

John (Finley) Corley / Cawley

(b. ca 1795 - d. 26 September 1876)

John Finley (Sally) was the fifth child of Sally Finley. His birth year has been calculated to have been 1797 based on the fact that his younger brother, Jeremiah was born in 1799 and his next older brother, Berry, was born ca 1795. It is assumed that Caniel listed Sally' six children in order of their birth in his will. Little is known about him prior to the writing of Caniel Corley's will on the 19th of January, 1807.

The first official record we have is ad deed dated 17 October 1816 where the five brothers are selling a tract of land in Franklin Co., VA that they jointly owned. Four of the brothers, Allen, James Berry and John signed the deed with their marks while Jeremiah did not. This indicates that the four who signed the deed were of legal age, or at least 21 years old, while Jeremiah would have only been 17 so he couldn't legally sign the deed. If this is the case, John, the 5th oldest child of 6, would have to have been born at least on the 17th of October 1795 or earlier for him to have been a legal adult.

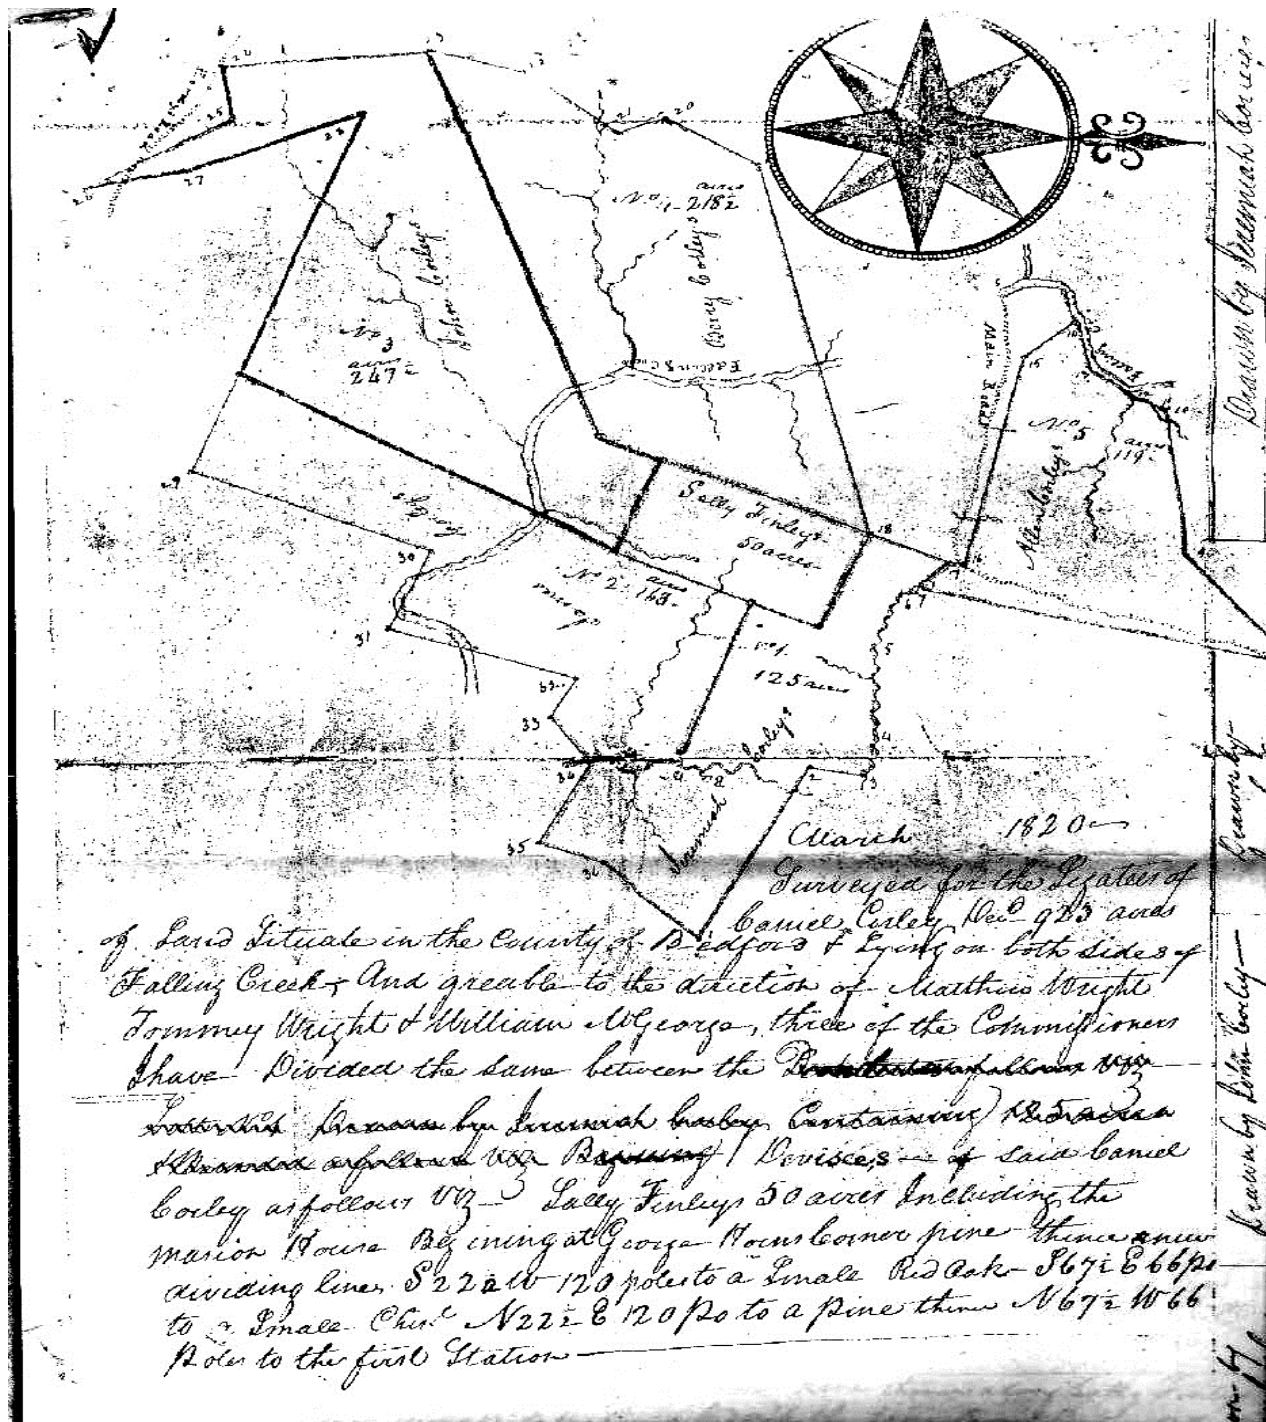

This Indenture made this seventh day of October eighteen hundred and sixteen between Allen Cullley, James Cullley, Perry Cullley, John Cullley and Jeremiah Cullley, Allen Cullley of Franklin County the rest of Bedford County and John Perry of Franklin County, Witnesses that said Cullleys for and in consideration of the sum of sixty three pounds current money of Virginia to them in hand paid the receipt whereof he with himself - acknowledge hath bargained and sold unto the said John Perry his heirs and assigns forever one certain tract of land containing sixty three acres more or less lying and being in the County of Franklin on Stonewall River and bounded as follows to wit, Beginning at the mouth of a branch, thence down the River as it meanders to a Poplar off then along Richmonds land N 33 E 58 poles to a Red Spruce and running on a path thence along the path as it meanders to a Red Oak off thence S 2 1/2 E 58 poles to a White Oak on a Branch, thence down the said Branch as it meanders to the first Station, containing sixty three Acres To have and to hold the said land, premises with all its appurtenances thenceforth belonging unto the said John Perry to him his heirs and assigns forever and the said Allen Cullley, James Cullley, Perry Cullley, John Cullley, & Jeremiah Cullley with hereby covenant and agree to and with the said John Perry that they will warrant and defend the said land from the claim or claims of all men or manner of Persons whatever unto the said John Perry his heirs and assigns forever. as witness our hands and seals this seventh day of October eighteen hundred and sixteen

We next find John when Caniel's estate is settled, and the land is divided amongst Sally's five sons. The following is the description of the portion "drawn" by John and a map showing the location of this land in relationship to his brothers' and mother's land.

John was still living at home with his mother in 1820, so his name does not appear on the census as only heads of households were listed by name.

On 27 June 1822 John Colley united in marriage with Miss Lucy Martin. According to the LDS Church's site, FamilySearch.Org's Records Search the document contain information as follows:

The 1830 Federal Census of Botetourt county reveals John Corley's household, which contained One male under age 5, one male between age 5 and 10, one male between age 30 and 40, one female under age 5 and one female between age 30 and 40.

John Cauley, Cawley or Corley was not enumerated on the 1850 census. What this census does reveal is that John's oldest daughter, Julia A Cawley, had married and moved away. She will be discussed later. Next, with the 1860 Federal Census we find that John Lucy and children had moved west to Illinois. Since they cannot be found on the 1850 census, this is the first census we have that names all the children still living at home. Between the 1840 and the 1850 censuses the following children had been born:

Jacob Cawley	Born in 1841
Elizabeth Jane CAWLEY	Born in 1844
Frances Caroline Cawley	Born in 1844
William L. Cawley	Born in 1845

Harkrider Given Truman Award for War Work

L. D. Harkrider, president of the General Malleable corp., was awarded the certificate of merit by President Harry S. Truman today. The presentation was made by Col. Theodore L. Dunn, Milwaukee, acting senior instructor of the Wisconsin organized reserve, before county and city officials and the employees and directors of the firm.

Presented for individual achievement during World War II, it is the highest possible award for a member of industry to receive and the first to be awarded in Waukesha and one of the few presented in the state.

"The president of the United States of America awards this Certificate of Merit to L. D. Harkrider," the greeting read, "for outstanding fidelity and meritorious conduct in aid of the war effort against the common enemies of the United States and its allies in World War II." The certificate was signed by President Truman on Oct. 30, 1947.

Employees See Presentation

More than 250 employees of the plant halted work during the presentation ceremonies in the finishing room of the plant. They stood, along with officials and guests, between loads of castings as A. O. Hinz, assistant secretary-treasurer of the company, briefly introduced Col. C. H. Clinton, Milwaukee. Col. Clinton, now retired, was a consultant of foundry production to the war production board.

"All foundries did a good job during the war and without them we could not have accomplished the fine record we did, nor have won the war as quickly as we did," Col. Clinton declared. "Of course, certain foundries did an outstanding job, and a meritorious service, WINS MERIT AWARD — L. D. Harkrider, president of General Malleable corp., today received the presidential certificate of merit for outstanding achievement and loyalty in war production.

"General Malleable, with Mr. Harkrider's leadership, was responsible in a large way toward bringing about a more efficient production program. He really did a swell job.

"While at the plant here during the war, I found all of the employees cooperating and anxious to do a better than good job—and they did it. It is through these efforts and the administration of the boss and Mr. Harkrider that he has been recognized in Washington.

"This certificate of merit award which is to be presented to Mr. Harkrider today is the highest award that can go to an individual in industry in the country. And it is in recognition of a job well done."

First War Production

Before presenting the award to Harkrider, Col. Dunn read a letter, written to the president of the company by R. B. Keesch secretary of the medal of merit board in Washington. It read:

"I take pleasure in forwarding to you herewith the president's certificate of merit which he has awarded you in recognition of your outstanding services in the production of malleable iron and aluminum castings for military vehicles during the recent war, which proved to be an invaluable contribution to the war efforts of the United States."

Chairman of the board is Owen J. Roberts. Other members of the group were Stephen Early, former press secretary to the late President F. D. Roosevelt, and D. Lawrence Groner.

"Butterflies in Stomach"

In accepting the award from Col. Dunn, Harkrider admitted "for the first time in my life I have butterflies in my stomach" and said in acknowledgement:

"I appreciate the honor which has been extended me by the president and I assure you that my behavior in the future will be such to fully merit the award. I recognize the responsibility that goes with an award of this kind.

"The colonel said 'we earned it.' I hope we did. And I wish to share this distinct honor with all of the men and women of General Malleable, and make certain that we live up to it.

"I have never felt more humble in my life. I suppose I should be jubilant, but somehow I feel only humbleness."

Sees Peacetime Job

Then, turning to the men and women of the plant, Harkrider continued:

"This is for something we have done in the past. We still have a big job to do. This recognition for our war effort should be a challenge to us to do a job for the economy of the United States and a world at peace. I earnestly hope that we can contribute to the well-being of the nation and world at peace in some manner, as we contributed during the war period. This job in peacetime which faces us today is just as important as that we accomplished five years ago during war."

Among those on hand for the ceremonies today were Frank Roberts, representing the common council, Police Chief Harold T. Owens, Police Sergeant Clarence Barrow, Dist. Atty. Homer Williams, Sheriff Leslie Rochteascher, Undersheriff Theodore C. Steffax, J. E. DeLong, president of the Waukesha Motor co., R. A. Russell, president of the Waukesha National Bank, and the directors of the company: B. C. Bugbee, Scott Lowry, Col. J. Tracey, Jr., and Hinz.

Jeremiah (Finley) Corley / Cawley

(b. ca 1799 - d. 1867)

Jeremiah Finley (Sally) was the youngest child of Sally Finley. His birth year has been calculated to have been 1799 based on date that Caniel Corley's estate was finally settled as he had to be 21 years old when the lands were divided. That section of Caniel's will reads as follows:

8thly; All the balance of my estate both real and personal, of whatsoever kind it may be after the payment of all my just debts and funeral expenses I give to Sally Finley and her six children namely Allen, Polly, James, Berry, John and Jeremiah to be by them peaceably enjoyed, until Jeremiah the youngest arrives to the age of Twenty One years at which time my will and desire is, that all my Lands, not herinbefore disposed of, be equally divided between the said Sally Finley's five sons, Namely Allen, James, Berry, and Jeremiah, except fifty acres, which I give to the said Sally Finley including the House & Plantation whereon I now live, during her life (except she should marry), and at her Death, the aforesaid fifty acres to be equally divided between her aforesaid five sons, and all the residue of my Personal Estate, at the aforesaid period, when the said Sally Finley's youngest son Jeremiah, shall arrive at the age of twenty one years, with the Increase there of, I desire may be equally divided amongst the said Sally Finley's six children namely, Allen, Polly, James, Berry, John & Jeremiah except a sufficiency to afford the said Sally Finley a comfortable support, which I give her during her life, and at her death to be equally divided amongst her six children as aforesaid. But in the event of the said Sally Finley's marrying the estate herein given to her is to be taken out of her possession and divided amongst he six children in the manner herinbefore directed, which I give to them and their heirs forever.

Nothing is known about him prior to the writing of Caniel Corley's will on the 19th of January, 1807. If we have accurately calculated Jeremiah's year of birth, he would have been 8 years old at that time. The first record we have of Jeremiah, following Caniel's will, is his marriage to Elizabeth Lacy on 14 October 1819 in Bedford County Virginia.

Between 1820 and 1830 we find two deeds executed by Jeremiah. First is one dated in 1816 where the five brothers sell land in Franklin Co. To John Persey also of Franklin Co. Note on this first deed that Jeremiah did NOT sign the deed. I assume this is due to his age of 17 at the time. He was not yet 21 or "Legal". The second deed dated in 1825 where the five brothers AND their mother, Sally, sell the 50 acres inherited by Sally from Daniel Corley. This second deed also documents the name change from Finley to Corley.

Our next glimpse of Jeremiah Cawley is on the 1830 Federal Census of Bedford Co., VA page 170. This is the first census where people are recorded in the order in which they lived; the family living next door was listed next on this census. We are still restricted to only having the names of the heads of households and numbers in appropriate columns representing their family members. Jeremiah's family in 1830 consisted of one male under the age of five, three males between age 5 and 10, one male between age 10 and 15, one male between age 30 and 40, two females under age 5, one female between age 30 and 40 and one female between age 60 and 70. This last female COULD have been Sally as she was born ca 1766 which would have made her 64 years old. Note some of the other names on the page: Bandy, Lacey and Siner. All of which are families that intermarried with the Finley-Corleys.

1862 must have been a year of sorrow for Jeremiah. The country was in the midst of a Civil War, and their oldest child, James, was serving in the Confederate Army. On the 13th of June, 1862 James Corley (Cawley) died from Chronic Diarrhea or Dysentery.

The final record we have for Jeremiah Cawley is his will which was signed 2 May 1866 and proved 23 July 1866. Although he only mentions his wife, but does not name her, and he only names one of his children, son Beverly, more can be learned from his estate papers.

the States erupted. On 13 March 1862 he enlisted in Company D of the 28th Virginia Volunteer Infantry (CSA) for the duration of the war. He did not see much action as it is indicated that on 31 May 1862 he was admitted to Chimborazo Hospital No. 2 in Richmond, Virginia with Bronchitis. The next record shows that he died on 13 June 1862. Records show that he died of Chronic Diarrhea which is known today as Dysentery. Few know that far more died during this war from diseases like Dysentery than from wounds received in battle.

The following is an account of the 28th Virginia Volunteer Infantry as found on Wikipedia.com: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/28th_virginia_infantry

The 28th Virginia Volunteer Infantry Regiment was an infantry regiment raised in Virginia for service in the Confederate States Army during the American Civil War. It fought mostly with the Army of Northern Virginia.

The 28th Virginia completed its organization at Lynchburg, Virginia, in June, 1861. Its members were raised in the counties of Botetourt, Craig, Bedford, Campbell, and Roanoke.

After fighting at First Manassas the unit was assigned to General Pickett's, Garnett's, and Hunton's Brigade, Army of Northern Virginia. It was active in the campaigns of the army from Williamsburg to Gettysburg except when it served with Longstreet at Suffolk. The 28th moved to North Carolina, then was on detached duty at Richmond. It fought at Cold Harbor, endured the battles and hardships of the Petersburg trenches, and was engaged in various conflicts around Appomattox.

The regiment totaled 600 men in April, 1862, and reported 40 casualties at Williamsburg at 47 at Seven Pines. It lost 12 killed and 52 wounded at Second Manassas, had 8 killed and 54 wounded during the Maryland Campaign, and, of the 333 engaged at Gettysburg, half were disabled. Many were captured at Saylor's Creek, and 3 officers and 51 men surrendered on April 9, 1865.

The field officers were Colonels Robert C. Allen, Robert T. Preston, and William Watts; Lieutenant Colonels Samuel B. Paul and William L. Wingfield; and Majors Michael P. Spesard and Nathaniel C. Wilson.

James and Mary "Polly" had 5 children as Follows:

- Francis Marion Cawley (James, Jeremiah, Sally) born ca 1842 in Bedford Co., VA, married Sophia Siner 20 Feb 1867 in Bedford Co., VA, died 30 June 1918 in Bedford Co., VA.

Francis Marion Corley/Cawley volunteered for Company B of the 58th Virginia Volunteer Infantry of the Confederate army on or about the 28th of September 1861 at Stewartsville, Bedford Co., VA. While serving he was captured at Spottsylvania Court House on 12 May 1864. He was held at the Federal prison at Fort Delaware, DE until 19 June 1865 when he was released after swearing an oath of allegiance to the U. S. government.

The following is a brief history of this regiment found at Wikipedia.com: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/58th_virginia_infantry

The 58th Virginia Volunteer Infantry Regiment was an infantry regiment raised in Virginia for service in the Confederate States Army during the American Civil War. It fought mostly with the Army of Northern Virginia.

The 58th Virginia completed its organization in October 1861. Most of its members were raised in Bedford, Franklin, and Amherst counties. After participating in Jackson's Valley Campaign the unit was assigned to Early's, W. Smith's, Pegram's, and J.A. Walker's Brigade, Army of Northern Virginia.

It was involved in many conflicts from the Seven Days' Battles to Chancellorsville, then was sent to Staunton from Winchester with prisoners during the Battle of Gettysburg. Later it was active in the Bristoe, Mine Run, and The Wilderness campaigns, the battle at Cold Harbor, and Early's Shenandoah Valley operations. The 58th ended the war at Appomattox.

It reported 50 casualties at McDowell, 53 at Harrisonburg, 77 at Cross Keys and Port Republic, 54 at Gaines' Mill, 9 at Fredericksburg, and 28 at Chancellorsville. On April 9, 1865, it surrendered with 2 officers and 63 men of which 22 were armed.

The field officers were Colonels Francis H. Board, Edmund Goode, and Samuel H. Letcher; Lieutenant Colonels Stapleton Crutchfield and John G. Kasey; and Majors George E. Booker and Edward T. Walker.

He Only Takes the Best

God saw she was getting tired, and a cure was not to be

So he put his arms around her and whispered, "Come to me."

With tear-filled eyes we watched her suffer and fade away.

Although we loved her deeply,
we could not make her stay.

A golden heart stopped beating, hard-working hands put to rest.

God broke our hearts to prove to us,
he only takes the best.

ANCESTORS OF SARAH “SALLY” FINLEY

As was stated in the first chapter, we know little about Sally prior to Caniel Corley’s will in 1807. We do know there was a Sarah Finley, daughter of Mary and John Armour Finley in Bedford County, Virginia in 1783. Since there is no PROOF that OUR Sally Finley was one-in-the-same, we can only look at the circumstantial evidence. Here’s what we know and how I interpret those facts:

WHAT WE KNOW

Our Sally Finley was born around 1766 as deduced from the 1810, 1820 and 1830 censuses of Bedford County, Virginia
1810, 1 female age 45+ (1766+45=1811)
1820, 1 female age 45+ (1766+45=1811)
1830, (Living with Jeremiah) 1 female age 60 - 69 (born 1761-1770)

Sally Finley was not married, but obviously lived with Caniel Corley and, presumably bore 6 children by Him.

There is no record of a Sarah Finley marrying in Bedford County, VA

Looking at what evidence we do have, I am inclined to Pencil In John Armour and Mary (surname not known) Finley as the parents of our Sarah “Sally” Finley.

HOW I INTERPRET THE FACTS AND HOW THEY RELATE TO JOHN ARMOUR FINLEY’S DAUGHTER, SARAH

Sarah Finley would have been born sometime around 1765 based on her probable age of 18 in 1783 when John Armour Finley used a deed to provisionally grant gifts to his 2 daughters, Sarah and Elizabeth.

So Sarah “fits” age wise.

Sarah Finley was given 2 cows, a calf, a feather be and and furniture, a large dutch over, a flax wheel, a woolen wheel & 1/2 his pewter to her “heirs and assigns Forever (excepting they should marry contrary to” her parent’s “liking if” she does then the above “mentioned is to be returned to us again)” By her parents, John Armour and Mary Finley on 25 August, 1783.

I deduce that Sarah decided just to live with Caniel and not marry him to avoid returning her father’s gifts.

There wouldn’t be if she never married Caniel.

The following is the deed from John Armour and Mary Finley to their daughters, Elizabeth and Sarah:

Going on the assumption that John Armour Finley WAS the father of our Sally, I will present what I have found on Ancestry.com and from other sources.

John Armour Finley was born ca 1740 most probably Lancaster Co., Pennsylvania, the pat that became Cumberland Co. In 1765 John Armour Finley inherited property from his "onckall" Robert's estate while living in Augusta Co., VA. On 9 April 1767 John A. Finley "of Albemarle" Co. bought 249 acres on both sides of Rownding Branch for £18. Three years after this purchase, he was buying land in Bedford Co., VA. Council of Colonial Records of Virginia show John Armour Fendley in court on 13 June 1770 having entered a Caveat against James Fendley for 400 Acres on Goose Creek, in Bedford Co. John Armour Fendley appeared in court and the defendant, James Fendley, was summoned but didn't appearing. It is then ordered that the a Patent for the said land be awarded to John Armour Fendley. He was awarded another land patent in 1775 as follows:

215 acres on Beaverdam was patented to John A. Findley on 1 May 1775

John Armour Finley was married two, possibly three times. His first wife, most probably Sally's mother, was Mary (Finley) possibly Caldwell as some researchers on Ancestry.com claim. I have found no records to support this claim, so I am entering the information as Possibly Mary Caldwell. John next married Elizabeth Cook on 14 May 1785 in Bedford Co., VA. In December of 1787 John Armour and Bethany Finley sold 215 acres on Beaver Dam in Bedford Co., VA to Avery King. Considering the closeness of dates (1785 and 1787) AND the fact that no other marriages for John Armour Finley are found, it is a probability that Bethany and Elizabeth were the same person.

John Amour Finley's children were as follows:

- SARAH born probably in Va. in the mid to late 1760s.
- ELIZABETH born probably in Va. in the mid to late 1760s.

John Armour Finley is identified as the oldest son of James Finley in 1785 when he refused to administer his father's estate. Samuel Finley was appointed in John's place, implying that Samuel MAY have been one of John's brothers.

James Finley was born ca 1720 most probably in the British Isles. He married Agnes (possibly) Reid. James is believed to have been residing in Cumberland Co., PA where a James Finley was found on the 1751 tax records. Cumberland County was formed in 1750 from Lancaster County, PA. A Rev. James Finley is found in the records of Lancaster Co.

The known and probable children of James and Agnes Finley were as follows: (Probable but not verified children are marked with an *)

- i. John Armour Finley, born probably in the mid 1740s, married (1) MARY (Caldwell?), (2) ELIZABETH ??? and (3) possibly BETHANY ???.
- ii. Elizabeth Finley married Hugh Carr, 15 September 1772, in Bedford Co., VA (Bedford Co. Marriage Bonds pg 15).
- iii. David Finley, born probably in or by 1748.
- iv. Robert Finley, born probably by 1750.
- v. Samuel Finley, born probably by 1750.

James Finley was living in Cumberland Co. PA. Cumberland Co. Tax lists available for 1751 (Lurgan Township), 1753, 1762 and 1763 showed a James Finley living in Guilford Township. Cumberland Co., Pa., records showed that on 28 April 1764, James Finley of Carlisle, administrator for Robert Finley, deceased, had sold to Samuel Rippey of Shippensburg, Cumberland Co., 500 acres in Guilford Twp., the property of the late Robert Finley. Robert was James's brother. By 1766 James was living in Augusta Co., VA.

William Gooch —

We first see evidence of James Finley in Bedford Co. in 1768 when he was exempted from paying levies for the future by the court in October of that year. Agnes found to be the wife of James when their spinster daughter, Elizabeth, was named on a marriage bond to Hugh Carr on 15 Sept. 1772.

James Finley sold two parcels of land in the mid 1770s. First on 18 Nov 1774 when he sold 161 acres to Samuel Finley "on waters of Cats Creek Beg. at Masons line," and second James Finley sold a parcel consisting of 243 acres to Samuel Finley on 18 Dec 1778. This property was referred to as "part of a tract of land granted to Robert Finley by patton (sic) 1771 being part of a tract of land of 323 a. in Bedford upon N. fork of Beverdam Creek . . ."

The first grantee deed found for James Finley was dated 20 July 1778 when he purchased 50 acres from George Walton of Prince Edward Co. This property was described as on a branch of Beaverdam Creek "being the land whereon the said James Fendley formerly lived and binding on the said Findleys own line". This implies that James had purchased land at an earlier date, but not record has been located for this earlier purchase.

James must have died sometime before 22 Aug. 1785, because his son John Armour Finley, the oldest son and heir at law of refused to administer his father's estate. Samuel Finley was granted appointed the administrator. It appears that James must have been a tailor by trade. Because his estate inventory contained items such as pins, chintz, cambrick, black silk, Irish linen, Sundry remnants of ribbon, tape, etc.

In researching this family on Ancestry.com, I have found quite a few trees that name James's as parents as Rev. James Finley, who was born 4 Dec 1687 in Dublin, Ireland and who died 10 Feb 1753 in Cumberland Co., PA, and Elizabeth Patterson, who was born 16 Mar 1690 in Dublin, Ireland and who died in 1755 in Franklin Co., PA.

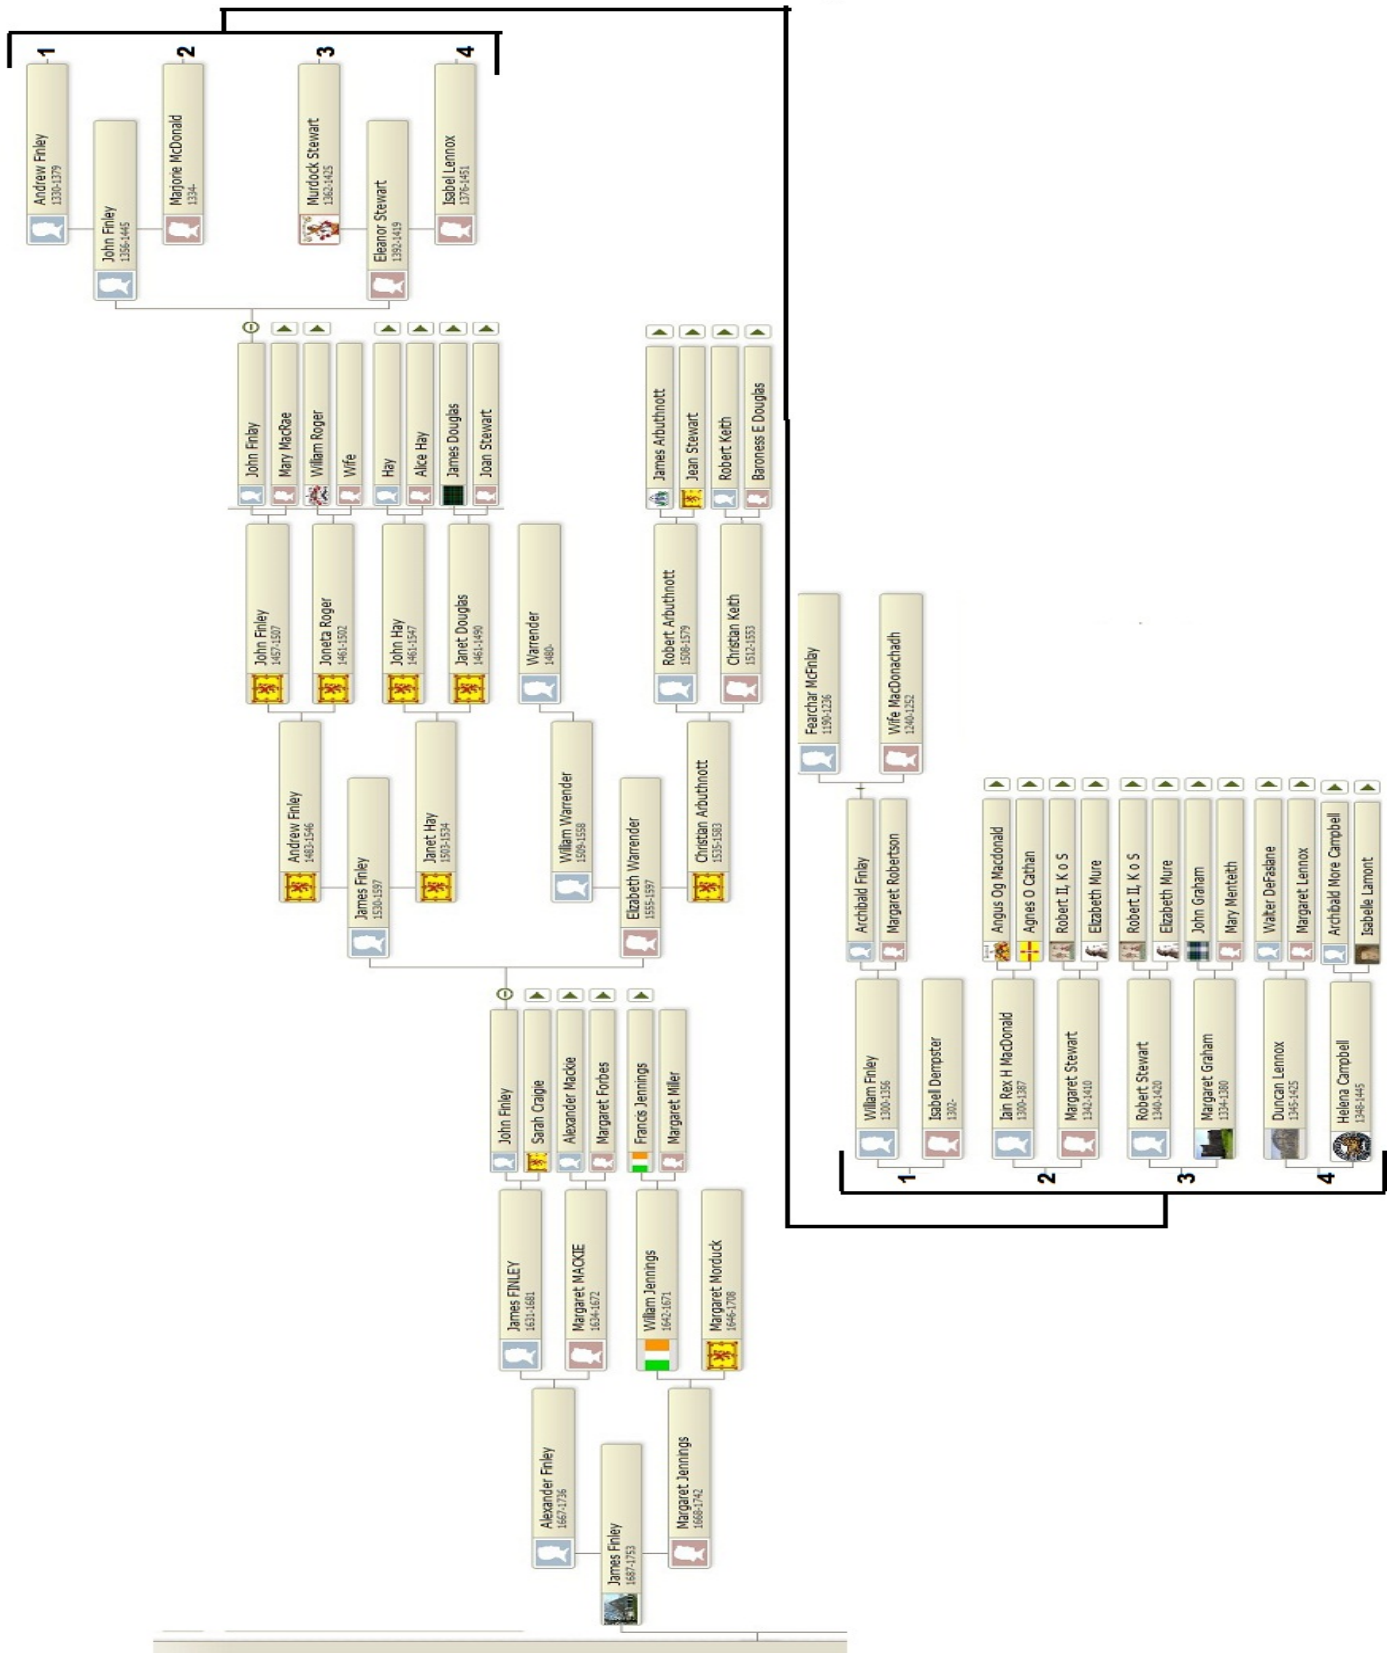

PLEASE NOTE: I DO NOT HAVE RECORDS SUPPORTING THIS. EVERYTHING FROM THIS POINT ON FURTHER BACK IS UNDOCUMENTED AND NEEDS FURTHER RESEARCH TO EITHER SUPPORT OR REFUTE.

One particular tree that I found on ancestry.com takes the Finleys all the way back to Fearcher McFinlay born 1190 in Braces Mar, Aberdeenshire, Scotland. This same tree also connects the Finleys to Robert Stewart, AKA Robert II King of Scotland and Robert Bruce King of Scotland, along with the MacDonalds, Campbells and Douglasses, all famous clans of Scotland.

This tree is found at <http://trees.ancestry.com/tree/12908292/family?fpid=540098226>

I again state that none of this has been documented by me, but I am including it as leads that future researchers may want to investigate.

CANIEL CORLEY

AND OUR CORLEY ANCESTORS

Caniel Corley (Valentine Corley, John Corley, Richard Corley, Richard Corley)

Although there is no direct evidence, it is strongly implied that Caniel Corley was Sally Finley's partner or mate, and that he fathered her 6 children. Consider the gifts he gave to Sally and her children in his will, the fact that every one of the children used the name Corley, or one of the variations of Corley as adults, and that Berry, when he married in WV listed "Daniel" as his father. (Daniel was most probably the clerk's interpretation of the name Caniel, and my own DNA test confirming that I am a descendant of a male in the Corley Family. With all of that in mind, I will continue under the assumption that Caniel Corley was the father of Allen Finley, Polly Finley, John Finley, Berry Finley, James Finley and Jeremiah Finley.

Our calculations indicate that Caniel Corley was born ca 1747 in Virginia. Little is actually known about his early life. The first record we have of Caniel Corley is a deed where Caniel Corley "Of Prince Edward County" first purchased land in Bedford Co., VA in 1783 1800 brings 2 documents showing Caniel Corley. First is the 1800 tax list of Bedford County, VA. When you look at this, you will see that Caniel Corley is listed showing two tithables, one slave and 6 horses. On the same page we find 2 of Caniel's sons, William and Salathiel. Tithables are males who were over 21 thus subject to pay taxes, or tithes, to the crown.

The second document is another land patents awarded to Caney Colley on the 26th day of August, 1800.

At a Court held for Bedford County at the Court House the 22nd day of June, 1807.

This Last Will and Testament of Caniel Corley Decd. was exhibited in court by Robert Hardy, Allen Corley, and John Pate, the Exors. therein named and proved by the oath of Wm. Pate John Rank and Alexander Brown the subscribing witnesses & ordered to be Recorded, And on the motion of the said Exors. who made oath, who together with Edmund Pate, Joseph Hardy and Thomas Wright their securities entered into and acknowledged their bond in the sum of One Thousand Pounds conditioned according to law. Certificate is granted them for obtaining a probate thereof in due form.

Caniel Corley had 2 families. He had six "legitimate" children with his wife, whose name is not known. His children by this marriage were:

- i William Corley was born about 1770 in VA, possibly Cumberland or Prince Edward Co., VA. He died in 1870 in Hancock Co., KY. William married Elizabeth Wright on 1 June 1798 in Bedford Co., VA. They had 13 children.
- ii Sallathiel Corley was born before 1775, possibly in Cumberland or Prince Edward Co., VA. He died about 1827 probably in KY. Salthien "Thiel" married Barbara Curry in 1799 in Pitsylvania Co., VA. They had at least 2 children.
- iii Beverly Corley was born about 1777, possibly Cumberland or Prince Edward Co., VA, he died 24 July 1856 in Bedford Co., VA. Beverly married Milley Mayse on 9 Aug 1809 in Bedford Co., VA. They had at least 4 children
- iv Jonathan Cheatham Corley was born about 1783 probably in Bedford Co., VA, he died 30 Oct 1861 in Shelby Co., IL, "Cheatham" Corley married Delilah Basham on 27 Dec 1807 in Franklin CO., VA. They had 12 children. Much is known about Jonathan Cheatham Corly and his descendants from the book A Genealogy of Corleys by Dwitt Clinton Corley (1927)

- v Lucy Corley was born about 1786 in Bedford Co., VA. She married James Siner on 17 Jan 1808 in Bedford Co., VA. They had 10 children.
- vi Pheba Corley was born about 1793 in Bedford Co., VA. She married John Adams on 27 July 1814 in Bedford Co., VA.

Caniel's 2nd family was with Sally Finley, who along with her descendants is the subject of this book. Since each is covered elsewhere in detail in this book, I will just list their names here:

- i Allen (Finley) Corley Caulley
- ii Mary / Polly Finley Corley (Thornhill)
- iii James (Finley) Corley Cauley
- iv Berry (Finley) Corley Cauley
- v John (Finley) Corley Cawley
- vi Jeremiah (Finley) Corley Cawley

Working back, or "up" the tree, we find Valentine Corley who was Caniel's father.

Valentine Corley (John Corley, Richard Corley, Richard Corley) was born about 1714 in Virginia. His date of birth was deduced from the following bit of indirect evidence. On 17 Nov 1735 John Corley and Valentine Corley signed a deed as witnesses. Since they would have had to have been adults to do this, this places their dates of birth sometime on or before 1714. On 24 Aug 1749, in New Kent Co., VA. Valentine and Robert Corley were both added to the list of tithables.

Valentine married Sarah (possibly Walker?) and fathered 8 known children as follows:

- i Agathy (Agatha) Corley who married Mr. Simmon per Valentine's will
- ii Ann Corley who married Henry Pigg. They had 6 children
- iii Asa Corley married Sarah "Sally" (Corley)
- iv Mary Corley who married Edward Duffor
- v Milly Corley who married Robert Anglia
- vi Caniel Corley was born ca 1747 and died in Jan 1807 in Bedford Co., VA. He had 2 mates, his wife, (Unknown), and his mistress was Sally Finley. He fathered 6 children with each of them for a total of 12 children.
- vii William Corley was born ca 1754 and died 24 Feb 1844 in Cumberland Co. VA. He married Martha (Corley) and fathered at least 5 children.
- viii James Corley was born between 1754 and 1759, and died 3 March 1795 in Cumberland Co., VA. He married Temperance Brown. They had 6 children.

We have bits and pieces of records for Valentine Corley, many of which are research notations made by a group of researchers who were digging into the history of the Corleys before I started about 35 years ago. They were Ila Eckstat, Cledus Corley, and Ge Lee Corley Hendrix. All of whom have gone on to meet the ancestors they so fervently face to face. Had it not been for their ground work, we would not know much of what we know about the Corleys today. I will forever be in their debt. The following are some of the facts that have been found.

On 30 May 1752 an attachment that had been obtained against Valentine Corley was dismissed by the court in New Kent Co., VA.

On 12 January 1747 Valentine acquired a land patent for 300 acres of land in Goochland County. The following is a copy of that patent.

To The Hon. the Speaker & Gent.^l of the house of Delegates
 The petitioners of the Inhabitants of Camb. County, Humbly sheweth, that whereas it hath pleased your Hon. House to publish a bill obliging the Inhabitants of the Common Wealth to pay the Teachers of the Christian Religion, & have required their Opinion concerning it, Your Pet^r therefore do most earnestly declare against it, Believing it to be contrary to the Spirit of the Gospel & the bill of rights. Certain it is that the Blessed Author of the Christian Religion not only maintained & supported his Gospel in the World for several hundred Years without the Aid of Civil Power, but against all the powers of the earth, The Excellent purity of its Precepts & the unblameable Behaviour of its Ministers
 With the divine Blessing made its way thro' all Opposition; Nor was it the better for the Church when Constantine the Great first Established Christianity by human Laws, true there was rest from persecution but how soon over the Church overran with error Superstition & Immorality, how unlike were Ministers now to what they were before both in Orthodoxy of Principle & Purity of Life, But in said Religion is taking its flight & that Paganism with its baneful Influence is spreading itself over the State, if so it must be owing to the Laws, not the want of Religious Establishment, let Your Laws punish the Vices & Immoralities of the times, & let there not be wanting such men in power & authority who by their Examples shall recommend Religion & by their faithfulness scourge the growing vices of the time, Let Ministers Manifest to the World if they are inwardly moved by the Holy Ghost to take upon them of office, that they seek the good of mankind & not worldly Interest, let their Doctrines be scriptural & their lives upright, Then shall Religion (if departed) speedily return Paganism with its dreadful consequences be removed, But what valuable purpose would such Assessment And? Would it introduce any more useful & faithful men into the Ministry surely Not, Those whom divine grace hath called to that work, will esteem it their highest Honour to do his pleasure, on the contrary it might call in many Rascals, whose chief Motive & design would be Temporal Interest, That Religious Establishment & Government is linked together, & that the latter cannot exist without the former is something new, Witness Pennsylvania where no such Establishment hath taken place, Their Government stands firm & which of the neighbouring States has better Ministers of brighter Moral & more upright Characters; The bill of rights which says that all men by nature are born equally free, so no Person in this Common wealth shall enjoy exclusive Privileges except for services rendered the State, Shall not those then who are not professors of the Christian Religion who were in this State at the passing of this bill, & others who have been invited since by the benefits it did out
 When they shall be obliged to support the Christian Religion, think that such obligation is a departure from the true spirit & meaning of it; Finally if such tax is against the Spirit of the Gospel if Christ for several hundred Years not only without the Aid of Civil Power but against all the powers of earth, supported & defended it, if Religious Establishment has never been a means of promoting the Gospel, if no more faithful men would be called into the Ministry, if it would not revive decayed
 Religion nor stop the Growth of Paganism, nor serve the purpose of Government, if against the bill of Rights Your Petitioners trust that the Wisdom & Justice of Your Hon. House will have them entirely given matters of Religion & the Manner of supporting its Teachers & they shall ever pray

Valentine Corley (seal)

Valentine Corley was the son of John Corley.

John Corley was born ca 1695 in Virginia, possibly Orange or New Kent County. He died in March of 1743. John was married and the researchers on Ancestry.com attribute 2 women as his wife. One is Margaret Catlett and the other is Katherine Curtis. No records of John Corley's marriage seems to have survived these nearly 300 years, so his wife's name is destined to remain a mystery.

John and his wife had at least 5 children as follows, and probably more.

- i John Corley was born ca 1719 or earlier in Virginia. His wife's name is not known but he fathered at least 6 children. One son was named Catlett Corley. He migrated to Edgfield Co., SC starting the large clan of Corleys in the deep south. Alabama's Gov. George Corley Wallace was one of his descendants.
- ii Valentine Corley was born before 1720 and died in Jan 1803 in Cumberland Co., VA
- iii Robert Corley was born ca 1721 in Orange Co., VA and died between 1772 and 1778 probably in Granville Co., NC. He married Sarah Petty (Petty) and they had at least 5 children. One of his sons was also named Catlett Corley.
- iv Richard Corley was born ca 1723 and died about 1805 in Edgefield CO., SC. He was married to (Unknown). It is believed he fathered 9 children, of whom one was named Catlett.
- v William Corley was born about 1727

Unfortunately I have NO copies of original, primary source documents for John Corley. All the notations I have come from the earlier research of others and/or books. Some of which are below.

John Corley "of Hanover" purchased 312 acres in Orange Co on both sides of Mine Run on 18 Nov 1735 from William Eddins of Orange Co. The property was bonded on the west by Hugh Jones and on the north by Pike Run. On the previous day William Eddins had sold an additional 150 acres on Robertson's line to Shurley Whatley of St. Paul's Parish, Hanover, "as agreed in the presence of John Corley and Valentine Corley."

A Richard Corley died ca. 1736 & that a John Corley did sell property in 1740 to Henry Willis, Esq. who had filed suit against Richard Corley's Estate prior to 1736 (Henry Willis Mag. of Court) Records show that John Corley died by February 1743 without making a will. Certificate for Letters of Administration on the estate of John Corley dec'd were granted Anthony Strother on 25 March 1743, stating that "said Corley has been dead above 30 days. Strother gave his administrator's bond for f150 and the appraisal of John's estate was returned on 13 April 1743. The estate included a parcel of books, stock etc. and the total value was f20:11:10. On 28 June 1744 Mr. Anthony Strother, "Administrator & principal creditor," gave an account of the estate and listed "one bed in hands of deceased's widow," among other items.

John Corley was the son of Richard Corley.

Richard Corley (III) was probably born between 1670 and 1675 possibly in New Kent Co., VA or possibly in England, where it is believed the family originated. Richard is believed by many researchers to have been married to Rebecca Austin. No documents have been found to support this claim, but the claim is attributed to the use of the name Austin as a given names in the Corley family. Richard Corley died ca 1736.

The known children of Richard Corley (III) were:

- i. John Corley was born ca. 1695 possibly in Hanover County, VA.
- ii. James Corley was born 1700 possibly in Hanover County, VA. He was married to Sarah (Corley). They had 6 known children. Some researchers say he died in 1811.
- iii. Rebecca Corley was born ca. 1710 possibly in Hanover Co., VA
- iv. Richard Corley was born ca 1719 possibly in Hanover County, VA, and died 19 July 1790 in Culpepper County, VA. He married Effarilla Curtis and they had 9 children.

(It is unclear if there were 2 generations of Corleys named Richard, or 3 generations named Richard. If there were only 2, then Richard Corley III becomes Richard Jr and Richard Corley Jr. & Sr. Are combined. I am writing this under the assumption there were 3 generations of Richard Corleys)

Richard Corley (III) was most probably the son of Richard Corley Junior.

Richard Corley, Jr. was born ca 1653 probably in England, and died ca 1708 in either New Kent or Hanover Co., VA. His wife's name is not known. He fathered at least 2 children as follows:

- i. John Corley was born ca 1675 , he is believed to have died sometime between 1723 and 1729. His wife's name is unknown. He had at least one known child named Francis Corley.
- ii. Richard Corley (III) was born between 1670 and 1675, and he died ca 1736.

Richard Corley, Jr. Was the son of Richard Corley (Sr.).

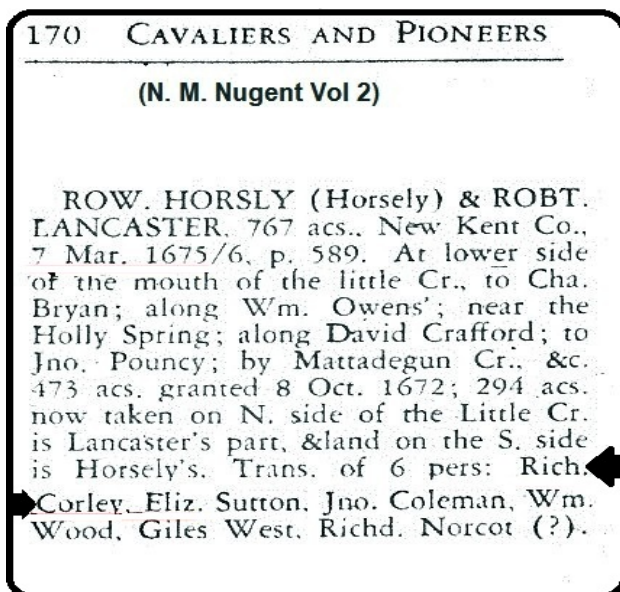

Richard Corley (Sr.) was born ca 1620 probably in England and died ca 1708 in Blisland, New Kent, VA. His wife's name is not known. He had at least 6 children as follows:

- i John Corley was born ca 1650
- ii Edward Corley was born ca 1651
- iii James Corley was born ca 1652
- iv Richard Corley was born ca 1653 and died ca 1708
- v Robert Corley was born ca 1657
- vi Francis Corley was born ca 1659

Unfortunately I have NO copies of original, primary source documents for any of the Richard Corleys. All the notations I have come from the earlier research of others and/or books. Some of which are below.

It is unclear how many Richard Corleys there were in our direct line. There were at least 2 and probably 3. It is nearly impossible to sort one Richard's records from another, so I will be posting ALL records for ALL Richard Corleys together.

The following entry in Nugent's Cavaliers and Pioneers Vol II page 170 shows that Richard Corley was one of 6 people transported to Virginia Colony by Horseley and Lancaster, dated 7 March 1675, incating he came sometime before that date.

Another researcher wrote "He was named Richard Corley in a Land Grant in 1675 as owning 80 acres in deep forests along Crumps Creen near Pamunkey River on the outer most fringes of the settlement in the Virginia Colony. In 1677 he and his neighbors opposed the yearly taxes extracted by England.

Land records show he was named in various entries in parish records as the name changed from Blisland to New Kent in 1671, then in 1678 St. Peters Parish was formed from Blisland and in 1704 St. Paul's Parish was formed in New Kent." The following are extracted from St. Paul's Vestry Book.

ORIGIN OF THE CORLEY FAMILY & NAME

Lastly, I've been asked many times where the Corley's originated in Ireland. Needless to say, I informed them that we are most likely ENGLISH and not Irish. Exactly where we originated in England is still up for much discussion, as is just HOW the surname Corley came into existence.

First, we need to understand that there were 2 main ways the English Surnames originated. One way was to identify someone by their occupation. Baker, Cooper, Smith, Tanner, Warden, Minter, Tailor, etc were all ways to identify a person by their occupation. Frederick the Baker became Frederick Baker. The second people were identified was by where they lived. Hill, Scot(land), Craige, Chester, Wells, York, Lincoln, Wiltshire, Moor, etc. were all from locations. I even had a student once whose surname was Shropshire, for the English county or shire. William of the Hill became William Hill.

In my research I've discovered there is a village on the northwestern outskirts of Coventry named Corley. This is a very old village that was established when King William I, the Conqueror commissioned a census of all his new possessions, called the Domes Day Book. The book was commissioned in 1085 and the 1st draft was completed in 1086. My wife and I visited Corley a few years ago and we found a quaint, sleepy little village in Warwickshire, England.

It is my belief that the family originated in or near this ancient English village. Could "Richard from Corley" HAVE become Richard Corley? Who Knows!

Family Name History

Corley

The English surname Corley is local in origin, being one of those names derived from the place where a man once lived or where he once held land. In this instance, the surname is Old English in origin and means simply "good with cranes or herons" and indicates that the original bearer of this surname probably came from an area of woodland close to water. The suffix -ley was typical of many English surname endings. It was common practice in the Middle Ages to name a person according to where they lives as it provided a simple means of identification for his neighbors; and easy way to distinguish him from others in the community.

Corley is an old Warwickshire place name and the following is the entry for it in the Domesday Book of 1086: "Goodwin holds one hide in Corley from the King. Land for two ploughs. In Lordship 1; 3 slaves; 4 villagers and 2 smallholders with 2 ploughs. Meadow 6 acres; woodland which has the fourth part of a league in length and the fourth part of half a league in width. The value was 10 shillings; now 30 shillings. Goodwin also held it freely before 1086" The Domesday book was a record of the lands of England made by order of William I (1027-1089)

BRAZON OF ARMS: Gales, a bear argent, muzzled of the first, collared and chained or supporting a ragged staff of the second the chain reflexed over the back and encircling the staff. On a chief the third three cross crosslets of the first: the shield ensigned with a mural crown gold.

Translation: The bear was representative of ferocity and a powerful defender against the enemy. The cross denotes Christian faith and love of God.

Motto: Non Sans Droict

Translation: Not Without Right

THE SINER FAMILY

The Siner family has been included in this book because several Siners inter-married with the Corleys. The following is a list of Siners who married Corley / Cawley / Cauleys. I will attempt to tie each one of them to John Siner, Sr., the patriarch of the Siner Family. Then I will delve into John Siner's history and ancestors in more depth.

- i. James Siner married Lucy Corley on 01/17/1808 in Bedford Co., VA

The following is the history of the 1st Virginia Regiment, up to the point that John Siner's enlistment term ended. It is from My Revolutionary War at <http://www.myrevolutionarywar.com/states/va-01.htm>

The 1st Virginia Regiment was authorized by the Virginia Convention of July 17, 1775, as a provincial defense unit composed of six musket and two rifle companies under the command of Patrick Henry. Each company was to consist of 68 enlisted men, with officers to include a captain, lieutenant and ensign (second lieutenant). Six of the companies were armed with muskets, and two with rifles.

In September, the companies began arriving in Williamsburg from the surrounding counties where each was recruited. The regiment encamped behind the College of William and Mary where the men were trained in military drill and maneuvers. On December 28, 1775, the Continental Congress in Philadelphia recommended that each regiment should have 10 companies, and the 1st Virginia soon raised two more musket companies.

The First, along with the Second Regiment saw service in the Tidewater area fighting the troops of Virginia's Royal Governor, Lord Dunmore. Dunmore raised two Loyalists regiments and a small unit made up of runaway slaves to reclaim the wayward government of the colony. Two British Grenadier companies soon augmented his force. Members of the 1st Virginia engaged Dunmore's troops at Hampton, Jamestown and Norfolk. On December 9, 1775, three companies from the First joined the 2nd Virginia Regiment in defeating Dunmore's troops at the Battle of Great Bridge near Norfolk. Dunmore made several more attempts to gain a stronghold on the colony but in August 1776 he abandoned Virginia.

On February 15, 1776, the Regiment was accepted into the new Continental Line authorized by Congress in Philadelphia. At this time, Patrick Henry, commander of all the Virginia forces, was given a Continental commission as a Colonel, commanding only the 1st Virginia. Recognizing this as a demotion, Henry refused the commission and resigned effective February 28, 1776. To protest Henry's demotion the officers in the 1st Virginia asked to be discharged but Henry persuaded them to stay with the army.

The battle of Harlem Heights

Between February and August 1776, the First Virginia trained in Williamsburg with other regiments under the command of General Andrew Lewis. On August 16, the Regiment began the long march north to join General Washington's Grand Army, in New York City. Before leaving, the men of the 1st and 2nd Regiments were asked to re-enlist for 3 years, or for the duration of the war. Although most of the men of the 2nd refused to sign up for such a long term, nearly all of the 1st Virginia re-enlisted.

Harlem Heights

On September 15, 1776, the First Virginia, along with the 3rd Virginia joined Washington's army near Harlem Heights, New York. Having recently suffered the humiliation of being chased out of New York City and subsequently out-maneuvered by the British, Washington's Continentals looked to the Virginians for new strength and hope. The following day three companies of the Virginians joined Lt. Col. Thomas Knowlton's Connecticut Rangers in reconnoitering the enemy lines. Running into a detachment of British, the Continentals soon found themselves in heated battle and managed to force the British to withdraw. Maryland troops joined the battle, but Washington soon called his troops back, not willing to risk a full-scale engagement. During the engagement, Maj. Andrew Leitch of the 1st Virginia was mortally wounded, as was Lt. Col. Knowlton. The success and heroism shown by the Continental troops in this relatively small engagement was a much needed morale boost for the Americans.

In order to avoid a full-scale engagement Washington continued to retreat from Howe's slow-moving British redcoats. On the night of October 21, 600 Continentals, with 160 men from the 1st and 3rd Virginia Regiments attacked a Tory force of about 500 men including Robert Rogers's "Queen's American Rangers." The Tories suffered 20 killed and 36 captured, while the Continentals claimed only 12 wounded.

Trenton and Princeton

By the end of December 1776, Washington's immediate army had shrunk from casualties, disease, desertion, and the termination of enlistments to about 2,500 men fit for duty. In the hope of seizing another morale victory, if not a strategic one, Washington decided on a daring attack on Hessian troops at Trenton, New Jersey. In the early morning hours of December 26, Washington's small band, including the First Virginia, crossed the Delaware River, reaching the outskirts of Trenton about 8:00 am. The surprised Hessians tried in vain to hold off the Americans, but by 9:45 am the Germans were forced to surrender.

Within a few days of the American victory at Trenton, British troops marched to the town to engage Washington's small army. The two armies began firing on each other across a creek but darkness soon put an end to the fighting. When dawn arrived the next morning, the British were surprised to find that Washington's army had quietly pulled out in the dark. The Continentals had marched all night to the village of Princeton where they stumbled into a British force just setting out for Trenton. The Americans were divided into two groups, with the Virginians part of Green's division under Brig. Gen. Hugh Mercer, guarding the road to Trenton. The remaining Americans proceeded to attack Princeton from the west.

Col. Mawhood's two British regiments had already departed Princeton when Mercer's troops were spotted behind them. The British turned back toward Princeton and engaged Mercer's troops. With about 300 men on each side facing one another, the British soon charged with bayonets. Mercer was one of the first to fall victim to the bayonet charge. Twenty one year old Captain John Fleming of the First Virginia rallied the Regiment but was soon killed, and 18 year old second lieutenant Bartholomew Yates was mortally wounded.

Confusion ensued for the Americans, with the Virginia regiments in the heaviest fighting and suffering the most casualties. With the appearance of Washington on the battlefield the Americans rallied, forcing the British to flee, throwing down their weapons as they ran.

During the heavy fighting Lieutenant Yates was shot in the side, and as he lay on the ground, the British shot him again in the chest, bayoneted him 13 times and clubbed him in the head. He survived for a week before dying. A tribute to Capt. Fleming read: "(he) behaved and died as bravely as a Caesar would have done, ordering his men to dress [form a line] before firing, though the enemy was within 40 yards of him, advancing fast with abusive threats what they would do. However, they were mistaken, and most of them cut to pieces."

The 1st Virginia spent the winter with Washington's army at Morristown, New Jersey. The fifteen Virginia Regiments had a total of 2,925 men fit for duty, averaging less than 200 men each. Troop strength was low because of expired enlistments, disease, and battle casualties. The 1st Virginia could only muster 64 privates present and fit for duty, and all troops were in need of clothing and other necessities.

Washington's troops spent the winter and spring recruiting and rebuilding the army. The main British Army under General Howe in New York made several forays into New Jersey. Washington waited for Howe to move out of New York, expecting him to move his army north to join Brig. Gen. John Burgoyne near Albany. Instead, Howe eventually sailed his troops to Head of Elk, Maryland where they began to march on Philadelphia.

On August 24, 1777, Washington's Army of 16,000 regulars and militia marched through Philadelphia to Wilmington, Delaware, and by September 11, the two armies were poised for battle near Brandywine Creek, Pennsylvania.

Howe divided his force for a frontal attack on the Americans and a flanking attack on the American right. Washington tried to counter the British flanking movement, ordering Green's division, including the 1st Virginia, to support the outflanked Americans under Brig. Gen. Sullivan. Greene's men covered almost four miles in 45 minutes, arriving to find Sullivan's men retreating in a rout. Greene's Virginians opened their line to allow the panicked Americans through and then held off the advancing British to allow Washington's Army to fall back and retire in order. Greene's troops held out against a British force three times larger until nightfall, preventing the British from destroying the entire American army.

Although Washington's Army had been outmaneuvered at Brandywine, they had fought a larger British force and managed to hold them off until dark. The American's spirits were high and Washington was anxious for another chance to engage the enemy. The British continued their march to Philadelphia, with Washington looking for an opportunity to make a stand against them.

On September 15, he marched his army into battle formation before the British but a severe storm rendered the American's ammunition useless and drove them from the field. The British entered Philadelphia unopposed on September 26.

Continuing to look for a favorable opportunity to engage the British, Washington decided to attack a large British force garrisoned at Germantown, Pennsylvania. Washington devised a plan that included dividing his force into several divisions that would march separately through the night and attack from different directions simultaneously at dawn on October 4.

As part of Muhlenberg's Brigade, the First Virginia arrived an hour after Sullivan's troops began the attack on the main British camp. A heavy fog made the complex plan even more confusing and some of the American troops even began to fire on one another.

When the fighting started, a small British force retreated into the Chew House, a heavy stone manor that proved almost impervious to canon attack. A large part of the American force was delayed trying to force the British inside the house to surrender. In the mean time Sullivan and Greene's troops managed to attack the main British force, with Greene's Virginians driving through the British line in a bayonet charge that carried to the enemy's camp. Prisoners were taken by the First Virginia, but with the rest of the American attack still in confusion or stalled at the Chew House, the Virginians found themselves surrounded by the enemy and forced to fight their way out. The Virginians lost 100 prisoners they had taken, and in the process, nearly all of the Ninth Virginia Regiment was captured. The battle ended with the Americans withdrawing and Greene's division holding off a determined British attack as the Americans fell back.

Over the next two months, both Washington and Howe looked for favorable opportunities to renew the fighting but neither found one to his liking.

The winter of 1777-78 saw the 1st Virginia Regiment with Washington's Army at Valley Forge. The troops built log huts and many of the officers of the Virginia Regiments were sent home during the winter to recruit for their vastly under-strength units. The Continental Army at Valley Forge, including the men of the First Virginia, were taught the new American Drill under the command of Maj. Gen. Baron von Steuben. During the winter, Howe returned to England, and Gen. Henry Clinton took command of the British in Philadelphia.

By June, Clinton decided to move his army back to New York City, and Washington saw an opportunity to take on the British with his newly trained Army.

On June 28, Washington ordered Maj. Gen. Charles Lee with 2,000 men to attack the rear of the marching British column. Lee's force joined by 1,500 Americans under Brig. Gen. Charles Scott, soon found themselves facing the entire British Army. General Lee retreated while the Americans under Scott held until surrounded and then they too retreated in good order. Falling back about two miles, the retreating Americans ran into General Washington riding ahead of the main American Army.

Washington managed to halt the retreat and form the Americans into a line of battle while more troops arrived to extend the line on high ground. When the British arrived they made several attacks but without coordination each was repulsed. In Sterling's Brigade, the 1st Virginia, alongside the 1st and 3rd New Hampshire Regiments, attacked the 42nd Royal Highland Regiment. Both sides exchanged volleys at short range with the Highlanders forced to retreat from the field. Several men of the First Virginia were killed, including Maj. Edmund Dickinson, while the Highlanders sustained heavy casualties.

By the end of the afternoon, heat had also taken the lives of men on both sides of the field. Both armies rested overnight and Clinton moved the British on toward New York early the next morning. With the Americans standing up to and repulsing the British the battle was considered a great victory for Washington and his Army.

By September 1778, the entire Virginia Continental Line was reduced in strength due to the hardships of campaign and disease and the 3-year enlistments of many of the soldiers was about to expire. A board of officers met at White Plains, New York to consolidate the 15 Virginia regiments to 11 regiments. The remains of the 9th Virginia, which had suffered the capture of many of its men at Germantown, was absorbed into the First, but this only filled six of the prescribed eight companies.

In May of 1779, and again in September 1779, the Virginia Regiments were consolidated to create regiments of acceptable strength. The 1st Virginia was consolidated with the 10th and later the 5th, 7th, 11th Regiments. On May 7, Washington ordered Col. Richard Parker, commander of the 1st Virginia to return to the state to recruit new troops to reinforce Brig. Gen. Benjamin Lincoln in Charleston, South Carolina. At the same time, the men of the 1st Virginia were placed under the temporary command of Col. William Davies in Parker's absence.

Stony Point

By the summer of 1779, the war in the north had become a stalemate, with Clinton and the main British Army quartered in New York and Washington's main army at various points outside the city. Washington decided to have his newly formed light infantry attack a British fort at Stony Point, New York. Under the command of Brig. Gen. Anthony Wayne, 1,500 Americans, including men from the 1st Virginia and other Virginia Regiments, attacked the fort in the early morning hours of July 16. Using only their bayonets, the Americans captured the fort and 400 British troops in just fifteen minutes. Fifteen Americans were killed in the attack, including a private from the First Virginia.

In August, members of the 1st Virginia took part in another raid on a small British fort at Paulus Hook, New Jersey. Major Henry Lee and his cavalry, supported by handpicked infantry, including 21 men from the 1st and 10th Virginia, captured 158 British at the fort during the daring raid. The rest of the 1st Virginia was called on to support Lee as his force made their return through enemy territory.

Following the end of his service in the army, John Siner and his brother, Benjamin Siner were living in Culpepper Co., VA as is evident by their being listed in the Culpeper County Classes, 1781, a kind of draft which is described as follows:

The Legislature, sitting in session between 16 October 1780 and 2 January 1781, passed "An act for recruiting this state's quota of troops to serve in the Continental Army" [Hening 10:326-327] which called for each county to supply a specific number of men. The act further called for the county militia to be divided into equal units, or classes, and one man to be chosen by lot to serve 'during the war, or for the term of three years'. If the quota was not thus recruited, one man was to be drafted from each class. Culpeper County was responsible for furnishing 106 men.

Both John Syner and Benjamin Siner can be found on the 1790 Tax list of Culpepper Co., VA.

Finally, I was able to find a marriage record citation for Joseph Sineth and (Mrs) Mary Small in Middlesex Co., Va on 31 Oct, 1750.

THE THORNHILL FAMILY

The following provides information on the ancestors of James Thornhill, who married Polly Finley / Corley.

James Thornhill was born ca 1781 in Bedford Co., VA and was the son of (Capt.) William thornhill and his wife, Sarah ???. James died before 4 July 1844 in Virginia, possibly Bedford of Roanoke Co.

(Capt.) William Thornhill was born ca 1735 possibly in Culpeper Co., VA. William was married twice, but neither wife's names are known. William died while on a trip to Hawkins County, in present day Tennessee on 30 Nov. 1789. His will was recorded in Hawkins county. Unfortunately, I do not have a copy of this will, but I have seen it summarized by other researchers as follows:

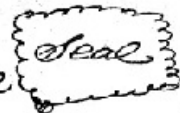

William Thornhill's Will was witnessed by John Payne and Raully Dodson in Hawkins County. The will was first seen in court in Hawkins, North Carolina, later Tennessee. The will mentions wife, Sarah, and son William Thornhill who were named as executors. This will was admitted to Bedford, VA County Court, in Aug 1890, Will Bk 2, pg.118

The within Last Will & Testament of William Thornhill deceased was proved in open Court by the Oaths of John Bayne and Paulley Dodson here subscribing Witnesses thereto Teste Thomas Hutchings C. H. C.

William's will mentions sons John, Ezekiel and Leonard who were adults in about 1795. They are listed as "not inhabitants of this country." (Did they live in the territories or in what became the Louisiana Purchase?) Rachel, who was married, was not listed. William, Jr., Armstead and Reuben are listed. It is the opinion these older children were from William's first wife, and they may have been born in Culpeper County, VA. Children Edna, Bryant, Barnett (Barnabus or Barney), James and Sarah were listed as infants, or not adults when their father died, and by 1795. Some children may be missing.

William Thornhill, Sr. is reported to have served in the Revolutionary War, but no direct evidence of this service has been found. The claim of his service is being disputed by the D.A.R.

William Thornhill, Sr. fathered 12 children by 2 wives. His children are listed below in one large group as it is not clear which children belonged to his first wife and which belonged to his second wife.

- i Ezekiel Thornhill
- ii Reuben Thornhill — 1835
- iii Sarah Thornhill

iv	William Thornhill	1752 – 1850
v	Leonard Thornhill	1755 – 1816
vi	John Thornhill	1757 –

ix	Armstead Thornhill	1775 – 1840
x	James Thornhill	1781 – 1844
xi	Bryant Thornhill

(Capt.) William Thornhill, Jr. was the son of Bryant Thornhill and ??? Thomson.

Bryant Thornhill (Jr.) was born ca 1700 at or near Richmond, VA.. All we know of his wife is she was Ms Thomson and is believed to have died prior to his own death on 28 or 8 Dec 1779 in Culpeper Co., VA.

The will of Bryant Thornhill is found in Culpeper County, Will Book B, page 379, and is dated Dec.28, 1779. The will names children Joseph, John, Reuben, William, Bryant, and Elizabeth and was probated 17 April 1780.

Bryant and Ms Thomson had at least 6 children as follows:

i	William Thornhill	1735 – 1789
ii	Bryant Thornhill	1740 – 1770
iii	Joseph Thornhill	1742 – 1782
iv	John Thornhill	1746 – 1801
vi	Reuben Thornhill	1748 –
vii	Elizabeth Thornhill	1750 –

Bryant Thornhill was to son of Bryant Thornhill (Sr.) and Elizabeth Jane Phillips (1676 – 1726).

Bryant Thornhill (Sr.) was born ca 1675 and died in 1709 in Richmond Co., VA. He and Elizabeth Jane (Philips) had at least 3 children as follows:

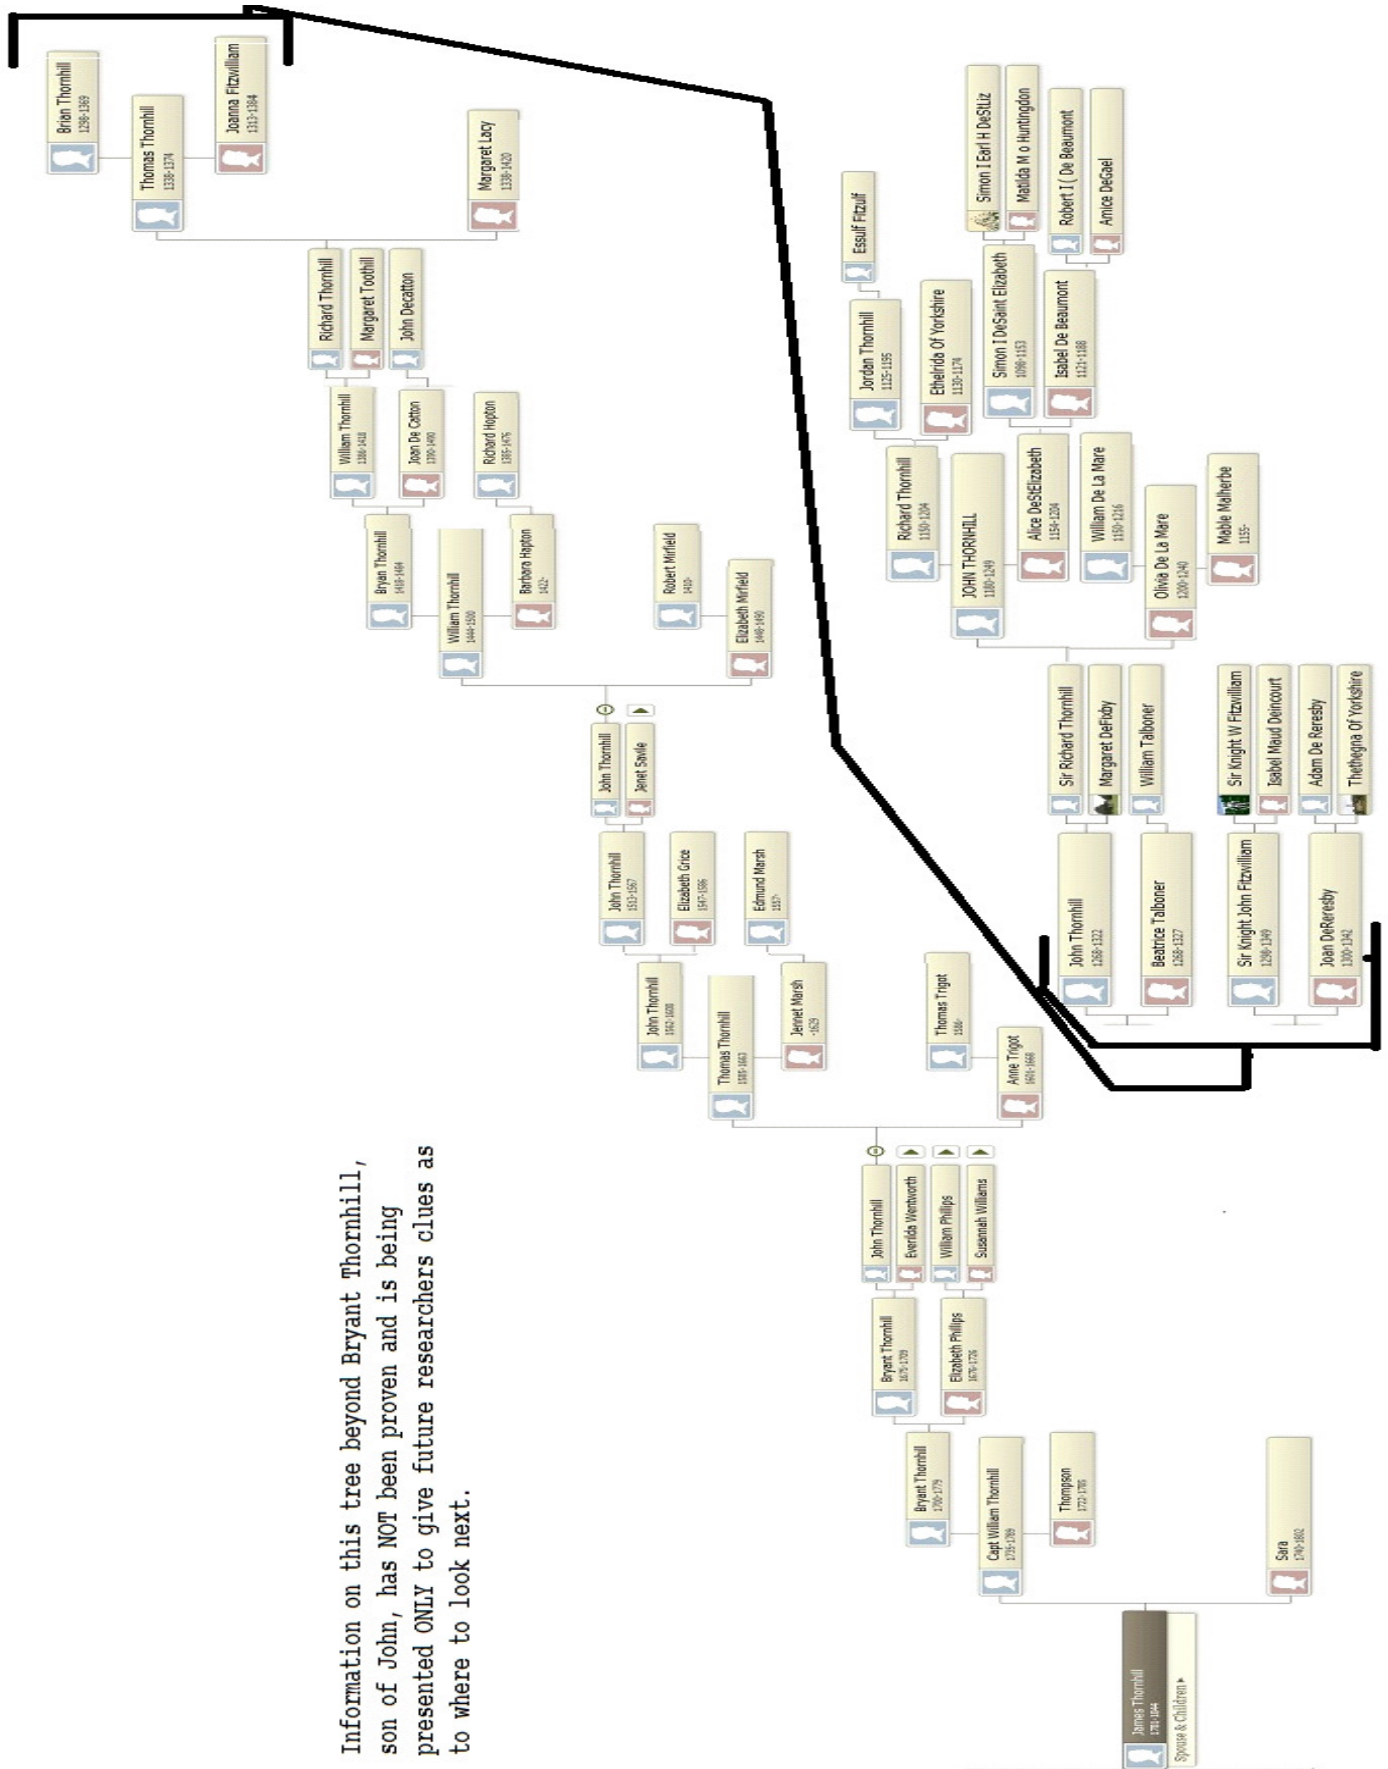

i	Joseph Thornhill	– 1781
ii	Reuben Thornhill	– 1797
iii	Bryant Thornhill	1700 – 1779

As far as verifiable records, this is where the Thornhill trail ends. I do say that while researching for this section, I found one Thornhill family tree on Ancestry.com that takes the Thornhills back 17 more generations to Essulf Fitzwulf, the father of Jordan Thornhill (1125-1195). I am including that tree along with a link to it on Ancestry.com

<http://trees.ancestry.com/tree/17647776/family?cfpid=823592492>

BE INFORMED THAT ANYTHING PRIOR TO BRYANT THORNHILL, SON OF JOHN THORNHILL, IS NOT PROVEN. I AM INCLUDING IT TO AID FUTURE RESEARCHERS WHO WILL NEED TO EITHER CONFIRM OR REFUTE CLAIMS IT MAKES.

Information on this tree beyond Bryant Thornhill, son of John, has NOT been proven and is being presented ONLY to give future researchers clues as to where to look next.

The Asbury Family

The Asbury Family has close ties with Sally's kids.

James Asbury & Nancy Wright were married 11/13/1792 in Bedford County, VA.

Little is known by this researcher about James' ancestry. He was born about 1770 and died 9/24/1827 in Bedford County, VA.

His will written February 13, 1827 and filed for probate September 24, 1827 recorded in Bedford County VA Will Book 5, Page 426.

Two of those children married Finley/Cauley/Cawley men. Mary "Polly" (d. 5/4/1849 in Monroe County, VA) married James L. Cawley between 1811 and 1818. Rhoda married Berry on 1/8/1816 in Bedford County, VA.

The Peters & Pettrey Families

This section is included because it represents information discovered during the recent research of the Cauley family.

Berry Cauley was legally married twice. First to Rhoda Asbury in 1816 and second to Elizabeth Palmer Peters in 1864. Berry's marriage to Elizabeth was short lived as they were separated but not divorced before 1870.

There is much controversy concerning whether Berry had children by Elizabeth. At least two children were born while they were together, Isaac Peters born 5 months after their marriage who was proven not to be Berry's by recent DNA testing. Another child Calvin A. Peters was also born to Elizabeth in 6/1868 but no DNA testing has been done to prove or disprove his paternal line.

Ethel you never did answer my question. Could it be possible because of the land trans. to William and Patsy or Polly (don't have my notes) in 1784 that Volentine Corley could have wandered down into S. C. and returned to Va. to die. The names of the descendants of James are identical to the ones of my Zack's. Could Valentine Corley and Robert Corley of Orange 1749 be brothers and Valentine come down to S. C. to see Robert (who I only get glimpses of before 1800???) The Valentine Corley who was brother to my Zack had a son Robert.

Edith, John Frogg is mentioned one time as witness to deed in Orange Co., Va. 1741 I think. Haven't traced the land to find location and don't know anything about it, but you can bet on the Orange Co. Va. Corleys, because of the Strothers, Thorntons and others

And Ethel, I have a very good reference for you. I can get the information by going to Clemson Univ. and looking in the book again, but only copied the reference. It is of a Thiel Cowly (who could very well be Salanthail) in Pittsylvania Co., Va. and if you look in Handy book is could be your county at one time.

"Cowley, Thiel & Barbara Gurry married by Rev. Richard Elliot. page 26. Reference Marriages Pittsylvania Co. Va. 1767-1805 Library Ref. F 232 P 7 A 6 Clemson University, S. C.
At any rate this would be a good shortening of your name and one to look for in future ref.

I've got to go. There is no doubt of a common ancestor - the question is who, but I believe the seat is in New Kent, Co.-before that will have to wait.

Edith, if I were you I would get a pistol and go after anyone who mentions Ireland again. That family tradition has done more harm to researchers than anything I have ever read. It has hampered the truth for at least 3 or 4 years of anyone doing research on your Corley. Oh yes there is also an early Malacki Chiles...IF they did come from Ireland it had to be in the 1600 instead of 1765, because from the evidence yours Corley's were Colonel before 1700 as well as mine and Ethels. Just have to prove it, that's all. Ha!

Love,

Dear Edith and Ethel:

I decided to write off the top of my head comments about the 3 printed sheets and maps that I sent you, because actually these are the records you will be interested mostly, and it will be a week or more before I can get back to anything. I have done the condensed papers for the benefit of Va. research, having a compact list of facts to use as references to follow as guide lines in the research.

I want to say now, that my opinion of the Corley immigrant....If not Richard, then I believe they came in through Norfolk Co. (based on fact that Etheridge's were there very early and joined Corleys in Edgefield Co., S. C.) Also although I haven't looked for West family or Mathews in Norfolk Co, Va. very early or even Nanssmond Co and York Co., Va.- there were in 1750's Michael Corley, William West, Lot Etheridge getting land in S. C. I have gone back with possible Etheridge lineage although it is not mentioned in the Etheridge paper I wrote, but it has every possibility of being the beginning point of the first migrations upward into New Kent. I do believe that both of your families & mine did have the common ancestor Richard Corley of New Kent, Va. I will not go beyond him until I prove the line back to him whether it be an hypothesis or actual facts. If you will look at the first hand drawn map with the 1775 map of Joshua Fry you can see that my hypothesis of migration from Norfolk Co & Nanssmond Co. into York Co. and into New Kent Co., Va. could be a fact as water ways was the way of transportation and as land opened up this could be possible.

Maybe I did not point out that I think Austin Corley's name came from the surname Austin, and then Edith you will notice in the printed sheet of New Kent Co., Va. the Surnames that correspond with the names of your ancestor as Garland and Sneed marriage etc.

FACT: 1702 Order to Richard for Church and 1715 Order to John Corley clearing road from Stony run & Stone Horse Creek could be designation of two locations. Check the second hand drawn map for these locations within the same vicinity of each other YET Two different adult males.

(2) Each tithable had sons to assist....

(3) the 1715 John Corley more in Hanover Co., Va. section and right up the river is Allen's and possible Goochland Co., Va. later county.

So since the (3) has a John Corley adult in 1715 and the only recorded early land is found in St. Paul's Vestry book and no mention of these as having land in later records of this record we can assume the Hanover Co., Corleys occupied land upward on the South Anna River thus the reason for no land prosessioners in years upward to 1784. Also that Austin Corley was heir to one of these Corleys that stayed in Hanover Co., Va., but not so for Richard of Culpepper Co., Va. and Valentine of Cumberland Co., Va. I don't know whether Valentine of Cumberland Co., Va. from the Orange Co. migrant of Hanover Co., migrant but lean to the Orange, because of names.

(4) A Richard Corley did die ca. 1736 (Is this the 1677 Richard Corley)? that a John Corley did sell his property in 1740 to Henry Willis, Esq. who had filed suit against Richard Corley Estate in 1736 (Henry Willis Mag. of Court) The question is - since John Corley shows no wife does this mean he is settling the estate of Richard Corley? The John Corley who died in 1743 had a wife. Colonel Law left estate to or land to the Eldest son or if no sons only then to the widow. Anthony Stothers was adm. and main creditor so it is very possible that John's wife was his dau and they were living on his property. This implies to me TWO John's. THAT the Progenitor law was in effect in Va. 50 or more years after this is FACT and only the eldest son could inherit land....

(5) THAT John Corley and Shirley Whatley were living together in Orange Co., N. C. in 1750 as proved by tithables of Granville Co., N. C. along with Petty's etc. and that

RESEARCH AIDS, FORMS AND TIPS

Over the last 30 year research aids, sources and techniques have changed considerably. I calculated that I wrote over 5,000 letters trying to gather the information I presented in THEY CALLED THEMSELVES CAULLEY, CAULEY AND COLLEY. I spent countless hours reading censuses on microfilm, and I made many many trips to the Main St. Louis Library some 45 miles away. Today, with the internet I can accomplish in one afternoon what it took me six months to accomplish in the 1970s.

The first part of this chapter will provide the readers with a variety of web sites that can make a genealogist's life much easier. At the end of this chapter I will provide you with a variety of Genealogical forms.

GENEALOGY WEB SITES

www.Ancestry.Com

Ancestry.com is a subscription site that has a very wide variety of primary source documents such as nearly ALL Federal Censuses (1790-1930), State Censuses, Marriage Records, Birth Indexes, Death Indexes, Obituaries, ships' passenger lists, city directories, land records, court records and much more. Everything searchable. These documents can be copied and downloaded to your computer's hard drive. Currently they have a two-week FREE trial period. In my opinion, it is well worth the money for researchers.

www.Footnote.com

Footnote.com is another subscription site that has a large collection of military records, particularly the Revolutionary War and the Civil War. These records can be searched and saved to your computer's hard drive. They, too, have a two-week FREE trial period.

<http://wc.rootsweb.ancestry.com/cgi-bin/igm.cgi>

Roots Web.com's World Connects site is a FREE site that contains more than 630,019,794 Names, 5,437,232 Surnames and 429,998 user contributed Databases or family trees. Their data base is searchable and, once a family is found you usually have access to family group pages, family tree charts and descendant's charts. A word of caution, any user contributed family tree is no better than the accuracy of the person who uploaded it to the site.

There are two kinds of researchers. 1) is the name collectors. These are the people who get a charge out of having large numbers of names on their trees. They seldom use primary source documents and almost NEVER site their sources. They will often find a tree with a likely family member, take that's there and attach it to their tree. Then they move on, never checking out the accuracy of their "source" tree. 2) Is the true genealogist. They strive to document everything. They hunger for primary source documents. If they make a speculative connection, they make a notation that "THIS IS NOT PROVEN, ONLY SUSPECTED." Their trees can usually be used, and you can count on the fact that they checked it all out before adding it.

www.FamilySearch.Org/eng/Search/frameset_search.asp

Family Search.Org is the FREE L. D. S. (Mormon) Church site. Since genealogy is a part of their religion, it is full of useful information. DO remember the caveat I mentioned above. Over zealous researchers do not always check and/or site their sources. With the above link you are able to check for family trees contributed by members of the L.D.S. Church. They also have transcribed information from the 1880 census.

<http://search.labs.familysearch.org/recordsearch/start.html#p=0>

<https://beta.familysearch.org/>

Family Search.Org's Records Search sites. These 2 FREE sites are also from the L.D.S. Church when you can search for transcribed records. These 2 sites have helped me find marriage and make connections I have been working on for years. These are basically SECONDARY SOURCE records sites since they have been transcribed and, as we all know, errors can be made by transcribers. They often have to interpret old, and often sloppy hand writing. This is still a very useful site.

<http://familytreemaker.genealogy.com/users/>

Family Tree Maker's family Tree Search Site is another FREE site where you can search for family tree information submitted by those who own Family Tree Maker software. It's always work a check to see what others have submitted. Sometimes you hit the Jack pot, as I did with one of my family lines, the HUGHESes.

<http://www.usgenweb.org/>

The U. S. GenWeb Project Is another FREE site. This lik takes you the State Indexes. From each state genweb site you can select your county of interest. Each county's site has a variety of information that other genealogists have share. The information is almost always in transcript form, and seldom images of the original documents. These are worth checking out if you can figure out which county you need to check.

<http://www.usgwarchives.net/>

The U. S. GenWeb Archives site is another FREE research site which usually has different information than that found on their "cousins," The U S GenWeb Project sites. Again, state links are indexed which lead to individual county sites. The information is almost always in transcript form, and seldom images of the original documents. These are worth checking out if you can figure out which county you need to check.

<http://www.worldgenweb.org/>

The WorldGenWeb Project site is a FREE site similar to the U S GenWeb Project, but it covers information from foreign countries.

<http://www.itd.nps.gov/cwss/>

The Civil War Soldiers & Sailors System is another FREE site where researchers can quickly check if their ancestors served in the Civil War, either in the Union Army or the Confederate Army. You can also gather information about Regiments and battles. This is a good Quick check and if you find something, you can go to FootNote.com for copies of the records.

<http://www.findagrave.com/cgi-bin/fg.cgi>

Find-A-Grave.com is a FREE site where researchers can search for graves of their ancestors. No where near all grave are listed, but they do have 54,000,000 names at present and more are being registered every day.

<http://fmg.ac/Projects/MedLands/Search.htm>

The Foundation for Medieval Lands search site. Yet another FREE site. If you are fortunate enough to trace you family back to the middle ages, you can check to see if they are listed in any known documents.

<http://www.glorerecords.blm.gov/PatentSearch/Default.asp?>

U.S. Land Patents search site is a FREE site where you can search to see if your ancestor purchased any public lands, then copy and save copies of the certificates to your hard drive.

<http://www.archives.gov/genealogy/>

The National Archives Genealogy and Family History Site This is another FREE site which is full of information and tips for genealogists.

<http://www.census-online.com/>

Online Censuses site is another FREE site that has links to all the FREE censuses that can be found on the internet.

<http://www.familyhistory101.com/>

Family History 101 is another FREE site that links each state, then county to useful genealogy and history sites.

<http://www.jewishgen.org/databases/eidb/ellisgold.html>

The Ellis Island Database Is a FREE site where researchers can search to see if there are any records associated with their ancestors arrival through Ellis Island (1892 to 1954)

<http://lists.rootsweb.ancestry.com/index/index.html>

RootsWeb's Email Groups is a FREE site designed to help researchers of similar interests connect through an email group. They can be by surname or location.

The next “Late addition” is a new entry of DNA results to compare with Tom Caulley’s. This addition is/are the DNA results for Roger Vernon Corley. Roger is a known descendant of Caniel Corley through his son, Jonathan Cheatham Corley. Since Roger is known to be a descendant of Caniel’s, this strengthens our belief that Caniel fathered Sally’s children.

Some have Stated that this does not preclude the possibility of Sally’s children being fathered by a son of Caniels’ who died before Caniel’s will was written. They believe this could possibly have been a Berry Corley Sr. since on one census Berry is listed as Little Berry and on one deed he signed as Berry Junior. In an effort to either prove or refute this theory I recently checked both the 1790 and 1800 tax lists for Bedford Co., VA., and the whole of Virginia. Both show Caniel, and the 1800 list also shows William and Sallathial, BUT NO BERRY OR ANY OTHER CORLEY IN BEDFORD COUNTY. Since Sally’s children were born between 1786 and 1799, reason dictates that IF there was a Berry Corley Sr., he would have appeared on one of these 2 tax lists, BUT THERE WAS NONE. That leads us to believe he did not exist.

Below is a section I “snatched” from the DNA results site. You will see that Roger and Tom Caulley are a 100% match.
