORLEY.

Again, possible, but not probable. Why wouldn't Caniel have named her as his wife? No such marriage has been found.

THEORY # 3...SALLY FINLEY WAS THE MISTRESS OF CANIEL CORLEY

Again this is possible, but I can't imagine anyone being so bold in the early 1800's as to NAME his mistresses IN HIS WILL. Surely he would have found other ways to guarantee his mistress received a sizeable inheritance without putting her name in a public document.

THEORY # 4...SALLY FINLEY WAS THE WIFE/WIDOW OF AN UNNAMED SON OF CANIEL CORLEY.

This is again a possibility. Particularly since one of her sons was sometimes called Littleberry Finley/Corley. Could Caniel have had a son named BERRY that preceded him in death? If so, why weren't the children given the CORLEY name or identified as "my grandson" or "my granddaughter"?

THEORY # 5...SALLY FINLEY WAS THE WIDOWED OR ABANDONED DAUGHTER OF CANIEL CORLEY WHO CAME HOME TO LIVE WITH FATHER.

This one seems more probable than the 1st two. Still the nagging question WHY DIDN'T HE NAME HER AS A DAUGHTER IN HIS WILL? Here's what I think could be an explanation. If you check the birth dates of Caniel's known/named daughters you will see that Phoeba was married in 1814 and Lucy was married in 1808. Both of these were married AFTER Caniel died, so they still were using the surname CORLEY when he wrote his will. Now Sally would have been married ca 1785/1786 since her first born, Allen Finley (Corley) was born ca 1786. That means she would have already been married, and going by another surname (Finley) when Caniel wrote his will on Jan 19, 1807. It is very possible that if she had been widowed or abandoned, she could very well have "moved home" to take care of her ailing father while giving her children a secure home.

Until very recently I favored theory #5. But then we found a marriage record for Berry (Finley) Corley/Cawley's second marriage in Mercer Co, West VA. On 20 September, 1864 he married Elizabeth Peters, a widow 32 years his junior. On this marriage record he listed his father as DANIEL Cawley. Daniel is a common misspelling of the name Caniel. That little tid bit has shifted my thinking to the point where I am now leaning HEAVILY towards theory #3,SALLY FINLEY WAS CANIEL'S MISTRESS.

With the advancement of genetic science and DNA, we now have another tool. I recently had a Paternal Y-Chromosome test run on me, since I descend from Sally's son Allen in a male-to-male chain. When the results came in, my two closest matches were both Corleys. One is a descendant of Richard Corley born ca 1675 and is 10 generations back from me and my closest match is 8 generations from the same person, or our "Common Ancestor". The match was so close (43 of the 43 markers tested had the same results) that Ancestry.com's estimate is we are connected with our common ancestor being only one generation back. So my male DNA is 100% Corley and NOT Finley meaning Sally's children were fathered by a Corley, most probably Caniel! I now fully support theory number 3.

Background and Research on Sally Finley

Sally Finley's birth date or birth year is not recorded on any document. This left us with the only other method of determining when she was born, an educated guess or estimation. We have taken the two "Known dates" in her life, and calculated her year of birth from based on them.

The first *Known is the year her eldest child was born. Allen was born (1786). This is information we have been able to gather from the different censuses where he was recorded. If she was of legal age at that time, she would have been born about 1767 (1786 - 9 months -18 years= 1767) .

The second *Known is the earliest On the 1810 census which recorded Sally. This was the 1810 census where she is listed as being a Female - 45 and over, so the latest she could have been born was 1765 (1810-45= 1765). Since the 1820 census sheds no additional light on her age, and she cannot be found on any later censuses, we can only assume she was born circa 1766.

We also do not know who Sally Finley's parents where. Going on the assumption that Finley was be maiden or birth surname, we have found one possible set of candidates for her parents. Recently I received a copy of a deed recorded in Bedford County. This is not your typical deed as it does not transfer ownership of land, but is the gift of items. The deed reads as follows:

Know all persons whom these presents may concern that I John Armour Findley of Bedford County and State of Virginia doe freely and greatly Bequeath give and Deliver unto my Daughter Sarah Findley Two Cows and Calves markt as , one a Brown cow and yearling a Crop on her near year and an under keel in the Right , the other a Black Bonn and young Calve a Crop on the near ear and an under Keel in the Right also a milky Roan mare about Six year old branded on the near shoulder T on the near Buttock thus T also a bed and white Cow markt on the Right Ear 2 Keels, also one Feather Bed and furniture also one Large Dutch Oven also on Flax Wheel one Woolen Wheel also half of my Pewter. I give the above Nominated Effects to my Daughter Sarah Findley to her use and Behoof,.....

John Armour goes on to bequeath similar gifts to his daughter Elizabeth Findley. Later in the deed he writes:

.....Therefore I John Armour Findley and Mary Findley my wide doe make give over and deliver unto the said Sarah Findley and Elizabeth Findley our Daughters the said goods and chattels as above mentioned to the only proper use and Behoof of the said Sarah and Elizabeth Findley and their Heirs and assigns forever (Excepting they should marry contrary to the said John Amour Findley and his wife Mary Findley's Liking , if they doe , either one of them then that ones Effects above mentioned is to be returned to us again) But if they marry to our Liking these are to remain their Properties forever as above written.....

The name Sarah was used by Sally Finley on at least 2 censuses and one legal document. Of course, this is not definitive proof that John Amour and Mary Findley were Sally Findley's parents, but it makes us wonder if maybe she decided she just wouldn't marry and that would show her father and mother.

For the eighteen years following Caniel Corley's death we get brief glimpses of Sally through legal documents, mainly deeds and marriage consent forms. They are as follows:

On an 1808 A deed from Cheatham & Delilah Corley conveying 100 Acres on Falling Creek and Bratcher's Road to Sally Finley and her children.

Name Traced to ebhabce readability

1812 finds Sally Finley purchasing land on the North Side of Staunton River from Alexander Brown.

In 1813 Sally CORLEY grants permission for her daughter, Polly CORLEY to marry James Thornhill.

In 1814 Sally Finley, along with Beverly Cauley and James Corley give permission for Feaby (Pheba) Caulley (Corley) to marry John Adams.

In 1819 Sarah Corley signs permission for her son Jeremiah Corley to marry Miss Elizabeth Lacey.

In 1820 Federal Census of the Southern District of Bedford County, Virginia shows Sarah Corley entered next to Jeremiah Corley.

1825 finds the final time Sally's name is found on a document. It is on the sale of the 50 acres she inherited from Caniel in 1807. She signed with her mark.

1830 finds a female, aged 60 to 69 living with Jeremiah Cowley. We can assume that this was his mother, Sally. That is the last direct or implied evidence I can find of Sally Finley. We can only assume that Sally Finley died sometime between the 1830 census and the date the 1840 census was recorded, as Sally/Sarah is not seen again.

We have no idea where Sally Finley/Corley is buried, but I assume is is somewhere on the old family "Plantation" south of Stewartsville on Falling Creek, where Caniel first settle upon his arrival in Bedford County back in 1783.

Sally Finley had to have been a strong woman to have raised a family of six children alone in a rough and rugged district. Some of her children migrated to West Virginia, others to Kentucky and Ohio, and some of their descendants spread out to live from the Atlantic Ocean all the way to the Hawaiian Islands. Still, today descendants of Sally Finley can be found living in Bedford and Roanoke Counties, just a few miles from the Corley homestead on Falling Creek in Bedford County, Virginia.

The remainder of this book is dedicated to recording the descendants of each of Sally Finley's six children. Sally Finley, the Mysterious Matriarch of the Corley Clan!

DNA TESTING

What is it? How does it work?
What was learned?

DNA testing, in genealogy, is the best way to prove descent from or relationship to other individuals. The following is an abbreviated layman's definition of the Paternal Y-Chromosome DNA test available from Ancestry.com.

Paternal Lineage and the Y-Chromosome

A male providing his Y-chromosome sample also represents the DNA of his father, paternal grandfather, and so on up the paternal line. Y-chromosome results are generally identical throughout the paternal line. But because mutations do occur, it is possible for a son's results to be slightly different from his father's or his brother's.

The Y-DNA test looks at specific regions of the Y-chromosome. These regions are known to contain a series of repeating sequences of DNA molecules (for more information see short tandem repeat). All men have these repeating segments; what differs between men is the number of times the specific sequence repeats. Counting these repeats is what constitutes the results of the Y-DNA test.

The more Y-chromosome markers tested, the greater the precision of the test. For example, an 18 marker Y-chromosome test that matches another participant's test on all 18 markers, allows a common ancestor to be predicted within a range of 1 to 27 generations. Two participants matching on all 46 markers, on the other hand, can narrow their common ancestor to exist within 1 to 10 generations! For most, a Y-DNA test comparison with up to 2 or 3 mismatches will indicate that there is a genealogically relevant relation in past generations.

The Y-chromosome test also provides a look into your ancient paternal ancestry through a prediction of your ancient haplogroup, or deep ancestral grouping haplogroups were formed when ancient peoples migrated and branched out from Africa tens of thousands of years ago. As they spread throughout the world and adapted to their new environments, their DNA diversified, creating new groups and subgroups.

Your Y-chromosome results will consist of a table of markers tested (numbering from 1 to 33 or from 1 to 46) and a corresponding value for each. Each marker is a specific location on the Y-chromosome and is referred to by its DNA Y-chromosome Segment number (DYS number).

The portions of the Y-chromosome tested are known to produce repeating patterns of nucleotides (the building blocks of DNA.) These Short Tandem Repeats (STRs) are counted at each marker and reported as your DNA result. The profile of repeats is inherited from your father and is what differentiates your specific paternal lineage from another's.

The extent to which your Y-DNA results match other participants will determine how closely related you might be by providing an estimate of how far in the past you shared a common ancestor.

Your Paternal Ancient Ancestry (or Haplogroup) is predicted based on your Y-DNA results. You will receive the name of the haplogroup, a detailed description of the group, and a map showing how your ancient ancestors migrated out of Africa over 100,000 years ago and split off to populate the different regions of the world.

Because particular patterns are seen within particular haplogroups, on most occasions we can predict which haplogroup you are in. Along with the prediction, we also provide the history, background and mapped distribution of your haplogroup.

The following are my DNA results. Names on the list are others who have been tested and show some degree of connection to me, genetically. The higher the name is on the list, the closer we are related. Note that the first two names are Corleys. I am only showing the 1st 17 out of 250 matches.

HAPLOGROUP / ANCIENT ANCESTRY

Ancient ancestry: The Artisans
Haplogroup: R1b

(The following is modified from Ancestry.com)

I belong to haplogroup R1b, The Artisans, who first arrived in Europe from west Asia about 35,000-40,000 years ago at the dawning of the Aurignacian culture. This cultural was remarkable for its subtle yet significant technological progress, like the shift from random flint collection to the use of a single stone core to shape flint tools as needed. Aurignacian decorative beads and jewelry could also be the first sign we have of the uniquely human quality of self-awareness and adornment. Additionally, some anthropologists believe that the Aurignacian culture was the first to paint. Either way, the people of this time period left behind fascinating cave paintings in France, Spain and Portugal.

Other experts believe that the Perigordian culture was prevalent at the time when the Artisans first arrived in Europe. This culture distinguished itself with different technological advances, such as denticulate tools with saw-tooth notches for cutting meat or wood and for smoothing and polishing.

The Ice Age may have played a role in the dispersion of the Artisans. At the peak of the Ice Age a European ice shelf extended as far as southern Ireland, mid England and northern Germany, completely covering Scandinavia. Most of continental Europe was tundra and the land only supported trees as far south as southern France, northern Italy and areas north of the Balkans and across the Black Sea. Thus, the Artisans most likely moved south of the tree line for their resources, making permanent homes where their descendants remained even when the ice shelf receded. Others returned north once resources were again available.

About 70% of individuals currently residing in southern England are members of the Artisans. Other members can be found at high rates in the modern day populations of Spain, Portugal, France, Wales, Scotland and Ireland. Based on this observation and other archeological and historical information, it is likely that your ancient ancestors also populated these areas. The Artisans include a genetic group known as the Atlantic Modal Haplotype (AMH), which features greatly among the Irish and Welsh populations.

Some researchers believe that the genes associated with the AMH moved with the early Celtic migrations. Although ancient ancestral Celts were a diverse group and varied in many ways, certain mythologies are consistent throughout most Celtic traditions, despite geographic or tribal boundaries. More than 300 Celtic deities have been described, many of which are reflected in classic Roman counterparts.

The god Lugh (or Lugus) may have played an important role among those deities. Folklore and storytelling has infused Lugh's character with magic and fantasy, given him credit for thunder and lightening, and placed his stage in the sky.

The widespread acceptance of Lugh in Celtic culture is supported by the use of his name as the root of city names. Lyon, the present day city in southeastern France was called Lugdunum in Roman times. The city of Leiden in south Holland may also have its roots in the name of the god.

So, What does this all mean?

I by no means understand ALL that the DNA results can tell me. I do know that my closest match is a Michael Allen Corley who resides in West Virginia. I was fortunate enough trace his lineage back to our common ancestor, a Richard Corley born ca 1672. Here is how we are related:

SECTION II
ALL HER CHILDREN

This section of the book is divided into seven sections: an Introduction - Background section and a total of six sections, one for each of Sally Finley's six children.

Introduction - Background

Researching this family has been less than an easy job. Aside from the name change from FINLEY to CORLEY, the spelling of Corley was less than standardized. In fact, I've been keeping track of all the different ways I've seen the name spelled either on documents or by those who have either indexed and transcribed the records where the named was recorded. SO FAR I have found a total of 45 (forty-five) different spellings for the name Corley. They are as follows: (The first five are spellings used by different branches of the family today)

Corley, Cawley, Cauley, Caulley & Colley

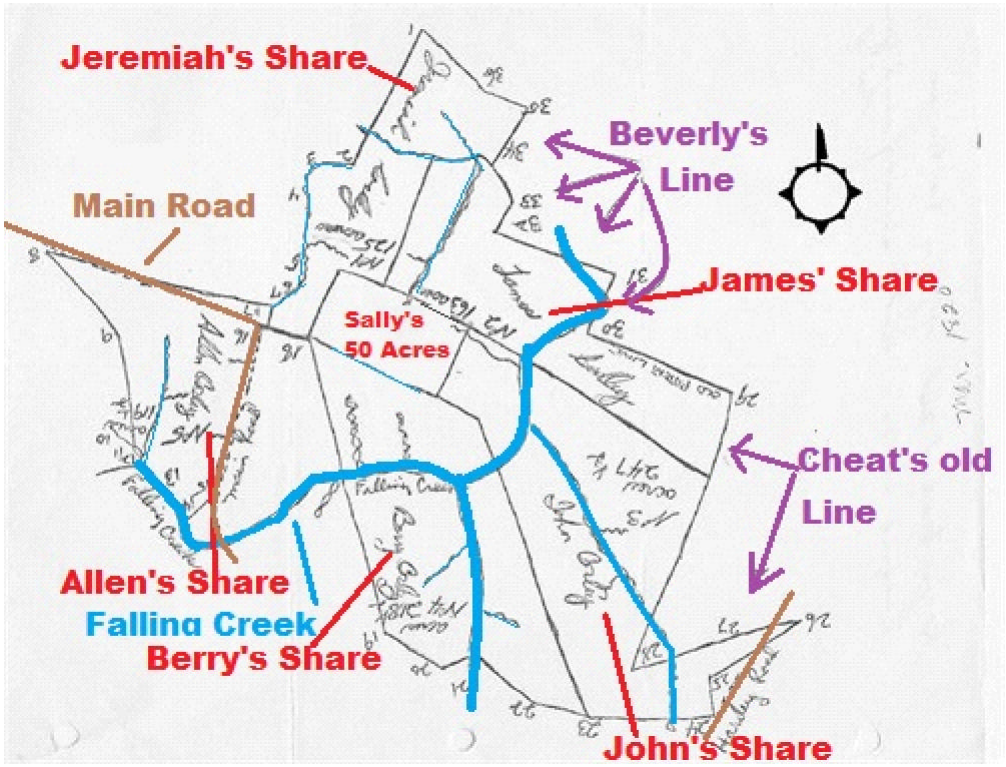
Cadey, Calley, Cally, Calty, Candy, Canley, Carley, Carolea, Caroley, Cassley, Cauelley, Caughlley, Caully, Cauly, Cawly, Colby , Coley, Collay, Colle, Collie, Colly, Conley, Cooley, Corlley, Corly, Cosley, Couley, Cowley, Crawley, Croley, Crowl, Crowley, Culy, Culley, Cunley, Curley, M'Caulley, McCaulley

Just recently I found a long lost marriage record for Amanda Cauley with the name recorded as Cawlea. The worst misspelling I've seen is on Abel and Catherine's marriage record where they list Abel Caulley (or Corley or Colley) as Caltes, Abel

The spelling used the most is Cawley which was the spelling of choice for three of the brothers who moved to West Virginia and on brother who remained in the Bedford County area. Many of their descendants use Cawley today, though some have converted to Cauley over the years.

As time goes on we tend to lose contact with our more distant cousins. Soo, we could meet a relative on the street, so to speak, and not know them. Add to that the use of different spellings and you can have a Colley living near a Caulley and not even realize they are related. This actually happened in southern Ohio.

As was mentioned in the first section of this book, Sally Finley and her six children were named in the Will of Caniel Corley. Until that time we knew nothing of them. We can only presume they were born in Bedford County, Virginia. Taking a look at the estate papers of Caniel Corley can tell us a little bit about them all. Mainly can determine where the land that they inherited was located. It appears as if lots were drawn by the five boys to determine who got which parcel of land. Below is a hand drawn copy of the map contained in Caniel Corley's Estate file:



Each son's property portion will be described as I discuss that child's particular family.

The ancestor-identification system for the descendants of Sally Finley will be as follows:

Sally Finley
Allen Finley (Sally)
1 Abel Colley (Allen, Sally) --{names of ancestors given in ascending order}
2 John Caulley (Allen, Sally)
a. Henry W. Caulley (John, Allen, Sally)
b. Amanda Caulley (John, Allen, Sally) married Joseph Oney i John Oney (Amanda,John, Allen, Sally)
ii Wm. Oney (Amanda, John, Allen, Sally)
iii Sarah Oney (Amanda, John, Allen, Sally) married Henry Campbell Lovel Campbell (Sarah, Amanda, John, Allen, Sally)
1 Betty Lee Campbell (Lovel, Sarah, Amanda, John, Allen, Sally)

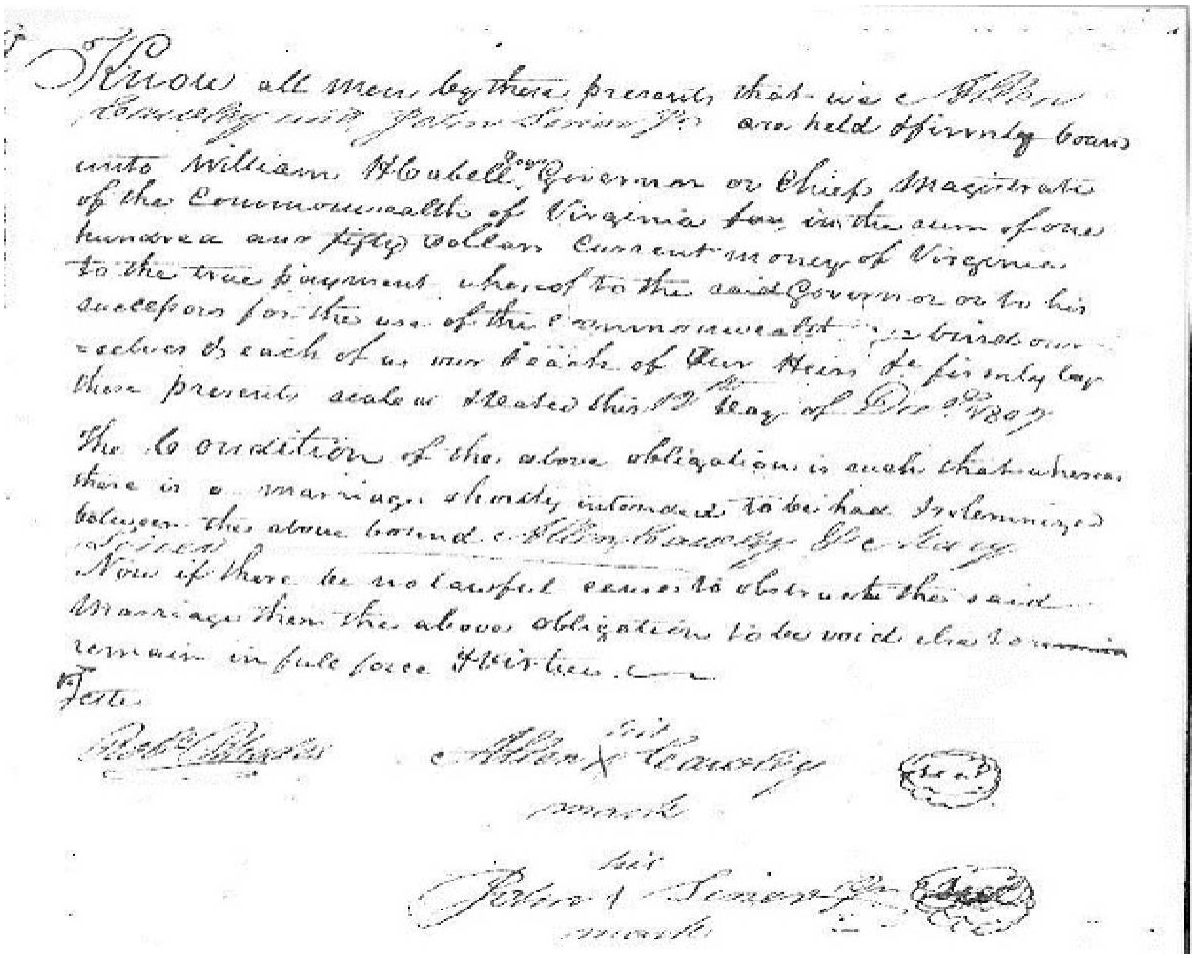
Allen (Finley) Corley / Caulley

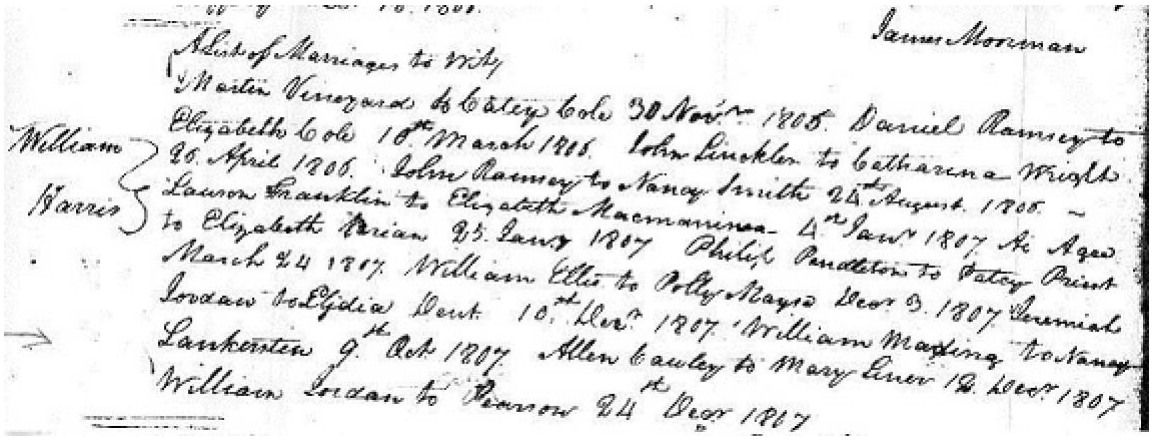
(b. ca 1787 - d. between 1866-1870)

Allen Finley (Sally) was the first born child of Sally Finley. His birth year has been calculated to have been 1787 based on the Federal Censuses on which he was recorded. Nothing is known about him prior to the writing of Caniel Corley's will on the 19th of January, 1807. If we have accurately calculated Allen's year of birth, he would have been 20 years old at that time. The 1850 census shows his age as 63 on November 6, and the 1860 census shows his age as 73 on August the 19th. Both of these place his birth year as 1787. You will note that an Allen CORLEY was named as one of the executors, and I firmly believe this Allen Corley was Allen Finley as there is no other Allen Corley living in that area at that time.

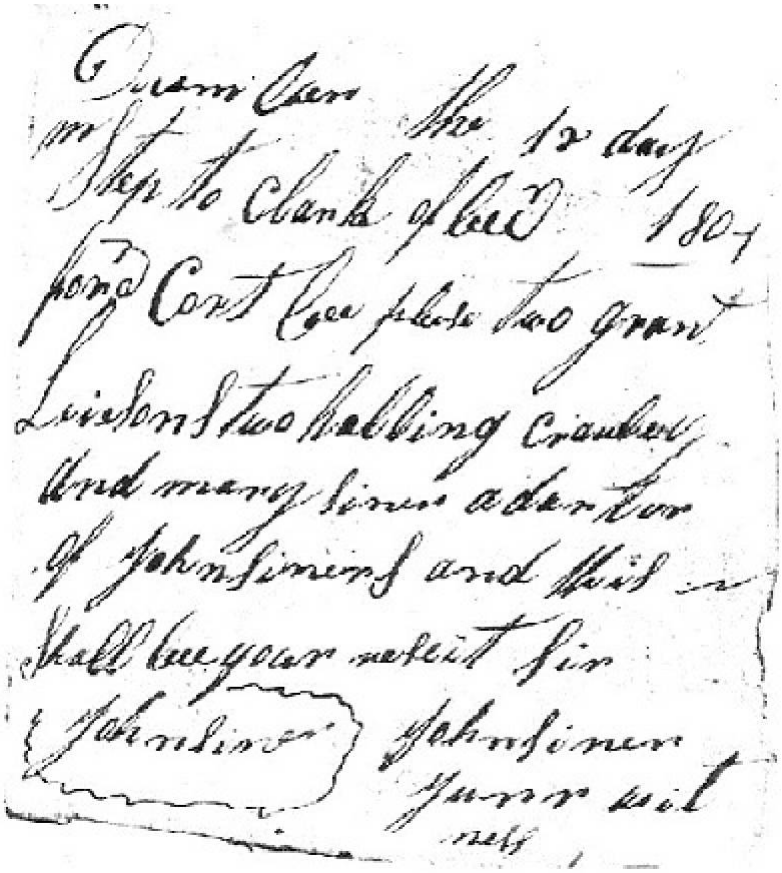
On December 12, 1807 Allen Cawley was joined in marriage with Miss Mary Siner. There are three items to document this marriage.



(Marriage Bond)

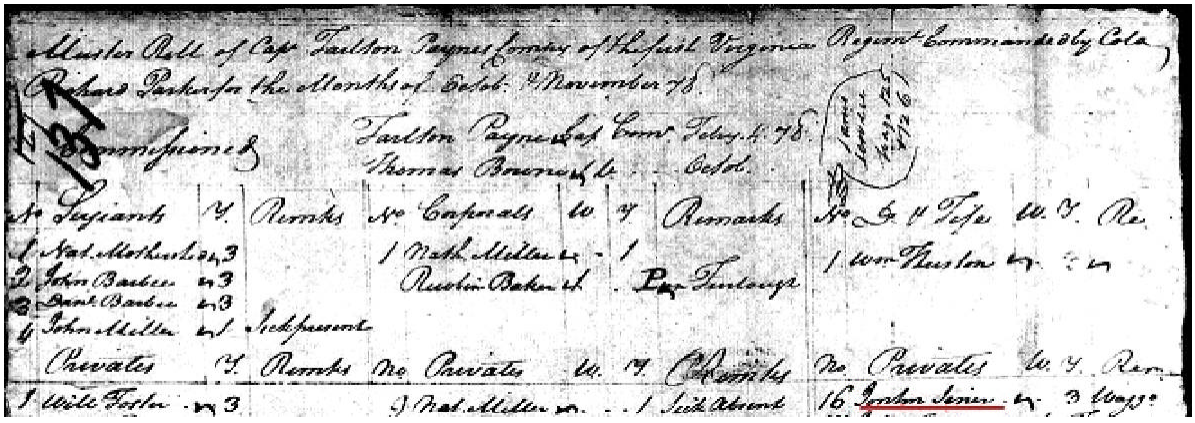


(Minister's Marriage Return)



(Parental Consent for Marriage License)

Mary was the daughter of John Siner, a Revolutionary War veteran. He served as a Wagoner in the 1st Virginia Regiment, Captain Tarlton Payne's Company commanded by Col. Richard Parker under General Gabriel Muhlenberg. He was listed as both John Siner & John Sinah.



(Additional Revolutionary War Documents can be found in Section IV)

Allen and Marry Cawley settled in to farm life on Falling Creek in Bedford County, VA. They were recorded on page 3 of the 1810 Federal Census in Bedford County. (Note: The 1810-1840 censuses do not list every member of the household. They list the head of the family and then give counts of the others by age and gender. Further more, the 1810 and 1820 census list households grouped by the first letter of the surname). Allen Corley is found on the 4th page of the census

This census lists one male under age 10. one male 16-25 and one female 16-25. The male under age 10 would have been their son Abel (Allen, Sally)who was born ca 1810. The 2 adults age 16-25 would have been Allen and Mary. Able later took the surname Colley causing the researchers to almost lose track of him and his descendants

By 1816 we find, through a grantor's deed, Allen and Mary were living in Franklin County, just across the Staunton River from Bedford Co. This deed lists all 5 of Sally's sons selling a tract of land on the South Side of the Stanton River. The other four brothers were all living in Bedford Co. It was about this time, ca 1815, that Allen and Mary's 2nd son, John (Allen, Sally) was born.

This Indenture of Bargain and sale between Allen Calley James Calley

Sometime in the next three years Allen, Mary and sons Abel and John became part of the great westward migration. The moved their little family across the mountains, most likely crossing through Pound Gap. Pound Gap was less well known than the famous Cumberland Gap to the south west, but it was not any less important. It was the main route from Virginia into eastern KY prior to the Civil War.

One internet site give this account of Pound Gap:

http://freepages.genealogy.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~dmohn/poundgap.htm

The Pound Gap played a significant role in the settlement of America's first western frontier. Its historic significance has been overshadowed by that of Cumberland Gap, gateway to the Bluegrass via Daniel Boone's Wilderness Road. However, a route that became known as the Kentucky Trace branched off the Wilderness Road at Castle's Woods (Castlewood, VA) to Indian Creek and thence over the Gap into Kentucky. Most of those settlers who chose the hills of far Eastern Kentucky as their piece of the Promised Land came by way of "the Pound".

Another site say:

http://www.waymarking.com/waymarks/WM5HYH_Pound_Gap__Jenkins_Kentucky

During the pre-Civil War period, the Mount Sterling-Pound Gap Road was Eastern Kentucky's main highway. Horses, cattle and hogs raised in Central Kentucky were driven over the road to livestock markets in Abingdon, Lynchburg, and other Virginia towns, and it was also used by the Iron-Salt trade. Originally a series of Indian trails, it was maintained and improved at state expense by local contractors using picks and shovels and horse-drawn graders.

The first survey of the road was authorized in 1817. It began at Mt. Sterling, Kentucky, and extended southeast through Hazel Green, Licking Station, Prestonsburg, Laynesville and Pikeville to the Virginia State Line at Pound Gap. Horses, cattle and hogs raised in Central Kentucky were driven over the road to livestock markets in Abingdon, Lynchburg, and other Virginia towns, and it was also used by the Iron-Salt trade. Freighters using wagons drawn by oxen carried salt from the salt mines in Saltville, Virginia to markets in Central Kentucky and returned to Virginia carrying iron ingots smelted in the Bath County ironworks.

I can hardly imagine taking one's family across such a road with a wagon or a horse-cart. They had to be determined to start a new life in this "New Country."

By 1819 they had settled in Eastern Kentucky where their third child, Elizabeth Cauley (Allen, Sally) was born on the 25th of February, 1819. The following quote was taken from the Biography of Elizabeth's husband, George Bandy, in Hardesty's History of Lawrence County, Ohio, 1892.

> ".... George Bandy was married in this county to Elizabeth Cauly, who is a native of Lawrence county, Kentucky, born February 25, 1819. Her parents are Allen and Mary (Seiner) Cauly, ..."

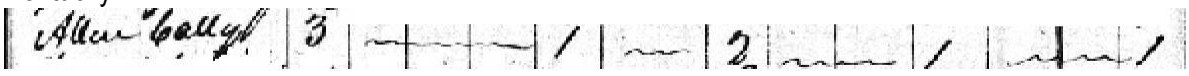
The 1820 Federal Census finds Allen Cally and family residing in Greenup County, Kentucky.



(Full census page available at the end of this section)

Allen his X mark Corley (seal)

Bedford Clerks Office January 10th 1822.
This Deed between Allen Corley of the one part and John Bush of the other part was certified by two Magistrates for said County & admitted to Record.

Deed Book 17, Page 168.

Between 1820 and 1827, while living in Kentucky, Allen and Mary added three children to their family. Andrew Jackson Caulley (Allen, Sally) born in 1822, William Henry Harrison Cauley (Allen, Sally) born in 1824 and George Washington Cawley (Allen, Sally) born about 1825. (Notice the “Presidential Theme”?)

Allen’s last legal transaction in Virginia took place on 12 feb 1825 when Allen, his mother and 4 of his brothers sell their share of the 50 acres Sally Finley inherited from Caniel, to Berry Finley, Allen’s brother. The signed this deed with his mark, so he most likely returned to Virginia to sell this land and close that chapter of his life.

By January 1827 Allen, Mary and their six children had crossed the Ohio Rive into Lawrence Co, where they settled in Symmes Township. This is verified by a letter written by John T. Irwin, in January of 1899 to the Ironton Register. I won’t bore you with the whole letter, but I will quote the first paragraph.

My father, George Irwin, moved to the log house that stands on the farm of R. M. Wickline, in Symmes township in December 1827. At that time there were twelve or fifteen families in the township at that times. They were John C. Stewart, at the mouth of John's Creek; William McCatney, John Nelson, Wm. Burk, Solomon Nelson, where Thomas Cooper now lives; Benjamin Nelson between the two Buffalo creeks; Allen Colby* up on Big Buffalo; Clarkson, on the divide between John's creek and Buffalo; a family or two on Yates fork, and one or more on Buckey.

Reading this letter one might think, "Why did he include THAT?" But then having done the amount of research that I have, I know that everything is NOT what you see in print. If you consider the original letter was most likely hand written in cursive AND that the writer was an elderly man when he wrote his letter, it's easy to see how Colley could easily have been misread as Colby.

In 1827 Allen and Mary's seventh child, Tempy Cauley (Allen, Sally) was born in Lawrence County, Ohio. She was important to my research because of her name, Tempy. She was named after a favorite "Aunt" in the Corley family, Temperance Brown, who married Caniel Corley's brother, James Corley. The name, Temperance, or one of the many variations, Tempy, Tempa, etc, is repeated for several generations down from Caniel.

Next to be born was Allen and Mary's 8th Child, Mary Cauley (Allen, Sally) in 1829.

The 1830 Federal Census shows Allen Collay living in Symmes Township of Lawrence County:

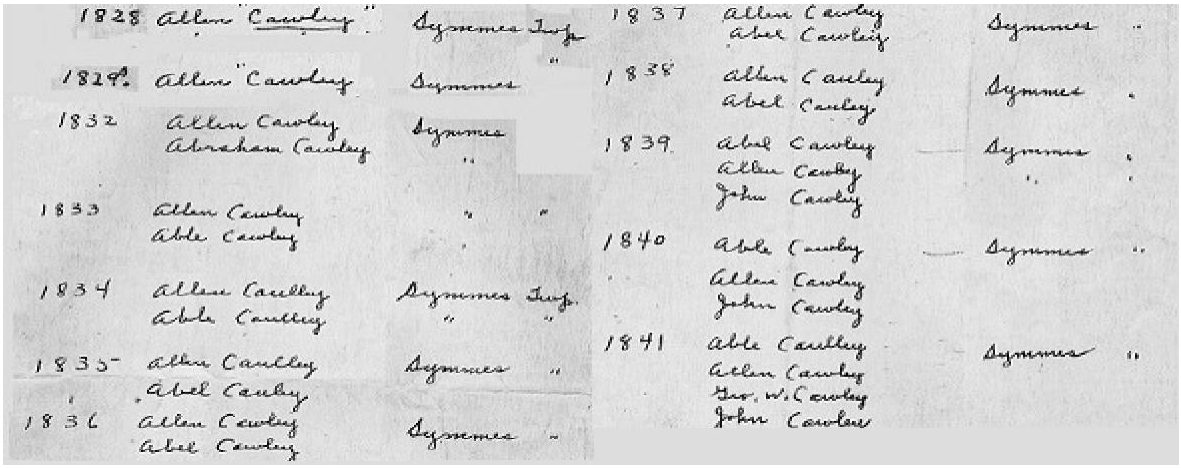
Back in 1975, when I started doing genealogical research I had the good fortune to correspond with a Chester I Miller, another researcher who had already collected quite a bit of information on the family. By the time I started researching he had already found all the Caulley marriages in early Lawrence County, and he had copied the list of Caulleys on the Chattel Tax lists of Lawrence County.

Below is the Chattel Tax list he sent me:



Between 1830 and 1840 the last two of Allen and Mary's children were born; Rachel Cauley (Allen, Sally) was born in 1831 and Sarah Cauley (Allen, Sarah) was born in 1834.

The 1840 Federal Census of Symmes Township, Lawrence County, Ohio reveals that two of Allen and Mary's sons had married and move out of their parent's home. Allen Corley, Abel Corley (recorded in 1840 as "Abraham") and John Corley all lived side by side.

1847 brought sorrow to the Caulley family as two sons, Andrew Jackson and Wm Henry Harrison, went off to the Mexican War and only one returned. Wm Henry Harrison Caulley died at Carmago Mex. on 15 SEP 1847.

Between the years of 1837 and 1841 Allen Cawley, Calley or Crawley purchased four parcels of land from the United States Government totaling about 170 acers. These purchases are recorded as Land Patents and can be viewed the search page at http://www.glorecords.blm.gov/Logon/Logon_Form.asp
After entering your zip code, select Ohio as the state then enter any one of the surname spellings as listed above, or Corley, Cauley & Caulley. On the following page is an example of one of these land patents.

The 1850 Federal Census is the first “every person” census where everyone is listed by name. The earlier census listed ONLY the name of the heads of households, and a tally of all persons grouped by age and gender. The information gathered on this census is fare more extensive. It includes every person’s name, age, gender, race, occupation, value of real estate, place of birth, If married within the year, if they attended school that year, if they are over 20 and cannot read or write, and finally if they are deaf, dumb, idiot, insane, a pauper or a convict. This and all following censuses has become one of the genealogical researcher’s main tools.

Allen and Mary Caulley are recorded as living in house 31/31 on page 424 in Symmes Township of Lawrence Co. as were four of their married children. UNFORTUNATELY, the census take recorded Allen and Mary as Alex and Nancy. (Genealogical researchers really need to be good detectives to find their ancestors!) The married children whose families were found on this same page were William and Tempy (Caully) Sharp (actually Shope), William and Mary (Caully) Lambert, (Andrew) Jackson Caully and John Caully.

The ancestry.com index system shows the following household:

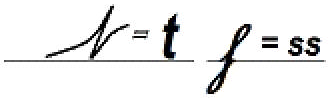
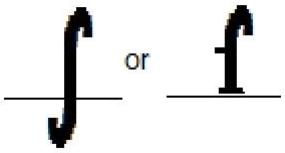
Notice the different spellings of the surname. These people are all found on the same page and I can only assume the same person transcribed all the entries on this page. If you look at the census page, however hard they are to read, you will see that the main surname is written as Caully, not Conley nor Caulley, as the transcribers wrote.

This is as good a time as any to discuss cursive writing of the 18th and 19th centuries. You will see two "different" letters than we have today.Take a look at this graphic example I prepared:



The first of these is the way a lower case t was written on the end of words. This style was used even into the early 20th century, but is no longer in use today. The second of these is called a "long s" and was used when double Ses were written as in the following for Missouri.

And, in printed books and papers a long s might look like this:



I think you can see how these hand writing changes coupled with poor or faint copies and sometimes terrible penmanship can lead to researchers having a hard time finding their ancestors.

The 1860 Federal Census shows Allen, Mary and three of their son & families all on the same page, pg 135 of Symmes Township. Their families are as follows:

(Reproductions of both the 1850 and 1860 census pages are available at the end of this section)

The last record we have of Allen and Mary Caulley is on a deed dated 3 September 1866 when they sell land to their son, Andrew. Jackson Caulley. It is assumed that both Allen and Mary die sometime between that date and 8 August, 1870 (when the next census was recorded).

There is a small cemetery high on a hill, under some tall cedar trees, overlooking Cauley Creek where we believe Allen and Mary Caulley were buried. (Section 10, Township 5 Range 17, near Cauley Creek Road - CR 46) There is one marked grave, that of Allen and Mary's son Andrew Jackson Caulley, marked with a military marker commemorating his service in the Mexican American War of 1847. There are also several sunken places where we believe other family members, including Allen and Mary, were buried.

The following are the documents from Caniel's Estate Papers showing the land "drawn" by Allen.

ABEL CORLEY COLLEY (Allen, Sally)
(b ca 1810 d. 18 Mar 1890)

Abel (Allen, Sally) Corley Colley was the first born and first son of Allen (Finley Corley) Caulley and Marry (Siner) Caulley, born ca 1810 probably in Bedford County, Virginia. Abel first appears on our radar screen when he was listed on the chattel tax list of Lawrence County, Ohio. If you are like I was when I started researching you were unsure of the exact meaning of chattel. According to Dictionary.com, Chattel's meaning is as follows:

http://dictionary.reference.com/browse/chattel

chat-tel [chat-l]
-- n.
1. (often plural) property law
   a. chattel personal an item of movable personal property, such as furniture, domestic animals, etc
   b. chattel real an interest in land less than a freehold, such as a lease
2. goods and chattels personal property

Chattel taxes are today's equivalent of our Personal Property Tax.

Abel first appeared on any record on the chattel tax list in Symmes Township, Lawrence Co., OH in 1832 owning one horse and no cows.

Up until this year we have been unable to find a marriage record for Abel Corley and Catherine Spencer. With the advent of the internet and Ancestry.com, researching has become much easier. I did a search for Abel Corley, Abel Colley, and bout 10 more spelling variations without success. We've know from other records for a long time that Abel's wife's name was Catherine Spencer. Then I had an idea! I did a search enter ONLY their first names, Abel & Catherine in Ohio. This was successful. Although the researchers do not get to examine scans of the original document, we do get to read a transcription of this document. The results were as follows:

Ohio Marriages, 1803-1900
Name: Caltes, Abel
Spouse: Spencer, Catherine
Marriage Date: 31 Oct 1835
County: Gallia
State: OH

This spelling, Catles, bothered me some since it is so far-a-field from Corley, Colley or Caulley. Phonetically it's not even close. Being an eternal skeptic, I double checked this marriage record on another source, the LDS Church's FamilySearch.org.

http://search.labs.familysearch.org/recordsearch/start.html#p=recordimage&c=fs:1681001&r=r_348262091&pn=p4

Groom's Name: Abel Caltea Or Calty
Bride's Name: Catherine Spencer
Marriage Date: 31 Oct 1835
Marriage Place: Gallia County, Ohio
Indexing Project (Batch) Number: M02362-8
System Origin: Ohio-EASy
Source Film Number: 317652
Reference Number: p260
Collection: Ohio Marriages, 1800-1958

After seeing the alternate spelling of Catley I felt a lot better about this record, and feel it is indeed the marriage of Abel Colley, son of Allen and Mary. Catley is much closer phonetically to Caulley and one can imagine how the third letter could appear to be a "t" and not an "l" which would make the name actually Cally.

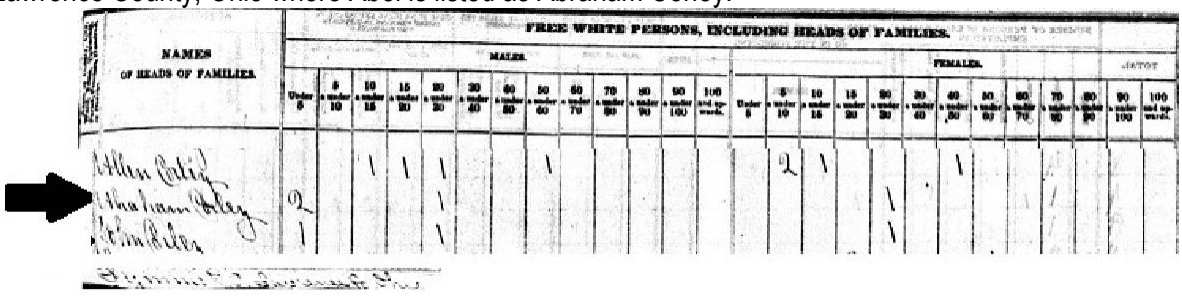
Record of Abel living in Lawrence Co come mainly from land records. On 5 August 1837 Abel Calley purchased a Federal Land Patent for the NE1/4 of the NE1/4 of section 10 in Township 5-North Range 17-West (Symmes Township) containing 43.5 acres. Abel acquired two of these land patents, the 2nd being 42.4 acres in the NW1/4 of the NW1/4 of section 15 Township 5-North Range 17-West.

I have not found any deed records (grantees) of private real estate purchases for Abel but there are two deeds (grantor) where he sells land. I have a copy of one deed where Abel and Catherine Corley sell 40 acers to Andrew J. Corley (his brother) on January 31, 1848.

The first census showing Abel in the 1840 Federal Census of Symmes Township, Lawrence County, Ohio where Abel is listed as Abraham Corley.



Abel is found in Symmes Township from 1832 through 6 March 1849 when he sells his land, and presumably moves away.

The Next place we find Abel and Catherine is on the 1850 Federal Census of Union Township, Scioto County, Ohio. page 99 (left). Ancestry.com lists the family as follows (information in parenthesis was added by me):

Name:	Abel Cooley
Age:	40
Estimated birth year:	abt 1810

S Cooley	10	(Samuel)
J A Cooley	8	(Ann)
S Cooley	6	(Sarah A)
H Cooley	4	(Henry??)
T Cooley	2	(Tempa J)

(It isn't hard enough with all the different spellings, NOW they are identifying people only by their initials.)

Abel and family are nowhere to be found on the 1860 census, so we move ahead to the 1870 Federal Census of Rush Township, Scioto County, Ohio (Lucasville Post Office). The person who transcribe THIS census at Ancestry.com interpreted the family name as Cassley but you can look at this snipit and tell me what it really is.

Name:		Abel Cassley
[Abel Cauley]
Birth Year:		abt 1811

Obviously Abel and Catherine have added at least five children since the last census, namely James, (George) Washington, William, Polly and Samuel.

The last census where Abel and Catherine are found is the 1880 Federal Census of Rushs District Township, Scioto County, Ohio; page 6, Supervisor's 4 Enumeration District 177. Ancestry shows this household as follows:

John Coe	45	(No relationship Stated) Farmer
Catherine Coe	52	Wife, Keeping house

Jas. H. Hays	22	Son, Farm laborer

I'm sure you've noticed the general lack of of other supporting documents for Abel and Catherine. I can verify there were no land patents. The 1870 census indicates Abel owned $1630 worth of real estate, I have not yet found any deeds. If they any are found, I will add them at the end of the book

I recently found the following records of Abel Colley's and Catherine Colley's deaths at the LDS Church's FamilySearch.org record search site.

JOHN CORLEY CAULLEY (Allen, Sally)
(b ca 1815 d. 4 Oct 1876)

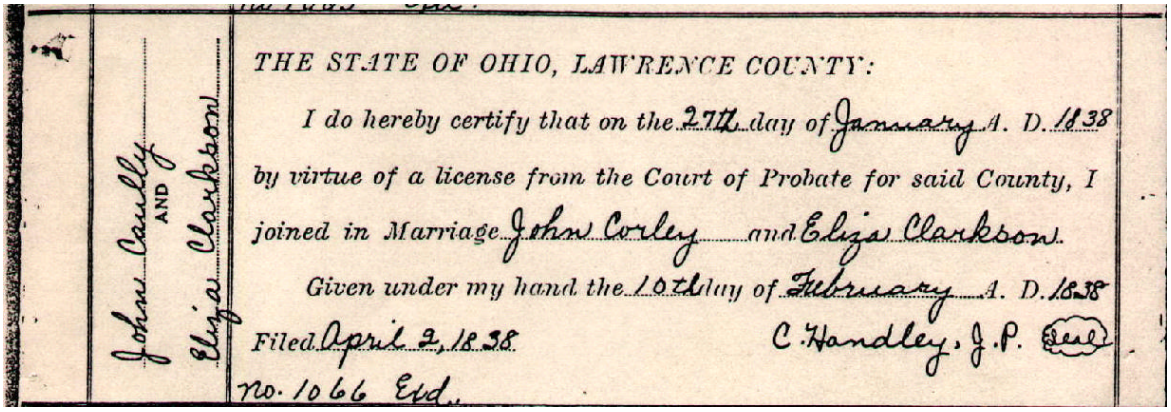
John (Allen, Sally) Corley Colley was the second born and second son of Allen (Finley Corley) Caulley and Marry (Siner) Caulley, born ca 1815 probably in either Bedford or Franklin County, Virginia. John first appears on our radar screen when he was listed on the chattel tax list of Lawrence County, Ohio. If you are like I was when I started researching you were unsure of the exact meaning of chattel. According to Dictionary.com, Chattel's meaning is as follows:

http://dictionary.reference.com/browse/chattel

chat-tel [chat-l]
-- n.
1. (often plural) property law
   a. chattel personal an item of movable personal property, such as furniture, domestic animals, etc
   b. chattel real an interest in land less than a freehold, such as a lease
2. goods and chattels personal property

Chattel taxes are today's equivalent of our Personal Property Tax.

John first appeared on any record on the chattel tax list in Symmes Township, Lawrence Co., OH in 1839. This was the year following his marriage to Eliza Clarkson. They were married on the 17th of January, 1838 Lawrence County, Ohio. The following is the marriage entry as found in the county court house.



John Caully AND Eliza Clarkson

THE STATE OF OHIO, LAWRENCE COUNTY:

I do hereby certify that on the 27th day of January A. D. 1838 by virtue of a license from the Court of Probate for said County, I joined in Marriage John Corley and Eliza Clarkson.

Given under my hand the 10th day of February A. D. 1838

Filed April 2, 1838 C. Handley, J.P. Seal

No. 1066 Ent.

Notice the two different spellings for John's surname -- John Caully on the left side and John Corley on the main part of the marriage entry. It was this single sheet of paper that lead me to the discovery of the earlier use of C-O-R-L-E-Y as our surname.

An interesting side note on Eliza Clarkson: She was born ca 1819 presumably to Samuel and Elizabeth Clarkson, one of their 10 children. Samuel, on the 1850 census he is marked as having been a convict. Further investigation shows that he is found on the roll of prisoners dated 1843. His crime is listed as "Possession of counterfeit money." I have no idea when he was convicted or how long he was sentenced. It's fun facts like these that make our family interesting!

John first appears on the 1840 Federal Census of Symmes Township, Lawrence Co, OH.

The Civil War brought both sorrow and pride to John and Eliza Caulley. The sorrow was brought on after the eldest, Henry W. Caulley, enlisted in Co I, 18th Ohio Infantry on 24 September 1861. On 31 December 1862, at the Battle of Stones River, Murfreesboro TN, Henry was wounded. He died on Jan 31, 1863 in the regimental hospital from infection after his leg was amputated. He was buried in the National Cemetery at Murfreesboro, TN. To my knowledge, his parents never saw his grave.

The pride came from their 4th child and 2nd son, Andrew Jackson Caulley's service in Co K, 91st Ohio Infantry as a substitute for drafted man, Calvin Stewart. Andrew Jackson was wounded, according to the 1890 Pensioner's Schedule, but he survived the war.

By the 1870 Census, only the three youngest children were living at home:

Name:	John Cauley

It is believed that sometime between 1866 and 1870 both Allen and Mary Caulley died. From Deed records, it is evident that Allen's son, and John's younger brother, Andrew Jackson Caulley, received most of his parent's property. This probably did not sit well with John as they moved, in 1870, to Reynolds County, Missouri.

On 1 October 1870 John Caulleys sold his land in Symmes Township to Robert Miller, packed up his family and headed west for Missouri. According to a story related to me by my Great Aunt Ada, granddaughter of John Caulley, they traveled by road in a covered wagon along the National Road. The National Road was the first major "highway" project having been started in 1811 in Cumberland, Maryland and ending in Vandalia, Illinois. Today's Interstate-70 roughly follows the route of the old National Road, and parts of the old road can be seen today in eastern Indiana.

They stopped in the Dayton area to "collect" one of John's married daughters, Nancy, and her new husband, Samuel Yates. According to Great Aunt Ada, as told to her by her father, William Allen Caulley (a teenager at the time of the trip), they crossed the Mississippi River at St. Louis Before there was a bridge. Eads Bridge was completed in 1874, so they crossed the river prior to that year.

They finally settled near Centerville, the county seat of Reynolds County. A few deeds and tax records can be found, but there are few records until 1876.

On 20 December 1860, following the election of Abraham Lincoln as President of the United States, South Carolina was the first of 11 southern states seceded from the Union. On April 12-13, 1861 the federal fort, FORT SUMTER , an island in Charleston, South Carolina Harbor was bombarded by Confederate forces, starting the American Civil War. By June of that year, the remaining 10 southern states,Virginia, North Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, Arkansas, Florida & Tennessee also seceded. By September of 1861 reports of several battles such as Bull Run and Wilson's Creek surly were reported in the newspapers in and around Lawrence County. Couple that with the threat of a divided country and loyal men on both sides of the issue began volunteering in droves.

On September 24, 1862 Henry W. Cauley enlisted in the Union Army, at Patriot Ohio, for a period of 3 years. Henry was mustered into service on October 16, 1863 at Camp Dennison, Ohio, located near Cincinnati, not far from the Ohio River. He was assigned to Company I of the 18th Ohio Infantry. The 18th Ohio saw duty mostly in Tennessee; The following is part of the regiment's history (stopping after the Battle of Stone's River), as found on Wikipedia.com:

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/18th_Ohio_Infantry

The 18th Ohio Infantry was reorganized in Athens, Ohio, August 16-September 28, 1861. The regiment moved to Camp Dennison near Cincinnati, Ohio and mustered in for three years service on November 4, 1861 under the command of Colonel Timothy R. Stanley.

The regiment was attached to 8th Brigade, Army of the Ohio to December 1861. 8th Brigade, 3rd Division, Army of the Ohio, to July 1862. Unattached, Railroad Guard, Army of the Ohio, to September 1862. 29th Brigade, 8th Division, Army of the Ohio, to November 1862. 2nd Brigade, 2nd Division, Center, XIV Corps, Army of the Cumberland, to January 1863. 2nd Brigade, 2nd Division, XIV Corps, to October 1863. 2nd Brigade, 1st Division, XIV Corps, to November 1863. Engineer Brigade, Department of the Cumberland, to November 1864.

The 18th Ohio Infantry mustered out of service at Augusta, Georgia on November 9, 1864.

Duty at Nashville until December 26. Advance on Murfreesboro December 26–30. Battle of Stones River December 30–31, 1862 and January 1–3, 1863.....

Casualties

The regiment lost a total of 184 men during service; 4 officers and 72 enlisted men killed or mortally wounded, 1 officer and 107 enlisted men died of disease.

As NewYear's Eve, 1862 approached, so did the dark cloud of battle. His regiment had been involved in the Siege of Nashville September 12 through November 7. They remained in Nashville until The Army of the Cumberland marched southeast on the day after Christmas in three columns, or "wings", towards Murfreesboro. They were effectively harassed by Wheeler's Confederate cavalry along the way, which delayed their movements. On December 30, the Union force moved into line two miles northwest of Murfreesboro. The two armies were in parallel lines, about 4 miles (6 km) long, oriented from southwest to northeast.

One account includes this anecdote:

The armies bivouacked only 700 yards (640 m) from each other, and their bands started a musical battle that became a non-lethal preview of the next day's events. Northern musicians played Yankee Doodle and Hail, Columbia and they were answered by Dixie and The Bonnie Blue Flag. Finally, one band started playing Home Sweet Home and the others joined in. Thousands of Northern and Southern soldiers sang the sentimental song together across the lines.

At dawn on December 31, the Battle of Stones River began in earnest. Sometime during this first, of three days of battle, Henry W. Cauley was wounded by a mini ball in his right thigh, shattering the bone. He was removed to the regimental hospital. Although an exact account of his treatment is not available, it is known through historical research what probably happened.

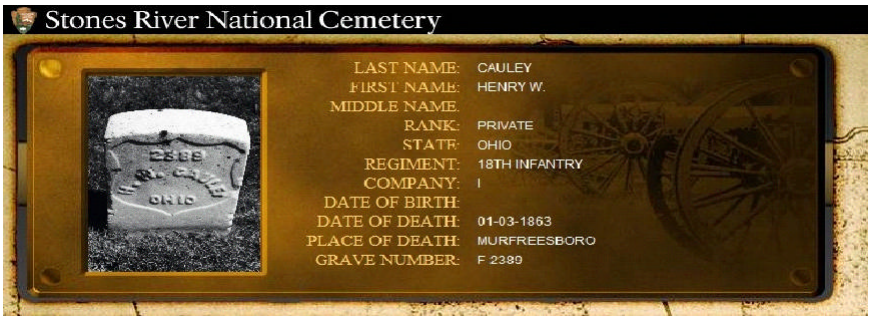
Since Medical Science was rather primitive, it is very likely that his shattered leg was amputated by an Army "Surgeon." A surgeon during the Civil War was not a doctor. The Union had recruited their "surgeons" from the meat packing houses in Chicago. These men were chosen because they could saw off a limb with ease. This was done without benefit of anesthesia. Couple that with the general lack of hygiene an sterile instruments, and accounts tell us infection usually set in, causing an agonizing death. Truly the lucky ones were those who were killed outright, sparing them the pain of a slow death.

The following is part of an account given by one of Henry's fellow soldiers from Lawrence Co, OH, Andy Boggs:

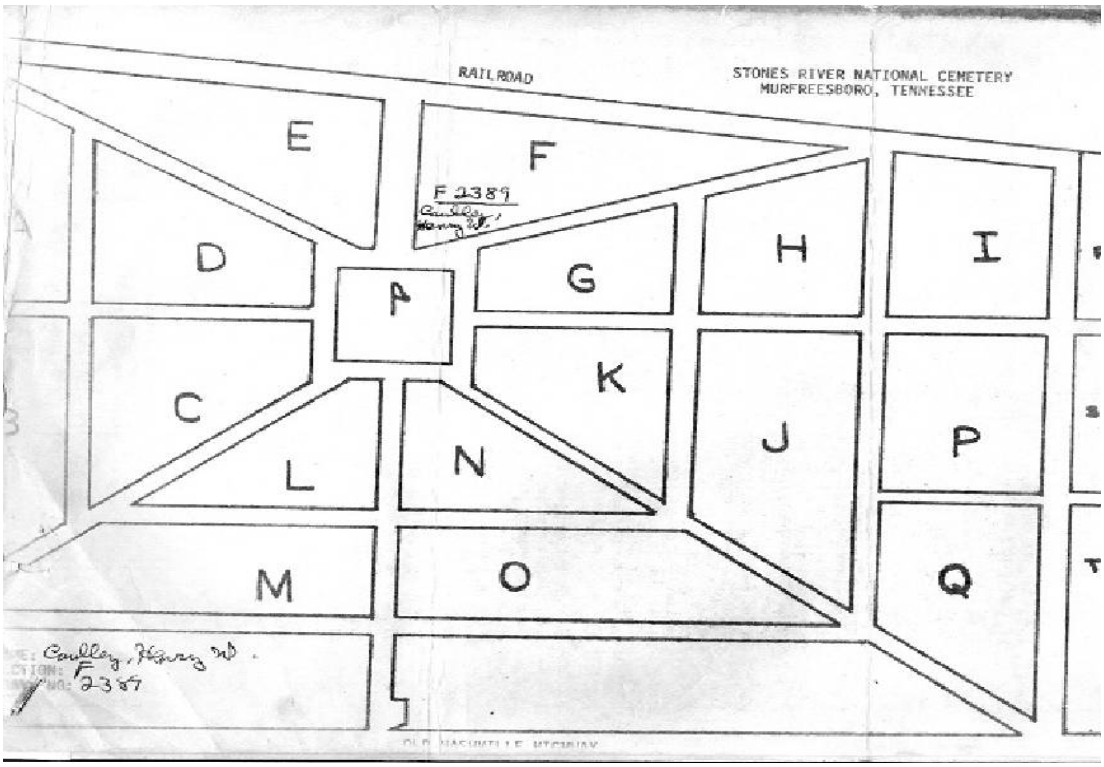
"It was in 1862 between Christmas and New Years. I'll tell you in my own way how it was. It was on Wednesday-- Johnson's division broke on our right. We were on the skirmish line, when we were ordered to charge on the rebels. The situation was a warm one. We were ordered to fix bayonets, and in turning our bayonets, Arfax Thornton pushed me out from behind a tree where I had been sheltering from the enemy's fire. By this time the rebels were right on us. Just as I was pushed out a ball cut the top of my shoulder, cutting my blouse and leaving a mark where it burnt me. This stunned me somewhat, and caused me to drop my gun. The rebels ran right over me then, and we were all captured. Hundreds of our men were taken. They ordered me to take off my cartridge box saying I would have no further use for it in this war. They thought I was badly wounded because I was covered with blood and did not bother me much.

Appearances are deceiving. The blood was Tom Town's who had been shot in front of me. After this, they commenced to pick up the wounded and I went over to where Henry Cauley was lying, making an awful fuss. I asked him where he was hit. He had been shot through the hip with a grape shot and was in terrible agony...."

Henry was taken to the Regimental Hospital in Murfreesboro where he remained until January 31 when he died. He was buried in the National Cemetery at Stones River. Many of those who were killed outright were buried in unmarked graves as the could not be identified. Since Henry Cauley died one month after he was shot, he was one of the minority who was identified and buried in a marked grave with a stone baring his name.



Below is a map showing the general layout of the cemetery, and the location of Henry Cauley's grave.



During the mid 1980s, while traveling from St. Louis to Atlanta, my wife and I were fortunate enough to visit the Stone's River National Battlefield and National Cemetery. We found Henry's grave. As I stood there, I realized I was probably the first family member to visit the grave of Henry W. Cauley. Traveling the 388 miles from their home in Symmes Township, Lawrence Co., OH OR traveling the 347 miles from their later home near Centerville, MO would have been highly unlikely.

Following the death of John Caulley, Henry's father, in 1876, Eliza (Clarkson) Caulley applied for a Mother's Pension based on Henry's service and death in the Civil War. She contended that, after he husband's death, she would have been supported by her oldest son, Henry W. This Mother's Pension Application was ultimately rejected as she had several other adult sons who contributed to her upkeep.

A hymnal that had been given to Henry W. Cauley was last known to be in the possession of Reverand Thomas J. Caulley who was last know to have been living in Oregon.

The following pages were taken from Henry W. Caulley's military records and from Eliza's Mothers' Pension Application:

2 Amanda Caulley (John, Allen, Sally) Born ca 1842, Lawrence County, Ohio to John Corley / Caulley and Eliza (Clarkson) Caulley. Amanda was their second child and their oldest daughter.

When I wrote the first Caulley book back in the late 1970s, I had only one piece of evidence that Amanda Caulley existed. That was the 1850 census. It took me over 30 years to finally find something new. In 2010, with the use of the internet, I was able to learn a little more about Amanda, and some of her children. I did a search on Ancestry.com for anyone named Amanda who married ca 1860 in Lawrence County, Ohio. The results were as follows:

Ohio Marriages, 1803-1900 about Amanda

Name:	Omea, Joseph
Spouse:	Cawlea*, Amanda
Marriage Date:	3 Nov 1859
County:	Lawrence
State:	OH

Long ago I learned not to trust what a transcriber enters. They often cannot read the unusual cursive script of the 19th century. So, I decided to chen another of my favorite sources, the LDS Church's FamilySearch.org's Records Search. I entered Amanda Caulley in Ohio, and the results confirmed what I suspected, the above Amanda WAS John's daughter. Here is what I found on that site:

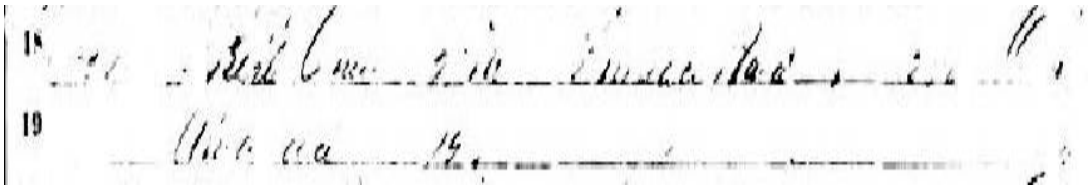
Unfortunately, I do not have the original of this marriage record to inspect, so I must rely on my detective skills to unravel this mystery. I have found the family of Amanda and Joseph on the 1860 Federal Census of Olive Furnace, Washington Township, Lawrence Co., Ohio. page 287. Unfortunately, the digital copy available on Ancestry.com is very washed out and almost unreadable. Here's what it looks like:



The Ancestry.com transcriber recorded this entry as follow:

Birth Year:	abt 1841
Birthplace:	Ohio

3 Melinda Caulley (John, Allen, Sally) Born ca 1844, Lawrence County, Ohio to John Corley / Caulley and Eliza (Clarkson) Caulley. Melinda Caulley is found on the 1850 and 1860 Federal Censuses of Symmes Township, Lawrence Co, OH. No matter where I look, I find no other record of Melinda Caulley

4 Andrew Jackson Caulley / Cauley (John, Allen, Sally) Born 1 November 1846, Symmes Township, Lawrence County, Ohio to John Corley / Caulley and Eliza (Clarkson) Caulley. John was their second son and fourth child. He was listed on the 1850 census as Jackson Caulley, age 4, and Jackson Cawley age 13.

On 26 May, 1864 eighteen-year old Andrew Jackson enlisted in the Union Army as a substitute for an enlisted man, Calvin M. Stewart. Stewart had been drafted the 13th of May, that same year. Ann account of the draft proceedings on May 12, 1864 were found in the Ironton Register. The following is a transcript of that newspaper article:

THE IRONTON REGISTER
THURSDAY, MAY 12, 1864

Proceedings of Draft

Owing to the short notice given before proceeding to enforce the draft, and hitherto false reports of its certainty to be executed on a fixed day, and its repeated postpone- ment, the opening of the exerciseselicited but little interest. The time fixed was 9 A. M., Friday 13th inst., and, as the time drew near, the crowd began to assemble in the Vicinity of the Provost Marshall's office. Dr. Cory had selected Mr. G. Smith, of Scioto county, a blind man, to draw the tickets from the box; not arriving at the specified time, a young lady was conducted to the temporary platform, immediately blindfolded, when the exercises commenced with the simple announcement of the order in which each township would be drawn -- Maj. Roberts Member of the Board of En- rollment, exhibited to the crowd a bundle of tickets which contained all the names of Persons subject to the draft in Hamilton Township. Dr. Cory turned the wheel and as the tickets were drawn, the names were announced. As soon as the requisite num- ber, including fifty per cent. more than the quota was drawn, the balance were taken from the wheel and counted, thus justifying the number both before and after the turn- ing the of wheel. A few moments delay and Elizabeth Township was placed in the wheel of fate; six townships were drawn the first day, and on the following day the remaining six. Dr. Cory turned the wheel, Mr. Smith drew the tickets, (except Hamilton Township). Major Roberts announced the name, and passed it on to Dr. Coleman, who immediately entered it on the list. Every thing passed on without delay or inter- ruption, the crowd occasionally exhibiting great glee on recognizing the names of par- ties drawn; remarking "good for $300," "good for three years in the war," "already in the service," "dead" "a[censored],""a good democrat," "moved out west," etc. occasionally cheering with a hearty good will at some prominent name. From an examination of the following list drawn it will be observed that fate is "no respecter of persons,"neith- er is the dead excepted.

It is in view of these facts that the fifty per centum is added. The draft will pro- ceed from day to day in the order as hither- to announced until the six counties are com- pleted. As there is a great amount of labor connected therewith, it may be several weeks before it is completed.

History

Organized in August, 1862, under Colonel John A. Turley, it served along the Ohio River until September, when it moved to West Virginia, and operated in the Kanawha Valley and further east during the winter and spring of 1862-63. In July, 1863, it joined the forces in pursuit of Morgan in Ohio, but soon returned to West Virginia, where it passed its second winter. In May, 1864, it made a successful raid up New River under General Crook, marching over 200 miles over mountains and through wild forests. In June the Regiment joined Hunter's march upon Lynchburg, and near that place made a gallant charge, capturing two pieces of artillery. It returned with the army in its disastrous retrograde movement, the men completely worn out and after only nine days rest moved by rail to Martinsburg, where it served against Early's army. It fought up and down the Shenandoah Valley all the summer, fighting at Winchester, Fisher's Hill and Opequan; at the latter place the 91st lost heavily, having charged the Rebels, posted behind a stone wall, but lifted them out of their position with the bayonet. The Regiment served in this vicinity until the close of the war and was mustered out June 24, 1865.

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/91st_Ohio_Infantry

The 91st Ohio was raised at Camp Ironton in south-central Ohio on August 26, 1862. After being organized and mustered into Federal service in September, the regiment was transported to western Virginia and assigned to the Department of the Kanawha and later to the VIII Corps under Brig. Gen. Eliakim Scammon. It participated in a series of raids and operations against Confederate positions in the region.

In the spring of 1864, the 91st OH fought in the Battle of Cloyd's Mountain in Pulaski County, Virginia, during Maj. Gen. George Crook's expedition to disrupt the Virginia & Tennessee Railroad, an important Confederate supply line. Later, it fought in the Battle of Piedmont and then participated in the Valley Campaigns of 1864, including the battles of Berryville, Opequon or Third Winchester, Fisher's Hill, and Cedar Creek.

For the rest of the war, the regiment split its time between garrisons in Cumberland, Maryland, and Winchester, Virginia. The 91st Ohio was mustered out at Cumblerland on June 24, 1865, and subsequently transported by train back to Ohio

During its time of service, the 91st lost 3 Officers and 60 enlisted men killed and mortally wounded during battle, and 3 Officers and 87 enlisted men perished from disease, for a total loss of 153 soldiers.

5 Jane Caulley (John, Allen, Sally) Born ca 1848, Lawrence County, Ohio to John Corley / Caulley and Eliza (Clarkson) Caulley. The only record we have of Jane Caulley is her name on the 1850 Federal Census of Symmes Township, Lawrence County, Ohio in the household of Johna and Jane (Clarkson) Caulley. At that time she was listed as i year old. She does not appear on any subsequent censuses leading me to deduce that she died before 1860.

6 William Allen Caulley (John, Allen, Sally) Born ca 1852, Symmes Township, Lawrence County, Ohio to John Corley / Caulley and Eliza (Clarkson) Caulley. William Allen "Bill" Caulley was the fifth child and third son of John and Eliza (Clarkson) Caulley. William Allen first appears on the 1860 Federal Census of Symmes Township, Lawrence Co. Ohio as is seen below:

17 Year-old William Allen Caulley is not found on the 1870 census leading me to think he was spending time with one of his married siblings or was working as a farmhand and boarding with one of the neighbors. For whatever reason, Wm. Allen Caulley is not see again until he married Mary "Polly" Barton on the 29th of February, 1874.

Between their marriage and the 1876 Missouri State Census (Reynolds County) they had one child, Vallandingham "Val" Caulley. It is believed that Vallandingham Caulley was named after the Ohio politician, Clement Laird Vallandingham.

Clement Laird Vallandingham was the head of the the Copperhead faction of anti-war, pro-Confederate Democrats during the American Civil War. He was the inspiration of Edward Everett Hale's story, THE MAN WITHOUT A COUNTRY which was published in The Atlantic Monthly in 1863. He was nominated by the Democratic party for governor of Ohio, but lost and after the Civil War he returned to Ohio and ran for the U.S. Senate, but lost this race, also.

By the 1880 Federal Census of Carroll Township, Reynolds County, Missouri their little family had grown by two more sons, Henry A. and 9-month old Manuel.

(Snipit of the 1880 Census)

Since the 1890 Federal Census was mostly destroyed by fire, we do not have another glimpse of William A. Caulley and his family until 1900. The Federal Census taken in 1900 shows the Caulley family living in District 8 of Oak Hill Township, Crawford Co., Missouri. By this time Val and Emanuel were no longer living at home. Val was married and living next door, and Manuel was working as a hired hand working for Grim Matlock on his farm in Knobview, Crawford Co., MO.

Allen appears to have not been one to stay very long in one place. He was not tied down by owning real estate as I've only found one deed in his name after 1876. That deed was dated 1912 and the land was located in Phelps Co., MO. Family tradition holds that he and his sons were wood cutters who would cut green railroad ties. In 1910 Federal Census of District 70, St.

James in Phelps County, Missouri shows only daughter Adaline "Ada" living at home with her parents. Ben had married by then, as had Lucinda "Cindy" and Cora had died.

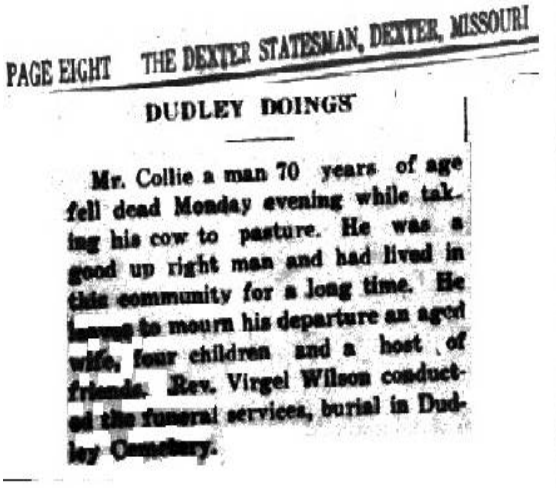
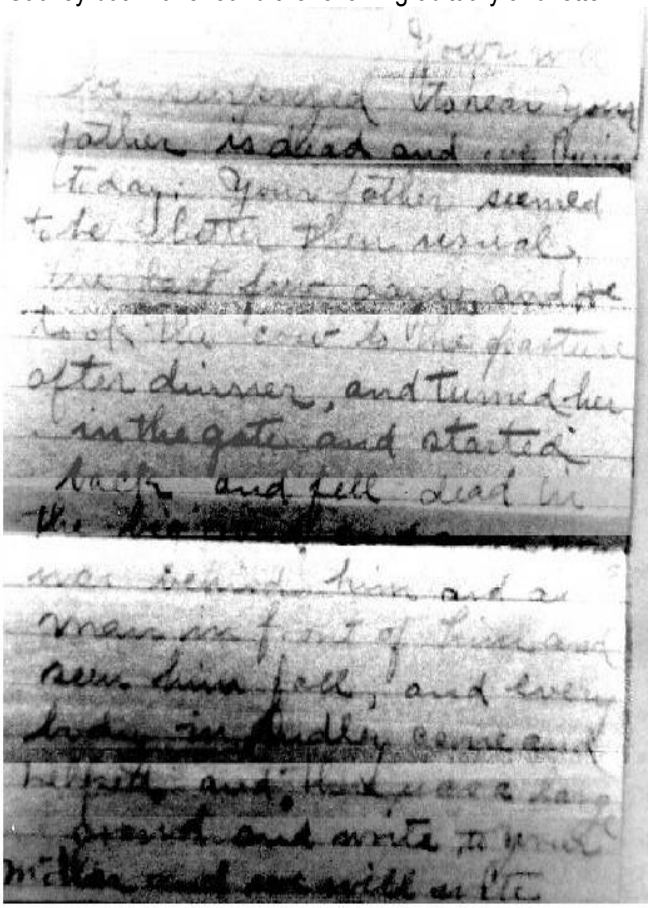
Sometime in the next two years William and Polly moved yet again to Dudley, Stodard County, Missouri. This was the same area where their son Emanuel or Manuel had settled his family and take up farming. It was there on 22 May 1922 that William Allen Caulley fell over dead after taking his cow to the pasture. I have been unable to find an official state death certificate for William Allen or Bill Caulley but I have found the following obituary and letter.



PAGE EIGHT THE DEXTER STATESMAN, DEXTER, MISSOURI

DUDLEY DOINGS

Mr. Collie a man 70 years of age fell dead Monday evening while taking his cow to pasture. He was a good up right man and had lived in this community for a long time. He leaves to mourn his departure an aged wife, four children and a host of friends. Rev. Virgel Wilson conducted the funeral services, burial in Dudley Cemetery.



The text of the letter is as follows:

You will be surprised to hear that your father died and we buried him today. Your father seemed to be better than usual the last few days and he took the cow to the pasture after dinner, and turned her in the gate and started back and fell dead in the big road. _____ was behind him and a man in front of him and seen him fall and everybody in Dudley came and helped and there was a large crowd and write to your mother and we will write.

I believe the letter was written to Valentine Caulley as it was in the possession of one of his descendants.

Willam Allen's wife, Polly (Barton) Caulley lived another eight years before she joined William in death.

William Allen Caulley and Mary "Polly" Barton had children as follows:

a. Vallandingham "Val" Caulley (Wm A., John, Allen, Sally) born 16 MAR 1875 in Reynolds Co., MO, married Emma Ferris 8 July 1896, died 18 March 1943 in rural Phelps Co., MO

Teacher Of The Year

'Sincere Dedication' Wins Teacher Of Year Honors

By JIM MUELLER

Tom Caulley, a teacher at Fort Zumwalt's Forest Park Elementary School, tells his fifth-grade classes it took him four years to get out of fourth grade. Caulley had spent the first four years of his career teaching fourth grade.

Caulley, 34, said he tells the joke because the students like it.

Caulley's rapport with students was just one of the reasons he was chosen by a committee of Fort Zumwalt teachers and administrators as the district's 1985-86 teacher of the year.

The 11 candidates for the award also were screened for their professional development, teaching philosophy and dedication, said Lynn Byrnes, Fort Zumwalt's community services director. Byrnes, who served on the selection committee, said Caulley's sincere dedication was his primary attribute.

The committee also was impressed because Caulley said his goal was to be the best teacher he could be, Byrnes said.

Caulley tries to be a good teacher by giving the students hands-on learning experiences. For example, this year the students learned about archeology by participating in a mock dig for artifacts in a mound constructed in the classroom.

At the fifth-grade level, teachers cannot provide in-depth instruction in each subject, but they can provide the spark that ignites an interest in the subject, Caulley said.

"If I were teaching strictly from the text, I would be extinguishing that spark," Caulley said.

According to Forest Park Principal Pat Lacey, who has worked with Caulley for eight years, Caulley is no textbook teacher.

"Tom is an innovator," Lacey said. "He has far-reaching ideas and goals. He works at this."

Lacey gave, as an example, workshops Caulley has conducted for other teachers on the use of microscopes and his work in science.

Caulley's class recently studied a science unit on space that included the study of moon rocks from NASA. Caulley taught the unit to other classes, in addition to his own because he was the only teacher certified to handle the rocks.

"You have to sign in blood that nothing will happen to them," Caulley said and laughed.

Responsibility for moon rocks may be a strain, but Caulley said teachers also undergo emotional stress by being responsible for the children in their classes.

Caulley said he maintains discipline by setting a good example: he doesn't yell across the classroom at students and respects their rights. But if anyone disobeys, he corrects them immediately.

At the beginning of the year, set rules and consequences for disobeying them are established, Caulley said.

Occasionally, special rules are set during the year. For example, last year Caulley had to prohibit "moonwalking" in the classroom because too many students were imitating Michael Jackson when walking to the pencil sharpener.

But Caulley said he chose to teach in the intermediate grades because he wanted pupils who were not too immature, yet who are more interested in learning than junior high school students.

Caulley said he became interested in teaching when he was 10 years old and looked up to his teachers. After he graduated from Northwest High School in St. Louis, he studied elementary education at Culver-Stockton College in Canton.

He received his Bachelor of Science degree in 1973 and is now enrolled in a master's program in education at Northwest Missouri State University.

He has spent his entire 12-year career in the Fort Zumwalt district. Caulley lives in the district with his wife, Suz.

Caulley said he enjoys teaching and would never want to be an administrator. In fact, he said he will probably be at Forest Park until he retires.

"I'm a little bit of ham, and it gives me a captive audience for six hours a day," Caulley said jokingly.

Caulley's peers take his teaching abilities seriously. Byrnes said Caulley was nominated for teacher of the year by several other teachers.

Caulley will receive a plaque at the district's Board of Education meeting Monday.

Caulley said the award means a lot to him because he was nominated by other teachers and because teachers comprised more than half of the selection committee.

"It's nice to have a pat on the back," Caulley said. "It gives me a shot to keep me going."

Undoubtedly, Caulley would continue teaching with or without awards. At a recent seminar involving other teachers, CAulley momentarily forgot he was not addressing his pupils. He clapped his hands loudly to get the group's attention, just as he would have done for his fifth graders.

"It's in my blood," Caulley said of teaching. "I can't get it out."

Solar Eclipse

Tom Caulley, center, a Culver-Stockton College junior from Overland, talks with Robert Mathieson, assistant professor of physics, left, and John Sperry, librarian and professor of history, about an expedition to Canada this summer to study a solar eclipse. Caulley has been selected to join the expedition conducted by the University of Missouri-Rolla.

Selected for Expedition

Tom Caulley, a Culver - Stockton College junior from Overland, has been selected to participate in a summer expedition to Canada to observe a solar eclipse.

Caulley has been notified of the acceptance of his application to join the expedition conducted by the University of Missouri - Rolla. The expedition is sponsored by a grant from the National Science Foundation.

Six Rolla students and six from other colleges and universities in Missouri will participate in the expedition to the Gaspe Peninsula located in Quebec approximately 100 miles north of Maine. The Gaspe Peninsula area will experience a total eclipse of the sun July 10. The expedition will begin June 26 and end July 27.

Expedition members will use radio antennas, photometric work and photography in experiments during the encampment. Following the eclipse data from experiments will be analyzed and results evaluated.

Caulley is the son of Mrs. Margaret Caulley, 8964 Argyle Ave., Overland.

h. Cora Caulley (Wm A., John, Allen, Sally) born March 1896, died before 1910. Family tradition relates that Baby Cora died while the family was either traveling to of from Nebraska where they had gone for a short time to try their hands at homesteading. They did not find Nebraska to their liking and returned to Missouri. Cora died while they were on the "trail" and was buried in an unmarked grave at an unknown location.

7 Nancy Caulley (John, Allen, Sally) was born 13 August 1954 in Symmes Township, Lawrence Co., Ohio. Is first found on the 1860 Federal Census at age five. At that time she was the youngest in John and Eliza's family.

Nancy Yates, being by me first duly sworn upon her oath says that she is unable to furnish any proof of the date of her birth because she is not in possession of the family bible in which such record was made and kept, nor does she know where said family bible can be located at this time; affiant says she was born August 13, 1853, at Waterloo, Lawrence County, Ohio, and during the summer of 1860 she resided with her parents in Lawrence County, Ohio; that her parents were John Cawley and Lizzie Cawley, his wife, and her brothers and sisters living in June, 1860, were Henry Cawley, Mandy Cawley, Malinda Cawley, Jackson Cawley, Bill Cawley, and Joe Cawley; and affiant further says that in the summer of 1870 affiant resided in Montgomery County, Ohio, and that her oldest brother, Henry Cawley, served in the Union Army during the Civil War in the 13th Ohio Infantry, and was killed in the battle of Stone River; affiant further says she was married to Samuel C. Yates, the soldier, on May 23, 1869, and further affiant saith not.

Notary Public.

She married Samuel C Yates on 23 May 1869 in Lawrence Co. The official record cannot be found by me, but an affidavit of that marriage was found in Samuel Yate's Civil War pension file.

In 1870 Nancy claims that she and Samuel were living in Montgomer Co, OH, but I have been unable to find them on the census. This information came from another affidavit in her husband's Civil War pension file. That same year, when John moved his family to Missouri, Samuel C. and Nancy (Caulley) Yates moved along with them.

We next find Samuel and Nancy (Caulley) Yates on the 1880 Federal Census of Carroll Township, Reynolds Co, MO. Nancy's mother, Eliza lived in house number 16 and Nancy & Sam lived in house #20.

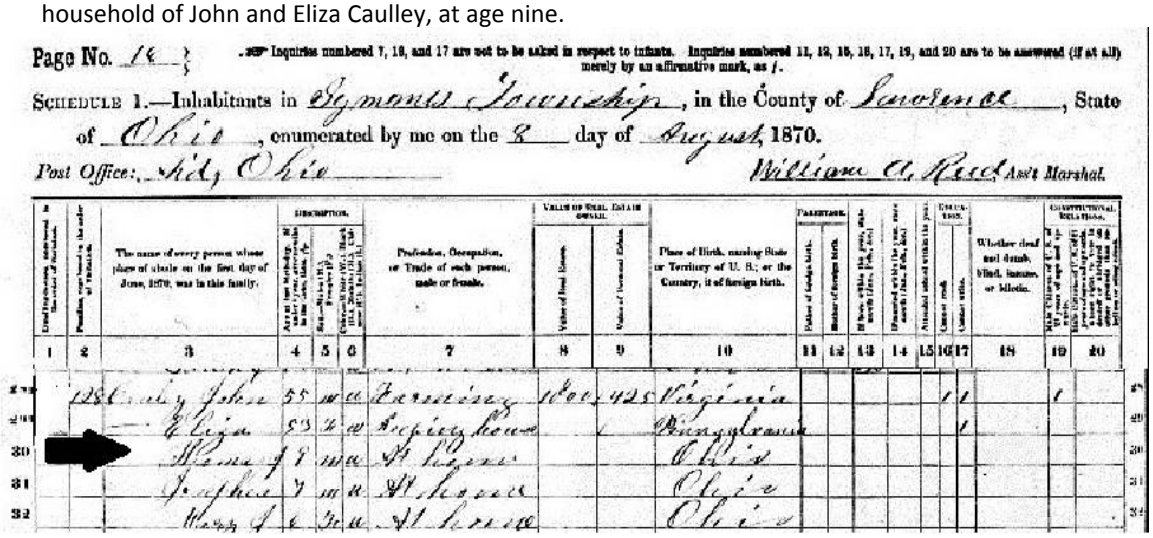
8 Thomas Jefferson Caulley (John, Allen, Sally) was born 28 Oct 1861 in Symmes Township, Lawrence Co., OH. Very little is known about Thomas. He is found on the 1870 Federal Census of Symmes Township in the household of John and Eliza Caulley, at age nine.



Page No. 18 — Inquiries numbered 7, 10, and 17 are not to be asked in respect to infants. Inquiries numbered 11, 12, 15, 16, 17, 19, and 20 are to be answered (if at all) merely by an affirmative mark, as ✓.

SCHEDULE 1.—Inhabitants in Symmes Township, in the County of Lawrence, State of Ohio, enumerated by me on the 8 day of August, 1870.

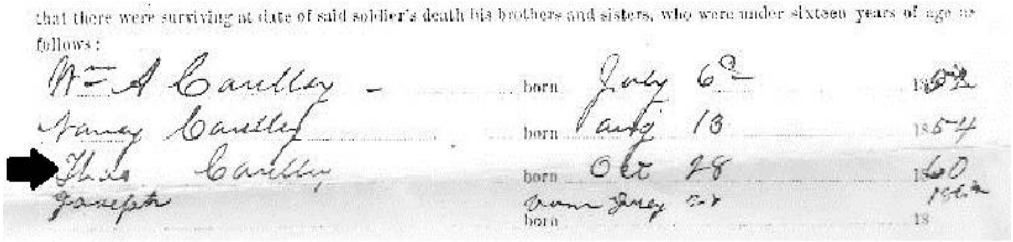
He is also mentioned on his mother's application for a pension based on his older brother's death death in the Civil War.....



that there were surviving at date of said soldier's death his brothers and sisters, who were under sixteen years of age as follows:

Wm A Caulley	born	July 6th	1852
Nancy Caulley	born	Aug 13	1854
Thos Caulley	born	Oct 28	1860
Joseph	born	Jan 20	1862

It appears as if Thomas Jefferson Caulley was dead by the 1880 census as he is nowhere to be found.

9 Joseph "Joe" Caulley (John, Allen, Sally) was born 20 July 1862 in Symmes Township, Lawrence Co. Ohio. He is found of the 1870 Federal Census of Symmes Township, Lawrence Co and is mentioned in the same 2 Civil War Pension Documents as his brother Thomas (see above).

This is to Certify
That Joseph Cauley of Reynolds Co Missouri & Miss

Lord one thousand eight hundred & Eighty

Filed Feb 27th 1880 A. H. Shy Recorder

Family tradition says that Joe and his brother went down to the Black River, which was flood swollen. Joe took off his clothes and tied them in a bundle then, holding them out of the water, swam the River. He called for his dog to following, which it did, having a difficult time. Joe helped the dog out, waved to his brother and took off. He was never seen again.

Of course this IS just "Family Tradition" which should always be taken with a grain (or pound) of salt. Consider Family Traditions as interesting stories until they are proved or disproved. None the less, I have not been able to find Joseph/Josephes and/or Mahuldy Kisariah on any later censuses, and I assume they died shortly after their marriage.

10 Mary Jane Caulley (John, Allen, Sally) was born ca 1865 in Symmes Township, Lawrence Co., OH. She was the youngest of John and Eliza's ten children. Nancy Jane Caulley is found of the 1870 Federal Census of Symmes Township, Lawrence Co, OH, but was not mentioned on the two Civil War Pension Documents mentioned above.

On 25 July 1884 Jane Caulley married Richard McMullen in Reynolds Co., MO. Until recently (29 Dec 2010) this was all we knew about Mary Jane. I have learned that on 20 May 1888 Mary Jane McMullin married John F Mayfield, who had already had 1 wife whom we presume had died, in Iron Co., MO. We can assume that either Mary and Richard divorce/separated or Richard had died by that time.

ELIZABETH CORLEY CAULLEY (Allen, Sally)
(b 25 Feb 1819 -- d. 26 Sept 1899)

Elizabeth (Allen, Sally) Caulley was the third child and the oldest daughter of Allen (Finley Corley) Caulley and Marry (Siner) Caulley, born 25 February 1819 in either Greenup or Lawrence County, Kentucky. Being a female in the 19th century did not give her many chances to appear in legal documents prior to the 1850 Census. We first have record of Elizabeth Caulley on the official marriage record when she married George Bandy, Jr. on 26 Sept 1838 in Lawrence Co., Ohio.

The 1840 Federal Census of Symmes Township, Lawrence County, Ohio has George Bandy's household just six farms away from Eliabeth's brother, John. According to Ancestry.com the house had the following:

After ten years pass we finally get a clearer picture of Elizabeth and George's family. We next find the family of George and Elizabeth (Caulley) Bandy on the 1850 Federal Census of Aid Township, Lawrence County, OH. By that time they have all four of their children:

The 1882 History of Lawrence County by Hardesty has the following of George Bandy, and Elizabeth by default:

History of Lawrence Co., Ohio
by Hardesty (1882)

GEORGE BANDY – was born in the State of Virginia, Christmas day, in the year 1812. His parents, Andrew and Rebecca (Ulbridge) Bandy, settled in this county in 1831. George Bandy was married in this county to Elizabeth Cauly, who is a native of Lawrence county, Kentucky, born February 25, 1819. Her parents are Allen and Mary (Seiner) Cauly, who came to this county in 1829. The children of Mr. and Mrs. Bandy are: Mary J. (Goff), born November 18, 1837, resides in Lawrence county, Ohio; Lafayette, August 28, 1839, died May 6, 1871; Julia A. (Worthington), November 5, 1840, resides in Gallia county, Ohio; Malinda A. (Brooks), September 20, 1842, resides in Lawrence county, Ohio. William Bandy, a brother of George, was a soldier in the war of the rebellion, being a member of an Illinois regiment. Lafayette, the only son of Mr. Bandy, was a member of Company I, 18th Ohio Volunteer Infantry, and served three years, when he was honorably discharged. On the 3d of May, 1871, while Lafayette Bandy was chopping down a tree it fell on him, and death ensued three days afterward. He left a wife, his parents, three sisters, and many friends to mourn his untimely end. Mr. Bandy has held several township offices—justice of the peace, school director, and others. Mrs. Bandy has been a member of the Missionary Baptist church for thirty-five years. Mr. Bandy is engaged in farming in Symmes township. Address, Roger's postoffice, Lawrence county, Ohio.

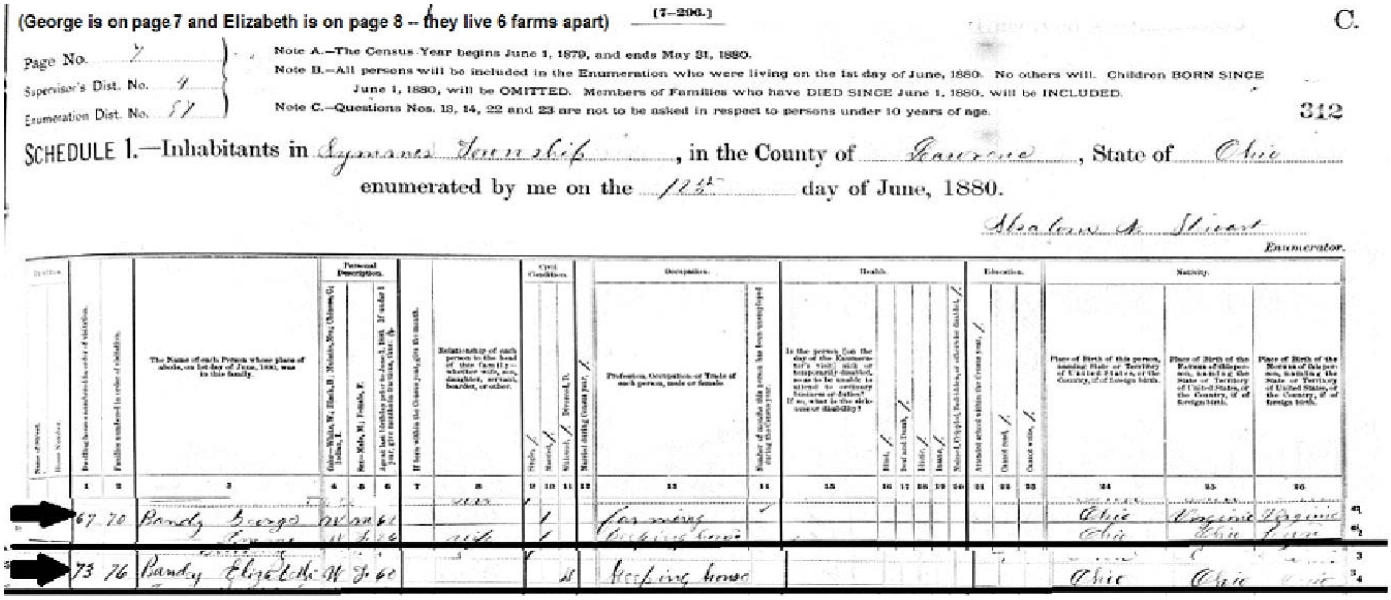
Examination of the 1880 Federal Census reveals there had been turmoil in Elizabeth (Caulley) and George Bandy's family. We find that George and Elizabeth were no longer living together. In fact, George was now married to a 26-year old named Emma. If you inspect the the combined census snipit you will see that Elizabeth (Caulley) Bandy was classified with a "D" (divorced). The 1880 census is the last official record we have of Elizabeth (Caulley) Bandy.



(George is on page 7 and Elizabeth is on page 8 – they live 6 farms apart) (7–296.) C.

Next we find his marriage to Elizabeth Spencer on 11 June 1841 in Gallia Co, OH. I do not have a copy of the original marriage record, but it can be found on the LDS Church's FamilySearch.org, Records Search site: http://search.labs.familysearch.org/recordsearch/start.html#p=recordimage&c=fs:1681001&r=r_348263066&pn=p4 where he is listed as George Carley and she is listed as Elizabeth Spincer. This marriage record has eluded me for over 20 years. It was finally found by doing a marriage search on Ancestry.com using only the two first names, and checking marriage in 1841 in the counties around Lawrence Co, one at a time.

I have not yet been able to find George W. Caulley on the 1850 Census in Ohio, Kentucky or Virginia. I continue to search using all 45 of the spellings I've found for Corley/Caulley and every trick I can think of.

We get a much better snapshot of George, Elizabeth and their growing family on the 1860 census which shows the following:

DEATHS

James Caulley

James Caulley was born near Waterloo in Lawrence County, Ohio, and spent all his life in Lawrence, Scioto and Jackson counties with the exception of his army life and the time he spent at Dayton, which was not very long. In 1861 he enlisted in the great cause of saving the Union and was honorably discharged in 1865. In two years after his discharged he united in marriage with Miss Mary Ann Arms who proved a most worthy companion to the very end. To them were born ten children, five sons and five daughters. Four sons and two daughters now living, and with their mother mourn the loss of a tender and loving husband and father. The children are: Edward of Firebrick; Tracey of Dayton; Warren and James of Oak Hill; Mrs. Effie Myers of Garfield, Ark; and Mrs. Jeneva Kiner of Detroit, Mich. There are 13 grand children.

In 1873 Mr. Caulley became a member of the Kingdom of Christ and united with the Free-will Baptist church. On moving to another place he united with the regular Baptist. He was an earnest consistent follower of his Lord. While absolutely true and faithful to his own denomination, he was no bigot, and cheerfully extended the hand of fellowship in Christ's name to members of other churches, worshipped and colabored with them. No people were more faithful in attendance and labor in the great Champion meetings last summer than were Mr. and Mrs. Caulley. Mr. Caulley had an intense nature. He was what he was with his whole soul and might, and he enjoyed the confience and respect of all who knew him for his upright and Christian conduct.

He died at the National Soldiers' Home in Dayton on January 17, 1916 in his 74th year. He was buried at Oak Hill on the 20th, his old time friend, the Rev. S. S. Denney of Bidwell, speaking words of comfort. The minister dwelled upon the many interesting characteristics of the departed, and making special mention of his sterling character. His widow and children get the sympathy of a large number of neighbors and friends and they feel very grateful for the kindness shown them in their sorrow. Mr. Caulley was a resident of Oak Hill for 12 years, and during all that time he served as deacon of the Baptist church. He will be greatly missed.

Mr. John Hanner of Wheelersburgh enlisted at the time Mr. Caulley did and they served together during the war, but the strange thing about it is, that Mr. Hanner was buried on the same day at Wheelersbbrg as Mr. Caulley was buried at Oak Hill.

G. James Jones.

TEMPY CORLEY / CAULLEY (Allen, Sally)
(b ca 1827 -- d. ca 1858)

Tempy Corley / Caulley (Allen, Sally) was the seventh child of Allen (Finley Corley) Caulley and Mary (Siner) Caulley, ca 1827 in Greenup County, Kentucky. The first official record we have of Tempy Corly is her marriage to William Shope. I do not have a copy of this record but it can be found at the LDS Church's FamilySearch.org's Records Search site.
http://search.labs.familysearch.org/recordsearch/start.html#p=recordimage&c=fs:1681001&r=r_348282214&pn=p1
The record on their site reads as follows:

Groom's Name: William Shope
Bride's Name: Tempy Corly
Marriage Date: 08 Feb 1844
Marriage Place: Lawrence County, Ohio

The next glimpse we get is on the 1850 federal census of Symmes Township, Lawrence Co., Ohio, page 424. The census taker mistakenly recorded their family name as SHARP, but other records indicate it was actually SHOPE. This lead me down the wrong path for many years as I only just recently found the marriage record confirming she married a SHOPE and not a SHARP.

		Tempy Sharp	23	S				O					16
		Mary Sharp	6	S				O					17
		Alfred Sharp	4/12	M				O					18

I deduced Tempy's date of death after I put on my "detective's hat" and did a little digging. The following what I deduced and how I arrived at that conclusion.

Did she die ca 1858??

My research has lead me to believe that Tempy Caulley Shope died around 1858. I did a census search on the name Tempy Shope or Sharp in 1860--nothing Next I searched for William Sharp or Shope and found a William Shope in Ashland Ky in 1860. In his family there was a Daughter named Mary J. age 14 and a son named Alfred age 11 which agrees with the 1850 census information. The complete household was :

William Shope	34
Nancy Shope	25
Alfred W Shope	11
Franklin Shope	9
Mary J Shope	14
David Lloyd	11
Josephine Lloyd	8
Infant Lloyd	3/12
Sarah Higginbottom	30

Zeroing in on the wife, named Nancy, 10 years his junior and the children of a different surname, I did a search for marriages for a William Shope and a Nancy.

Nothing in Kentucky but I found the following in Jackson Co., OH

Name: Shope, William
Spouse: Faulkner, Nancy
Marriage Date: 3 July 1859
County: Jackson
State: OH

This all leads me to believe that Tempy died ca 1858 and William remarried. I explain Mary J. Shope being on the census both in Ashland KY and with Allen and Mary in Symmes township on the 1860 census this way. The census in Ashland Ky, just across the river from Lawrence Co, was taken on July 29, and the census in Symmes Township, Lawrence Co was taken on August 16 th. I theorize that Nancy Shope was at home with her parents when the census take came to their house in Ashland, KY (or he parents just gave the census taker her name and age since she did live there) then she went to spend some time with her grandparents in Lawrence County , just across the river and about 20 miles as the crow flies, resulting in her having been recorded twice.

This is not the first time I've run across this phenomenon. I have seen one entire family recorded in two different places on the same census as they moved between visits from the census takers.

Following this information, I began documenting Tempy (Caulley) Shope's descendants.

The ages just don't jibe with the marriage record or the 1840 census of Allen Corley's household. It could be that I misestimated Rachel's year of birth and that she was actually born 13 years earlier than I thought. If they aren't the right Rachel and Louis Pascal, I find it a strange coincidence that there would be two sets of Louis and Rachel Pascals.

With No more evidence this, I will end this section on Rachel Caulley.

SARAH CAULLEY (Allen, Sally)
(b ca 1834 -- d. ????)

Sarah Caulley (Allen, Sally) was the tenth and last child of Allen (Finley Corley) Caulley and Mary (Siner) Caulley, ca 1834 in Lawrence Co., Ohio. The only confirmed record I have of Sarah Cauley is the on the 1850 Federal Census of Symmes Township, Lawrence County, Ohio. This is the ONLY record I have of Sarah Caulley.

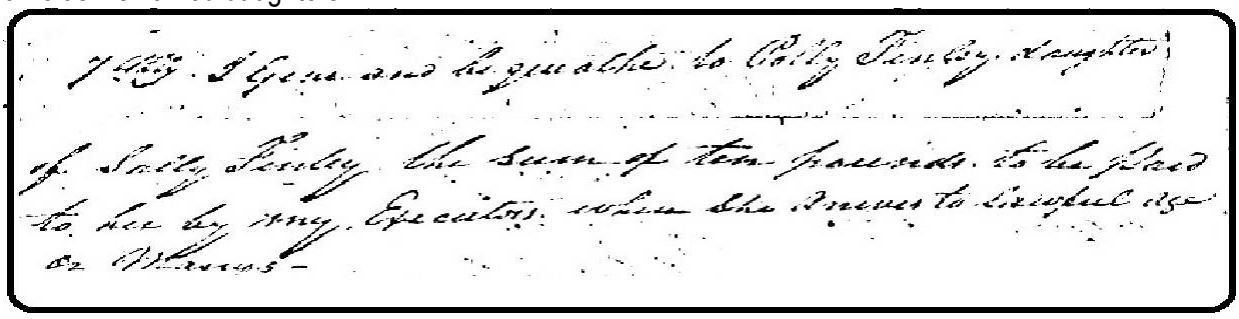
This concludes the section on Allen Finley-Corley-Caulley, the first child of Sally Finley.

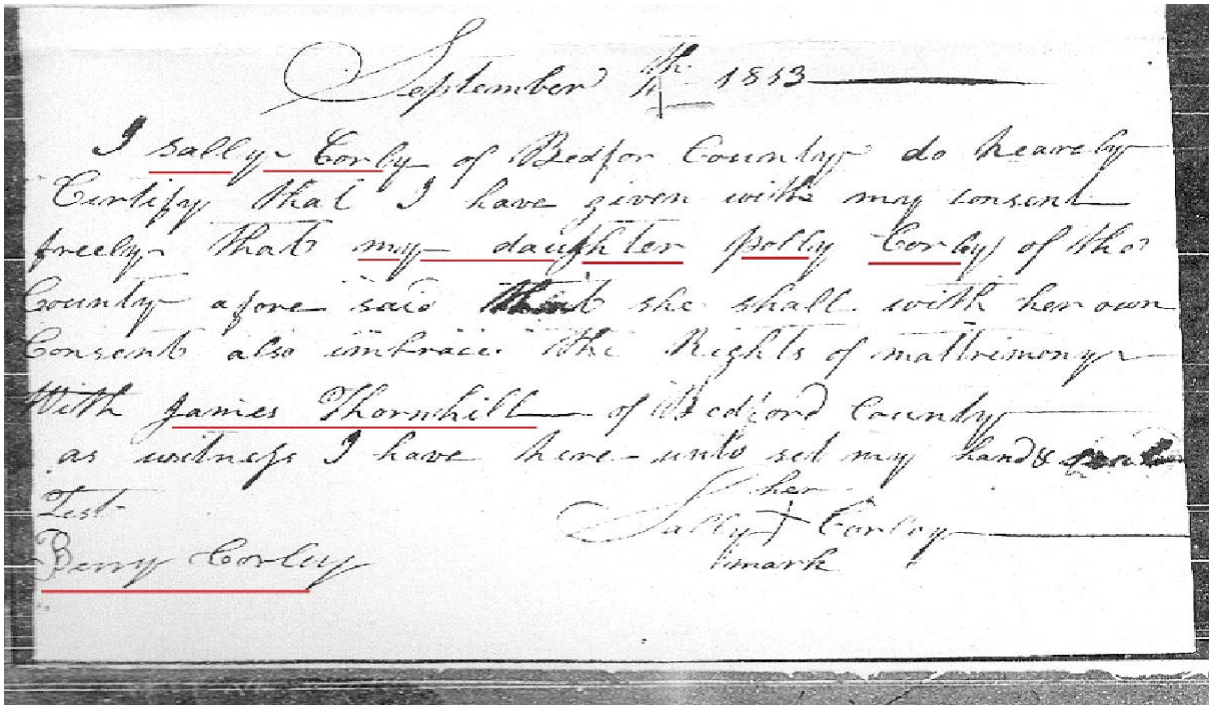
Polly / Mary (Finley) Corley
(b. ca 1790 - d. after 1860)

Polly Finley (Sally) was the 2nd child and only daughter of Sally Finley. Her birth year has been calculated to have been 1790 based on the Federal Censuses on which she was recorded. Nothing is known about her prior to the writing of Caniel Corley's will on the 19th of January, 1807. If we have accurately calculated Polly's year of birth, she would have been 17 years old at that time. In Caniel's Will, Polly Finley received an inheritance of £10 to be received when she reaches 21 or marries. This is the same as his named daughters.



7thly, I give and bequeath to Polly Finley Daughter of Sally Finley the sum of Ten Pounds, to be paid to her by my Executors, when she arrives to lawful Age or Marries.

The first official record I have of Polly Finley, following Caniel Corley's will is her marriage bond and parents permission slip dated 6 September 1813 in Bedford County, Virginia. By this time she is using the surname Corley rather than Finley. James was the son of William Thornhill, a Revolutionary War Veteran whom I will cover later.



September the 6th 1813

I Sally Corley of Bedford County do hereby Certify that I have given with my consent freely that my daughter Polly Corley of the County aforesaid shall with her own Consent also entrace the Rights of matrimony with James Thornhill of Bedford County as witness I have hereunto set my hand & seal

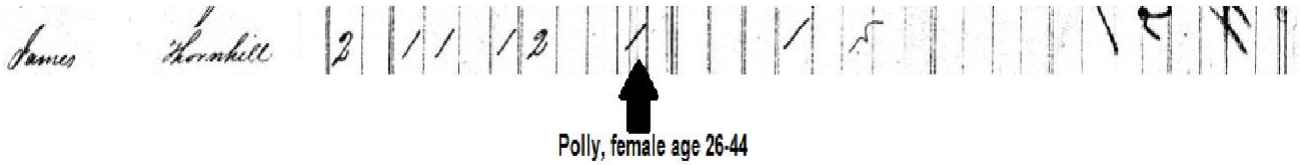
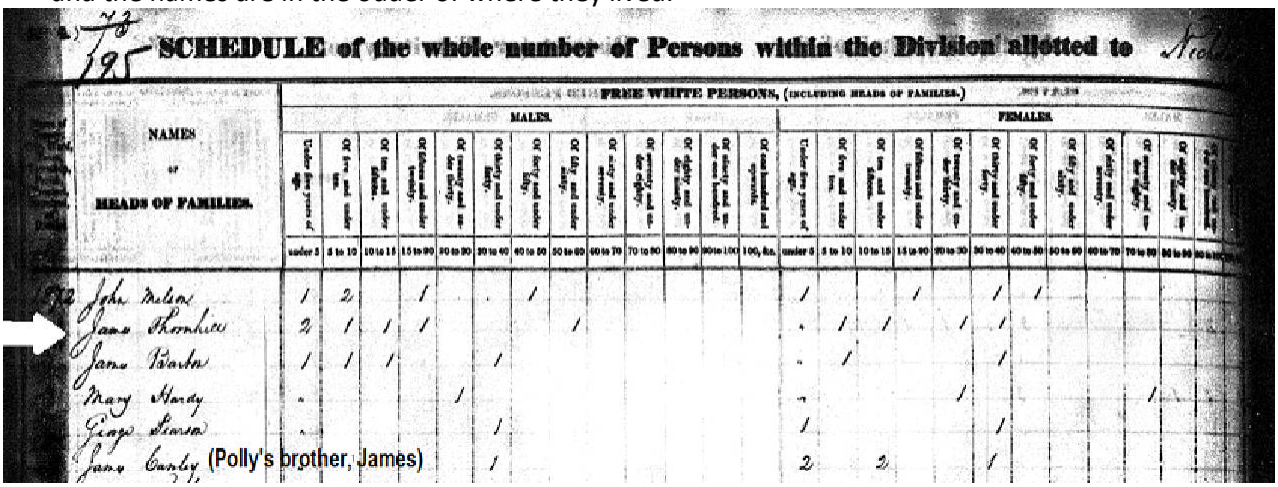
Next we find James Thornhill, and thus Polly, as the head of a household on 1820 the Federal Census of Bedford County, Virginia.



(Census snipit. Full census pages available on the DVD)

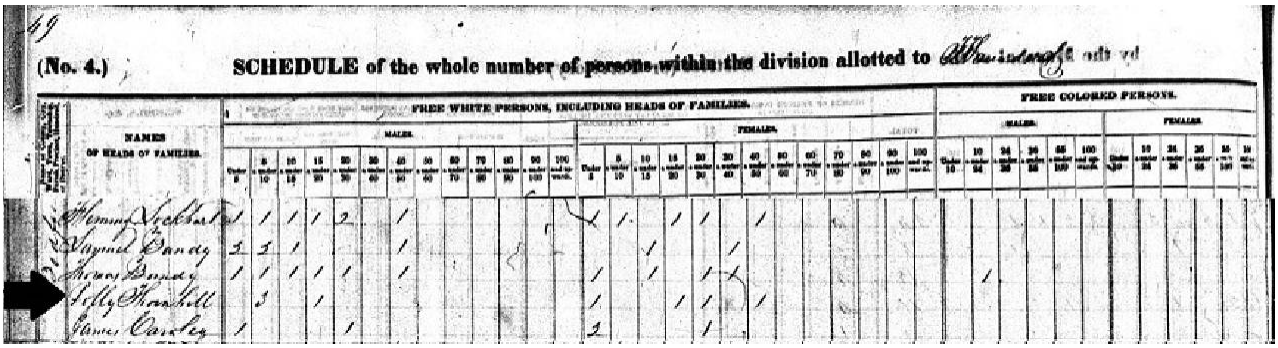
On the 1820 census, you find only the name of the head of each household followed by a series of numbers in columns divided by gender and age. . This is the norm for all the censuses before 1850. What makes it worse, names are arranged in a rough alphabetical order based on the first letter of their last names and NOT in the order of where they lived The columns for the 1820 census are as follows:

The 1830 Federal Census is a little easier to read since the page gives column headings and the names are in the odder of where they lived.



(Census snipit. Full census pages available on the DVD)

The 1840 Federal Census of Bedford County shows that Polly is now the head of the household indicating that James Thornhill had died.



(Census snipit. Full census pages available on the DVD)

With the 1850 Federal Census we finally get a list of everyone living in each household. Researchers indicate that James died 4 July 1844 in Barbers Ford, Franklin Co., VA.

3-Year Old Youth Dies In Accident

The Christmas casualty list swelled yesterday by two local accidents in which one death occurred and three were injured.

Leroy Cawley, 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cawley, of Winding Gulf, died instantly early last night when he fell from a 1941 Plymouth sedan driven by his father near Willard's Market on North Kanawha Street.

Following an investigation of the accident, Police Chief Dee Hedrick stated that it was believed the child had been playing with the door handle prior to the accident.

Hedrick said the family had been shopping in Beckley and was driving out of town when the tragedy occurred.

An official at the Beckley Hospital, where the youth was taken, said he received fatal injuries to the head and at the base of the skull.

Three Ameagle men were taken to the Raleigh General Hospital early yesterday morning for treatment following an accident which occurred on Harper Hill.

Sgt. Anthony Scalise, of the local state police detachment, said the three men, Ernest Stover, J. P. Bowers and Robert Osborne, were passengers in a 1940 Ford tudor sedan and the accident occurred when the driver of the vehicle failed to make a sharp turn.

Hospital attaches reported last night that Bowers and Osborne

The National Baptist Memorial Church in Washington, D. C. was the scene Saturday for the wedding of Miss Virginia Ruth Cawley and Ernest Stevens Hammersley.

Sprays of snapdragons and gladioli were used to decorate the church to create the wedding scene, and the Rev. Edward B. Willingham, pronounced the double-ring rites which united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Cawley, of MacArthur, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hammersley, of Alexandria, Va.

Given in marriage by her father the former Miss Cawley appeared in a two-piece champagne dress, with which she wore brown accessories. Her flowers were pink roses with blue forget-me-nots.

Her only attendant Mrs. Lowell Cawley, of MacArthur, chose a pastel yellow suit with brown accessories and a corsage of yellow Talisman roses when she served as matron of honor for her sister-in-law.

Edward Hammersley served his brother as best man.

For her daughter's wedding day Mrs. Cawley selected a grey suit with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The groom's mother was attired in black with white carnations for her shoulder corsage.

When the couple left for a wedding trip to New York the new Mrs. Hammersley had changed to a black suit with matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

She is a graduate eof Woodrow Wilson High School and is employed in the Circulation Department of the Evening Star in Washington, D. C., where she plans to continue her work. Her husband is employed also by the Evening Star.

Uncle Don died while visiting us in San Diego. He was cremated and his ashes are off the coast of San Diego. During World War II (we found out after his death) he was a spy for the US and infiltrated the German Lines. He would never tell us and he was sworn to secrecy and my son figured it out and asked him. We have a letter sent to him some time later thanking him for his service. I want to pursue the letter with the government to find out his exact service. I was told that he had married around the time of WWII and that he had married a Senators daughter. Notes for Elizabeth Palmer:

She and Berry separated before 1870. She thereafter used the last name of Peters and moved to Kanawha County, WV where she is found in the 1880 Census. Descendants of Elizabeth's son Isaac who was born about 5 months after her marriage to Berry believed him to have been a Cauley. However DNA tests have shown that his father was a Mann, probably Isaac Henderson Mann.

REGISTER OF DEATHS No. 11—Mercer County, W. Va.

Notes from an interview of Virginia Caroline Pettrey Lawrence by her granddaughter Rebecca Ann.

 As Berry Cauley lay dying, he told Emily Jane that he had a previous wife that he was never divorced from and he had been lying to her all these years. He asked Emily Jane if she would forgive him-and she told him "If GOD can forgive you, then I can". Berry Cauley and Emily Jane had lived together for many years and had started a family and she thought they had a legal marriage.

 Berry Cauley and his first wife had a son (John) who was the legal heir to all of Berry Cauley's estate •• which was considerable. Emily Jane was understandably bitter and would never again use the name of Cauley-7 -but thereafter she would use her maiden name of Pettrey for herself and her children. She taught her daughters that men were no good. Emily Jane was left to raise four children by taking in washing and ironing and doing chores for other people since Berry Cauley's considerable estate went to his first wife and son and was passed down to the Hopkins family. The Hopkins are the grandchildren of Berry Cauley. John Cauley's daughter Marinda married Will Hopkins.

 Berry Cauley died when Virginia Caroline was three years old. She was carried to his funeral by Larkin Williams. The burial was at the original cemetery on the "Ransom Hopkins Place"- which is the land once owned by Berry Cauley.

 Polly Christian (Emily Jane's Mother) lost her mind. She was lost in the woods while on her way to her brother's house (John Christian) after being run off from her home by Oal Pettrey. She was found a year later. All that remained was her bones, haircombs, bonnet and cape. It was suspected that she was either murdered by her brother's son or maybe she was killed by Indians.

Information from Cyndee Osborn Hildebrand (2006):

Uncle Don died while visiting us in San Diego. He was cremated and his ashes are off the coast of San Diego. During World War II (we found out after his death)he was a spy for the US and infiltrated the German Lines. He would never tell us and he was sworn to secrecy and my son figured it out and asked him. We have a letter sent to him some time later thanking him for his service. I want to pursue the letter with the government to find out his exact service. I was told that he had married around the time of WWII and that he had married a Senators daughter. I believe it was in New York. He divorced her within a year as he felt he would not be able to treat her as she should have been done (leaving to be a spy?)
